

The Fruit of the Spirit

- Contrasting fruit of the flesh to fruit of the Spirit: Galatians 5: 19-25
- Are we to be fascinated by gifts or fruits of the Spirit?
- What does it really mean to be filled with the Spirit?
- Who is doing the work? Us or the Triune God?
- What are the real effects of the Spirit's power on our lives?
- What is our response to the works of the flesh and the works of the Spirit?
- What does it really mean to be in the Spirit?
- How does our culture regard the vices and proprieties described in Gal 5?
- What is the genuine work of the Holy Spirit today?
- Is there a relationship in the Holy Spirit's work in creation and in us?
- What is the Spirit's greatest gift?
- Are we created for a purpose or for good works?
- It is the Holy Spirit who gives us faith, and it is faith that bears the fruit of love and it is love that bears the fruit of good works.
- All the gifts and fruits of the Spirit flow from love.
- We are sealed with the promised Holy Spirit.
- Nothing of eternal value occurs in our lives or the life of the Church apart from the active engagement of the Holy Spirit.
