Amazone – Pouf system
Design by Atelier Oi

The 'Amazone' collection relies on its bold design to create casual conversation spaces where people can feel free to meet and share ideas. A metaphor for riding sidesaddle in France, the Amazon is a technique that allowed women to ride horses more frequently and at greater speeds, sitting across the horse's back with both legs kept together.

The collection consists of a crucial centre element: a flat surface in natural or lacquered walnut serving as a coffee table, to which a series of poufs are attached. This informal and collaborative configuration gives users full latitude to choose the position they feel most comfortable in and the way they want to interact with others. The range includes several compositions, meeting a variety of needs for workspace, residential or hospitality environments.

Individual upholstered poufs are also available in two sizes and can be combined inside a room into fun and spontaneous clusters to create personalised patterns.

The 'Amazone' collection is an inspiring solution to bring people together and accommodate all possible group configurations in warm and sophisticated interiors.

ATELIER OÏ

Atelier oï was established in 1991, in La Neuveville, Switzerland, by architects and designers Aurel Aebi, Armand Louis and Patrick Reymond. For over 20 years, atelier oï has striven to dissolve barriers between genres and foster cross-disciplinary creativity. Over the course of their achievements, architecture, design and set design have intertwined on an international scale. Cross-disciplinarity, team spirit and an intimate approach to the material are their watchwords. Therefore, experimenting is an essential aspect of atelier oï's approach: the objects often stem from an intuitive and emotional interaction with the material. In addition to experimentations, cultural exchanges and events dedicated to their work, the studio create designs for prestigious brands such as Alias, Artemide, B&B Italia, Bulgari, Breguet, Chopard, Desalto, Foscarini, Louis Vuitton, Moroso, Nespresso, Parachilna, Passoni, Pringle of Scotland, Rimowa, Röthlisberger, Swatch, USM, Victorinox, Zanotta and many more.
