

Quantum Prayer

English Transcript | Emerson Ferrell

Hello, beloved friends. So good to come to you today with some very important information and spiritual revelation that can change your life. So whatever you do, watch this video to its completion, because what I'm going to tell you today, you may have never heard before, and it might just be that missing piece that unlocks that door that's been your biggest hindrance to finding the place in Christ that gives you rest and takes you away from any kind of fear the rest of your life.

So, stay with me, and we're going to go through a few things from my book (that if you haven't gotten it, I recommend that you get it just as quickly as you can) called, The New Testament is You. And although it sounds cliché, it's much greater than that because it explains in great detail why so many things in our Bible have been misunderstood. And what the Holy Spirit does from generation to generation is “transitional” instead of “circular”. And what we find in so many people who go to church, who love the Lord with all their heart, is they just can't get the breakthrough that was promised to them through Christ's resurrection.

So, stay tuned. We're going to start with some very important information that I believe can help us. I'm going to deal with “why our prayers are so ineffective”. But first, we need to understand that we are spirit. We've heard this over and over again, but if you've been with this channel any period of time, you've heard me say that. You're going to have a greater understanding of it as you start to understand that the “Word of Christ is Spirit and Life”. So, whenever Jesus spoke (and everything that we have found in the Bible that are “red letters” for people that have a Bible that show Jesus' words in red), His words are filled with the Spirit. They will change your life. They will bring you back to the understanding of where you were in Him before the foundation of the world. In fact, let's look at John 12 real fast. I want to start off with this so you can have a greater understanding as we go through.

John 12:48

“He who rejects Me, and does not receive My words, has that which judges him - the word that I have spoken will judge him in the last day.”

Now, that is so filled with revelation that if you start to get it, you'll recognize that you don't need to judge anything. Jesus has done all the judging that ever needs to be done in this dimension. His word is the judgment that separates us from what is right and what is wrong. We don't need to judge what's right and wrong. That's what makes this Bible so irrelevant to those who try to live in an "old covenant mentality". Jesus is saying in this verse, "You don't have to worry about judging. My words that I came explicitly to put into this realm will do the judging forever." Next verse.

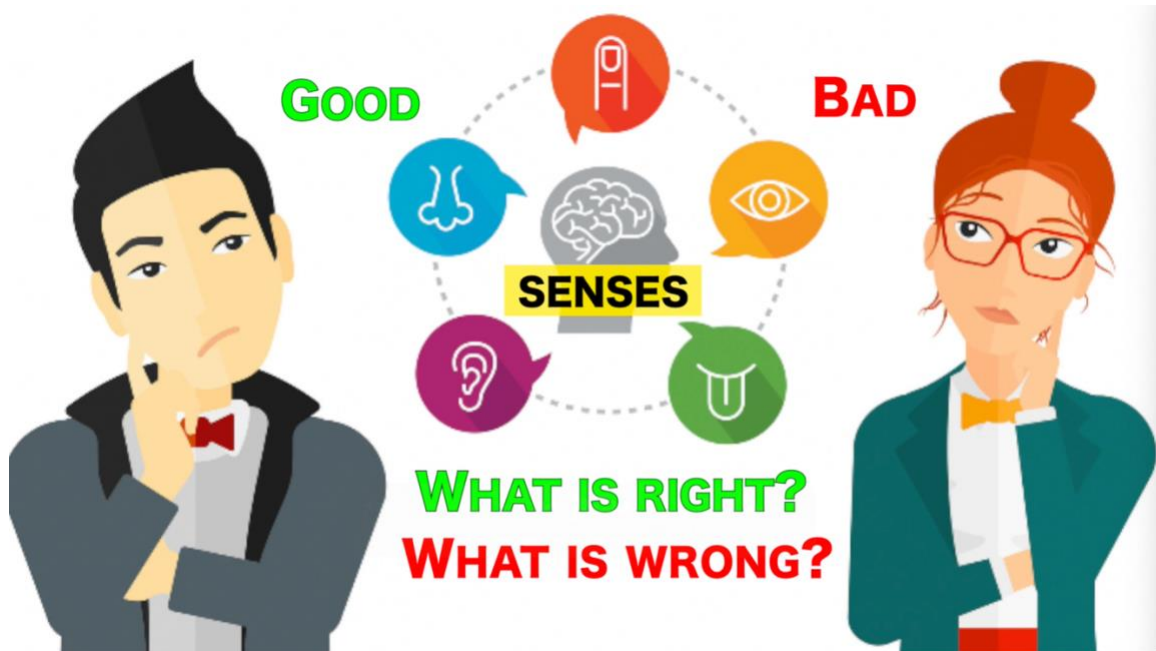

John 12:49

"For I have not spoken on My own authority, but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and how I should say it."

