

Doris Elizabeth Forney

Doris Elizabeth Forney, of Laurel, Delaware passed away on Thursday, July 24, 2008 from a courageous battle with cancer.

Born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, she was the daughter of the late Paul and Elizabeth Myers.

Doris had worked for Armstrong World Industries in the accounts receivable department from 1952-1960. She was instrumental in helping to install the company's first IBM computer system in 1959. Doris was a wonderful homemaker, and loved her husband and children dearly. She enjoyed gardening, outdoor activities such as camping and fishing, and was a wonderful seamstress. Her family will always remember the delicious Pennsylvania Dutch dinners she would graciously cook for them. Doris was a member of the Laurel Wesleyan Church, and a volunteer at the Good Samaritan Shop in Laurel.

Doris is survived by her husband, Melvin Forney of Laurel; her son, Sheldon and his wife Lisa Forney of Selbyville, Delaware, and her daughter, Trina Forney of Delmar, Maryland. Also surviving her, a sister-in-law Betty Myers of Pennsylvania, and two special children dear to her heart, Payton Saxton and Jack Saxton. Doris also leaves behind many nieces and nephews.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her brothers, Robert Myers, Mervin Myers, and Lloyd Myers; and a sister, Mabel Witmer.

A Funeral service will be held at the Laurel Wesleyan Church, 30186 Seaford Laurel Road, Laurel, Delaware on Tuesday, July 29th at 11:00 a.m. A viewing will be held one hour prior to the service at the church. Interment will be held at Delaware Memorial Veterans Cemetery in Millsboro, Del. The Pastor Kenneth Deusa will be officiating.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made in her honor to the Good Samaritan Outreach, 115 West Market Street, Laurel, DE 19956.

Arrangements are in the care of the Hannigan, Short, Disharoon Funeral Home, 700 West Street, Laurel, Delaware. Letters of condolences can be made by visiting
