
Set Me Free

Verse 1

Let's just say you're a frustrated atheist,
Unsure of your validity.
Afraid to move from your stated label
In case that loses the face of the appeal.

Verse 2

Let's just say that you feel a total reject
And think life's passing you by.
Your self-esteem doesn't seem to be there
And your daily life feels so dry.

Chorus

Why don't you open your mind
And pray this simple prayer –
"Oh God I want to know your spirit
Won't you set me free?
Open my mind to have your small voice be
My prompter for eternity."

Verse 3

Let's just say you're a frustrated worker
With "same-old" jobs to get done.
Your emptiness yearns for something new.
A spark to alter a life that feels numb.

Verse 4

Let's just say you're a family member
And there's no longer the joy
That once bound you all together
And gave warmth and smiles to deploy.

Chorus

Chorus

Be encourager for me".