Check that out! Not only did He tell Him what to say, but how to say it. How many times have we tried to express ourselves from the revelation that we receive from the Holy Spirit? And we have the understanding because it happened to us, but we don't use the right words to bridge the gap from people that didn't get the revelation. They have to hear it from someone that did. That's what happens so many times in church settings. The man of God or the woman of God will stand up and give you a revelation that they have, but the words that they use to convey it don't "pull us across" that bridge into that spiritual understanding. And so, we hear it through these "filters" that have been corrupted by our senses.

We grow up in this dimension where all of our senses are trained to be at the heightened point where we can discern what's good and evil, because that's the dimension we live in. Think about it. All your senses, what you taste, what you smell, what you feel, and how you see, are all through the filter of "right and wrong, good and bad". "How does it affect my state of being?"

Our state of being is "how we think" and "how we feel". That state of being is what gives us the filter to receive all the information we have in this environment.

When Jesus came on the scene, to speak, He knew what He needed to say because His Father told Him and He could hear His Father, but He also said: “how to say it” so that the people who had ears (which He talks about in another verse that we’ll read) could hear that spiritual transition, that understanding that it takes to go from the filters to the spiritual knowing.

Remember I said a long time ago that knowing without learning is the dimension of faith where you don't have to use this world's wisdom to understand what the Word is saying, and that Word is Christ. So, when Jesus was speaking the word because that's who He is, He was putting it into the atmosphere, putting it into this dimension so that “forever” it would judge what's right and wrong. We don't have to do it. That should make you very happy. You don't have to be on the alert to know what's good and bad for you because the Word of God through Christ has already been the filter, so you don't need to. You don't need to be that person that judges what's right and wrong. So, when you look at things or when you hear things, take those filters away and rest in the knowledge that what God is giving you is necessary for your development.

I know that doesn't sound right for many people because they don't believe they should be going through any problems. That's how I felt all my life. I didn't want any circumstances that was going to come against my model (or image) of what I should take or get or receive from things. I had my own image of what's good and bad for me because “this image” I developed depended on me receiving what I thought was right. Aren't you glad you don't have to do that? Aren't you glad that your Heavenly Father has already put you in a position where you're going to get everything you need to become who you were in Him before the foundation of the world? Now, that's a mouthful, and I want you to meditate on that.

It says in the Bible, in Ephesians 1:4, that “we were in Him before the foundation of this world.” The foundation of this world was created through the fear of Adam, through the fault of Adam choosing the wrong fruit. So, that created this dimension and this foundation of “the fear” and “the fear of death”, because he was told and she was told that “if you eat that fruit, you're going to die” (see Genesis 3:2-3).

God warned them about eating the wrong fruit because they would die, but not physically (see Genesis 2:17). Spiritually, they were going to be “separated from the Father”. That's what this whole dimension is all about: “Our journey back to the fullness in Him before the foundation of the world.” It begins by understanding that the revelation that God has given us through His Word is already in this dimension. We just have to remove our senses as being the judge to receive it.

We use our senses because we don't want to feel pain. We don't want to go through circumstances that we don't choose. God knew that before we took flesh and blood in this body. That's why He's always moving us in the direction that we wouldn't choose unless He had a better plan. We all want comfort. We all want a routine that doesn't take us out of our comfort zone. But that's not how you grow, and that's not how you develop in the eyes of God.

And so, what these lessons that we're going to share over these next few days or weeks or months or however long it takes, is to give you understanding and revelation so that you cannot resist what God is bringing to you but embrace it. Bring it inside of you and embrace it and understand this is your Heavenly Father giving you exactly what you need.

So, let's look at the next verse.

