  - Why has she no time to waste in longings? (Three Days to See)

SECTION-II

3. Translate any two of the following paragraphs into Urdu : 4,4
- The preparation for this journey was made at the house of Hazrat Abu Bakr Siddique (R.A). Hazrat Asma (R.A) rendered useful services in this regard. She prepared food for this journey. She tied the food on the camel back with her own belt as nothing else could be found.
  - The most important element in the interior of the mosque is the mehrab, which is made of finely carved marble. To the right of the mehrab is a richly decorated pulpit. The mosque is so designed that even when it is most crowded, everyone in the mosque can hear and see the Imam.
  - How was it possible, I asked myself, to walk for an hour in the woods and see nothing worthy of note? I, who cannot see can find hundreds of things to interest me through mere touch. I feel the delicate symmetry of a leaf. I pass my hands lovingly about the smooth skin of a silver birch.

Newspapers keep us constantly in touch with the whole of mankind. In olden days a man's world consisted of his own village and one or two neighbouring villages. It was difficult for him to know what was going on in other parts of the country. But today the press assisted by rapid means of communications brings us news from the farthest corners of the globe. The press is also responsible for educating public opinion. The laws of a nation are really shaped by its press. In fact the public receives guidance from the newspapers. Thus their power in modern times is really great.

Questions:

- What good do the newspapers do to us?
- Why in olden days, man could not know what was going on in far off places?
- What is the responsibility of the press today?
- How are the laws of a country shaped now-a-days?
- How are newspapers a source of public guidance?
