Celebrate Frederick Douglass' 200th Birthday During Black History Month

This month, Maryland celebrates the life and legacy of the father of civil rights Frederick Douglass with commemorative events around the state. And explore the stories of other Maryland-born civil rights giants such as Harriet Tubman, Thurgood Marshall, and Benjamin Banneker during Black History Month with events at the Reginald F. Lewis Museum of Maryland African American History & Culture and the Great Blacks in Wax Museum in Baltimore, the Josiah Henson Park in North Bethesda, and along the Harriet Tubman Underground Railroad Scenic Byway. Find more great ideas at the Black History Month page of our website.

During FeBREWary

On February 1, Governor Larry Hogan kicks off FeBREWary, Maryland's official month-long celebration of our craft beer manufacturing industry. And with events on tap across the state, it's the perfect time for a beer lover's getaway. Breweries, ale houses and brew pubs are hosting special events, and many hotels have special FeBREWary stay-over packages. With great events like ShoreCraft's Love On Tap Brew Festival, the Love Thy Beer Winter Warmer Showcase, and much more, FeBREWary in Maryland is the perfect opportunity to hoist a pint with good friends in great places. Follow this link for a listing of events, packages and special beer releases by Maryland breweries.

Put the Thrill in the Chill with a Winter Sports Adventure

As the mercury drops, things heat up in Maryland's part of the great outdoors. Whether it's hitting the slopes at Wisp Resort, snowshoeing in your favorite state park, ice fishing on Deep Creek Lake, or living your own Winter Olympics dreams, February is the perfect time to get outside in Maryland.