John 12:49-50

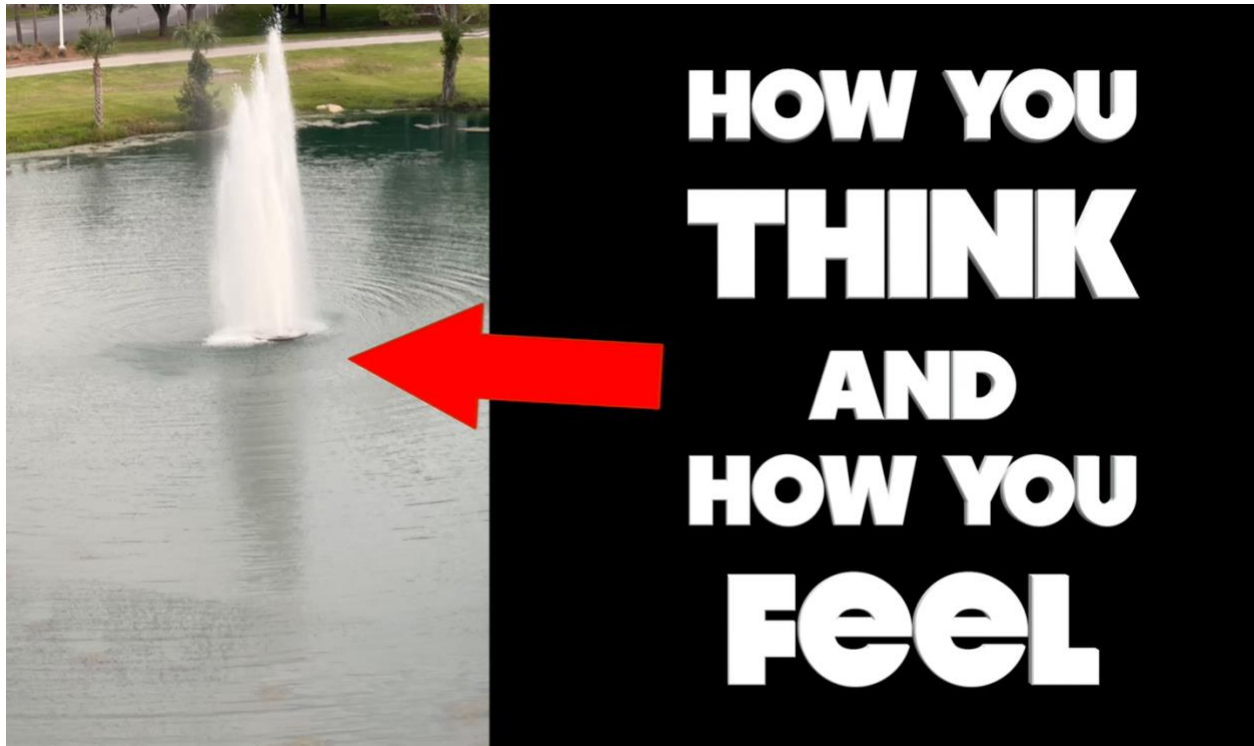

For I have not spoken on My own authority; but the Father who sent Me gave Me a command, what I should say and what I should speak. And I know that His command is everlasting life. Therefore, whatever I speak, just as the Father has told Me, so I speak.

So here is a clue. Every word Jesus spoke was everlasting life. So, when we are in this dimension and we think inside this dimension, the words we speak, if we're not careful, are not everlasting life. I want you to think about it: If you go to a doctor and he gives you a diagnosis and he tells you you've got some disease, and this diagnosis has a language. And you have to learn that language because the doctor is speaking this language, and this language is developed and designed inside of this world's system, and it comes from the fallen nature that every human being is born into. So, they learn the wisdom of this world, which is the foundation (which is what?) of death and the fear of death.

So, the doctor tells you you've got some mortal disease that's going to kill you, something that is going to reduce your life to a very short period of time here. And after you get over the shock and after you get over the fear, you start to say, “But I’m a Christian, that shouldn’t have to happen to me.” So, you’re taught in churches: “You need to pray, and you need to believe God”, and yet what we pray and how we believe God is developed from the language of this world’s system.

The doctor gives you the name of the disease. He gives you a drug that’s created to fight this certain disease. So, you have to learn that drug, because everybody that goes to a doctor and they get some diagnosis, they learn the whole schematic around that disease. Because you feel like if you go to Google and you search all these word documents and read all about the disease (that the doctor says you have), you will be “well equipped to fight that disease in your prayer life”. That’s not right because the words of this dimension are not everlasting life, they don’t come from the everlasting Word of God. Now, you can quote scripture, but if you quote scripture with the words that you speak and learn from this dimension, it’s not faith. There’s no faith in the words of death. That’s what this system brings you because that’s what this foundation is on.

