SPORTS UPDATE

- This week saw the start of the pre-intramural matches for football. The teams made a fantastic start to the season with Law A drawing 1-1 with geography and Law B winning 5-1 against computer science.
- Cricket intramural began this week and Law A chased down the Medic B team score of 47 with 1 wicket and an over spare, thanks mainly to Sam Pounds who starred with bat and ball.
- Netball intramural will start this Sunday. The teams are now coming together nicely after a few weeks of training sessions.
- Still interested in law sports? Email Abi, our Sports Secretary, at aec20

JOIN OUR LAW CRICKET TEAM!

- Law cricket is now up and running and there is currently one team entered into the 6-a-side indoor intramural competition. It would be great to get more teams entered and competing for the Law Society.
- These matches are held on a Sunday between 5-7pm in the Danielle Brown sports hall on campus. Matches last roughly 40 minutes.
- Experience is preferable but not a necessity.
- The rules of intramural have changed this year so unless you have at least a silver gym membership, you will have to pay £4 per week to play.
- For anyone interested, please contact Josh McLean (jlm45) for details on how to sign up.