I want you to think about how your heart and your mind are connected. We're going to show you a little video that shows you the waves it puts out when you “think and feel”. Now, you see the waves that came out from our thoughts. Our thoughts send these waves out. The electric thoughts that come from your mind are like these waves that spin out from the thinking fountain there. You see the fountain of your “state of being”, how your heart thinks and how your head thinks. All those thoughts are sent out into the universe. Think of that as a prayer.

If your mind has these thoughts of healing, “I’m well”, “I’m not sick”, “This disease is a lie”. And yet your heart was fearful, and it sends out a different electromagnetic wave. The frequency combined between the electrical wave and the heart wave are called a resonance. And the resonance in your head and in your heart have to be the same, or you’re not going to pull back what you want because they’re not joined together. And if your heart’s frightened, that resonant frequency will pull back frightened results. You’ll receive what that doctor diagnosed.

Here's what I want you to understand. Get a picture of a tornado. A tornado is spinning from top to bottom. If you see it when it first begins, you can't see it because it's invisible. But as it comes into this atmosphere, it starts to generate this spin, and it pulls into itself all the dust and all the debris, and it starts to cover itself in the debris and the dust that it comes across. It comes across a town, or it comes across a road or a field. You start seeing the debris of where the point of the tornado touches.

This is basically your human body. It's an electromagnetic field whose heart is the strongest magnetic pool and whose thoughts send out an electrical wave that if they're unified, they're going to bring you what you desire. If you cover yourself with these feelings and thoughts of fear, then you're going to draw all of that to your body, and this magnetic field that God has designed to bring you whatever it is you desire will be reduced to what it is you believe.

That's why Jesus came and said, "I'm putting everlasting life into this dimension through My words. This everlasting life is going to judge what's right and wrong. You don't have to be concerned with that. It's also going to bring you exactly what you believe as long as you're in harmony with your mind and your heart."

Your heart is the strongest instrument in your body. That's why the Bible talks about the heart so much. So, if you are in love with the words of Christ and you are in love with everlasting life, you're going to draw that to your being, and that being will start to expand, and it'll start to repel. You've ever put two magnets together? You put two magnets together, what happens? If they're at the same pole, they repel.

So, this electromagnetic field you're creating from everlasting life in the words of Christ, is that field that repels everything that's not everlasting life.

Therefore, you will draw life to yourself, you'll draw abundance to yourself. But you have to be in absolute harmony because “how we think” and “how we feel”, that state of being has to be in total harmony.

So, you go back to the doctor again, and the doctor tells you, “Okay, you've got this disease.” Number one, ask yourself, “Why did I go to the doctor in the first place?” “Well, I felt this, and I believe this, and I had these thoughts.” Well, they came from a thought. They came from a feeling. So, your state of being was fearful. It wasn't in unison with everlasting life. If you embrace everything God is bringing to you, what it appears is not what it is.

You see, you have to see beyond the obvious. And that's what is so important about recognizing the Words of Christ, because He never saw the obvious. He always saw what His Father showed Him, and what He showed Him, He showed you because you were in Him before the foundation of the world. Get hold of that. Jesus showed you everything He went through before you became flesh. He showed you everything you would go through before you came flesh.

I want you to see another scripture here that talks about hearing.

Luke 8:18

Therefore, take heed how you hear. For whoever has, to him more will be given; and whoever does not have, even what he seems to have will be taken from him.

Take heed how you hear. Now, hearing, when Jesus is speaking, is not talking about “listening”. Listening is a skill we learn as students in this world's system because we have to use our senses to listen. And listening through our senses does not give us the picture of what we know in our hearing. So, when God is speaking and we hear Him, we already know because of the frequency and the resonance that's vibrating on the inside of us.

Remember, if we're embracing everlasting life and we're concentrating on the Words of Christ, we don't listen to the interpretations from other people.

We don't listen from the interpretations we get from the wisdom we get in this world's system. We hear it through the resonant frequency of everlasting life and the words of Christ. They are vibrating at a frequency way beyond this dimension. That's why being present, staying absolutely attentive to the present moment lives in that dimension of faith. You can't live in faith and be concentrating on the things of this world system. If you're concentrating on the things of this world's system, your attention is going to be on the wrong thing. You'll be listening to whatever Google says or listening to whatever somebody else says.

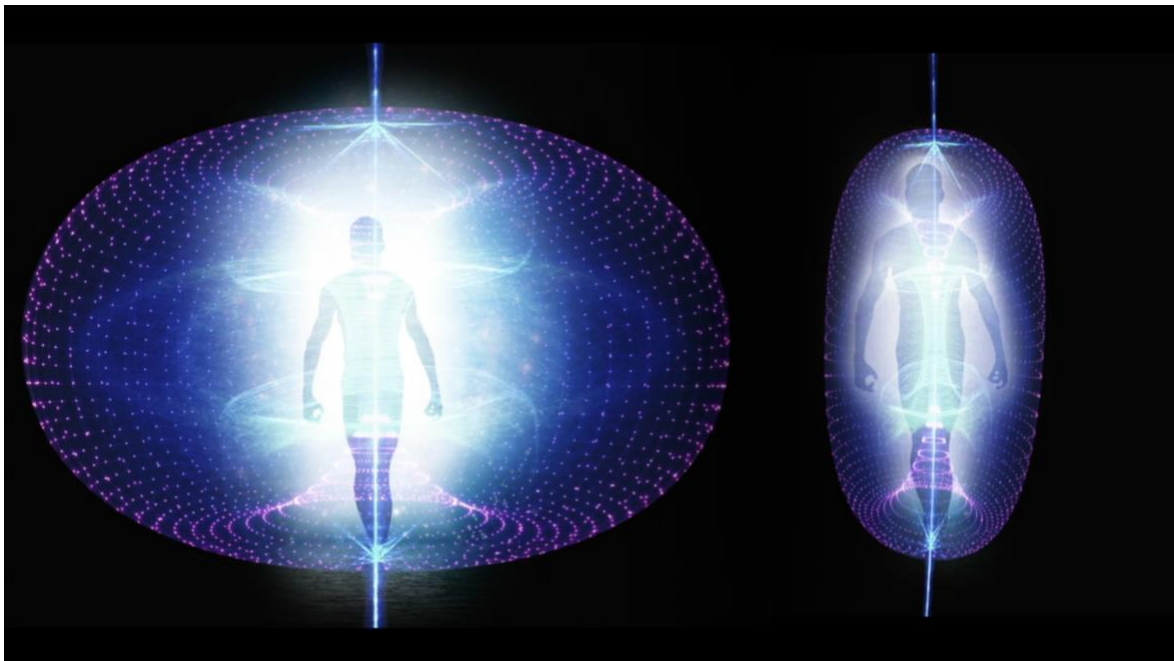

That's not your dimension. Your dimension is the Spirit dimension, where you don't pay attention to this linear dimension because you're too busy hearing the Father outside of this dimension. So, when Jesus is saying, "Whatever you hear, those who have more will be added." So, what I'm telling you is this, all the people that are paying attention to this dimension, what they had will be taken away. So many people that are in the churches are paying attention to the news programs or to their physicians or to the educational system. So, what they had will be taken away. That is their magnetic field that's attracting all the good things in abundance of God shrinks. So, all the things that were designed for them, they lose. So where does it go? It goes to those who are paying attention to the realm of the Spirit. They are hearing what God is saying. They're not listening to the voices of this dimension. They're no longer interested in what this newscaster says. In fact, you can become so detached from this world's system that you're not even concerned with what's going on.

Give you an example (see Matthew 22:15-22). You remember when the disciples came to Jesus and said, "Master, we're supposed to pay taxes"? And Jesus says, "Well, give Me a coin." So, they gave Him a coin, and there was an inscription on the coin, which was Caesar, and He asked the disciples, "Who is this?"

Now, how many church people, if they gave him a dollar bill and they looked at the picture on there, would know that was George Washington? Everybody in the congregation. That's because they're paying attention to money. They're paying attention to this world's system. There's nothing wrong with it.

I'm just explaining to you that you can become so detached because you're hearing the Father that this world's system doesn't matter.

Look, you're walking through this world's system and because you are spirit and not flesh, nothing in this physical dimension can harm you because you're already dead to this world system. That's what holds this foundation of this world together, which is that "fear of death". But if you believe you can still die, if you believe you can still get sick, and if you believe you have to protect yourself, you're going to shrink that field that you're born with by being in Him before the foundation of the world so that what you have disappears. You won't have what God gave you from the beginning.

You can pray for prosperity all you want. You can say, "By His stripes, I'm healed." But if your field has shrunk because you were paying attention to the wrong thing and not hearing God, then you won't have the means to receive it. Now, I'm telling you a lot of things today, and I want you to meditate on this because if you get it, your prayer life will change. You won't be praying for things that you think you need because you already know you have them inside of you.

The Quantum Prayer that you see up here is understanding that everything that you need is already inside you. If you think you have to "have it from the external", it's because you don't understand what your spiritual makeup is. He equipped each and every one of us before we became flesh and blood with everything we would need in the season we would need it. But if you're listening to the Father, you already know that, and you're not thinking about what you don't have, you're thanking Him for what you do have. When you start being thankful for what you have, your prayer life changes because thanksgiving is what unifies your heart and your mind.

If your thoughts are out of balance with your heart, it's because you're not thankful. When you come to God and you say, "Thank You, Father, glorify Your name", all of those things that have been bombarding your mind and telling you: "You've got to have it. You don't have enough money. You need to do this. You need to have that car. You need to have that house. You need to protect yourself from the disease coming around. Have you had your COVID shot yet?"

All of those things are the people that stay focused on this dimension and think their physical body is who they are. They look at that image in the mirror and they say, "It's got to be validated. It's got to be validated with the clothes. It's got to be validated with the education. It needs the money." All of those things. You know what I'm talking about.

What I'm trying to explain to you is: Quantum Prayer is not asking for something you don't have but thanking Him for what you do have. As you do that, you start to open heaven all around you. And more than that, this realm becomes so dissolving because it's basically an illusion.

We told you before that it's created from the manifestation of atoms, spinning around at light speeds, and their waves until they become particles. And we've talked about this before. We've talked about the collapsed wave.

Let me show you a quick picture here. And this is why quantum prayer is so important. So, you got waves, and these are invisible waves from the spiritual dimension. And the only way they become physical is when a conscious observer sees these waves. When they see these waves, they manifest according to what they think, what they believe. What you think and what you believe wave is what unifies those waves into manifestations inside your body. You're like that tornado. So, this field is an electromagnetic field.

And as you “start to think”, you send these waves out into this dimension, into the spiritual realm. And “how you feel” sends electromagnetic waves into the field. And it attracts at the same frequency as they are sent out. If your heart is resonating at the same frequency, you’re going to manifest what you think and believe, and your heart is your believer.

It's so simple when you go into prayer to have a unified heart and mind that sees the reality of this dimension. This is the reality. This is where reality is (the dimensions of Christ, the Kingdom of God) and if you see it, it's because you've been hearing what the Father is saying. The longer you stay attuned to what He's saying, He'll also teach you how to say it. When you receive it from this dimension (spiritual dimension and revelation of Christ), He's going to give you the sound (listen to me now).

“The sound from this dimension (spiritual dimensions in Christ) is different than the sound from the 3rd dimension (time and space). When He gives you the words in this dimension (spiritual dimensions in Christ), it starts to resonate and starts to change any frequency in your being that's out of balance or out of harmony with what He's thinking and feeling. Then He teaches you “how to say that” so this electromagnetic field that you carry expands and starts to attract exactly what you're saying because you're saying it according to His frequency.

This is what Jesus did when He walked the Earth. If we stay in tune with hearing the Father, we're going to start to hear things that we may not be able to put into words, and He tells you "how" to put it into words.

I've heard things years ago, heard stuff from the revelation of the Father that I don't still have words for. I have pictures, I have thoughts, but it's starting to slowly change my heart of doubt and unbelief into a resonating field that's connected with Him. Are you following me? That's where healing comes from. That's where the supernatural realm is. So that when your thoughts and your heart are vibrating with the "resonant hearing from God", you're going to have a field that starts to emit healing, starts to emit supernatural life. It's not so that you can be some grand preacher somewhere, it's so that this realm starts to reveal everlasting life.

Everlasting life is what Jesus brought and put into this dimension through His words. We are to carry that. We are to be so open to that, and we are supposed to be so full of that, so that this 3rd dimension has no appeal. It doesn't supply what you need. He's already supplied what you need. You got to understand this. I know it's a lot, and I know it's so far into so many people. But if you pay attention and you go back and you study what I'm saying, God's going to reveal things to you. And the more He reveals to you, the more He's going to start creating that resonant frequency inside of you so that you can speak it. You don't have to speak it with doubt or unbelief. You can speak it with full faith.

Now, that's why I came here today was to give this message to you. I want you to really receive it. I want you to understand it, and I want you to be filled with the glory of God, which is who you are. That's a spirit being.

Father, I thank you right now for these precious people that have tuned into Your word, and I thank you right now that the revelation that they're receiving will change their physical being. In Jesus' name.
