Revelation 17:8

The beast that you saw, was, and is not, and will ascend out of the bottomless pit and go to perdition. And those who dwell on the earth will marvel, whose names are not written in the Book of Life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

All of these verses in Revelation describe the completion of what Jesus was assigned to do when He was just the Word of God.

So, when He became Jesus of Nazareth, He remembered His assignment, and He stayed lockstep in connection with His Father.

Look in John 14:9-10

Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you so long and yet you have not known Me, Philip? He who has seen Me has seen the Father. So how can you say, show us the Father? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father in Me? The words that I speak to you I do not speak on My own authority, but the Father who dwells in Me does the works.”

Jesus is explaining how He was able to do what He did and say, “None of the works that I’m doing are by Me, it’s My Father that does the works.”

He had nothing “to do” other than to “be in” the Father.

This is important to see, because further down in this verse, we see something in verse 20.

John 14:20

“At that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.”

What day is Jesus speaking about?

It's the day when the works that are being done have nothing to do with you. You recognize that your relationship with this world's system is no longer who you are. And it's not something you "do", it's something you "become", because you are in Him and He's in the Father. So, you go back to where you began.

In Ephesians 1:4, He says you were chosen in Him.
(Say, I was chosen "in Him" before the foundation of the world.)

"Just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love,"

The life you are living today may or may not be what you committed to do while you were in Him. Because the world you live in is the world you create by what you believe. But it's on that day, when you leave the world you've created by your thoughts and enter into His world (the Kingdom of God) because you no longer participate in "thinking".

If you think about a bubble machine, and you think about every person who creates their own world. It's like a little bubble. You live in this little bubble that you call your world. And you think you're communicating with these other little bubbles that are floating around because they understand (or so they think they understand your language). And you live in a region of the planet, and you start to associate that all these little bubbles that you bump into have a relationship with you, but in fact, you're still separated by your beliefs and emotions and thoughts. It's this separation that keeps people away from understanding the reality of the mind of Christ.

The Kingdom of God is not a bubble. It's the spiritual reality of where you originated. But as long as your soul has activity believing that you are real, and you have life. You're separated from His kingdom.

Jesus said, "The words that I speak are spirit and life." (see John 6:63)

See, it's very difficult for you to hear the words of Christ when you're in your own bubble. It's very difficult to code or decode sound when you're isolated by your thoughts.

How many of you have experienced miscommunication with other people? It happens a lot, right? But you see, Jesus didn't have any problem understanding what His Father said. Why is that?

Why did He not have a problem understanding His spiritual connection to His Father? Because He didn't identify with the language of this world's system. This world's system did not attract Him to its reality. How many of us are infected or influenced by this world system?

Come on. Come on. We're going to have a deliverance session for liars.

All of us have been influenced by this system, and we try to draw and connect with how to be “normal” in this world's system.

You were created to be an alien; you don't belong to this world's system. You can't allow the influence of the world's system to affect who you think you are. The minute you do, you've lost your footing with your spiritual origin.

That's why Jesus says, “Seek first the kingdom of God.” (see Matthew 6:33)

It's not visible, but you've got to find it.

So how do you pop your bubble? You have to “hear” the spiritual frequency of your Heavenly Father. You have to know His voice, and you can't be influenced by others in the world that you've created.

Now that's easier said than done, because all of us have this physical body that we think is our instrument for reality.

Now remember I said that the world you create comes from the soul, where your thoughts, emotions and ideas are formed; and before Jesus was resurrected, satan had ultimate control over man's soul with his ideas and thoughts.

Let's read Genesis 6:3

And the Lord said, "My Spirit shall not strive with man forever, for he is indeed flesh; yet his days shall be 120 years."

This is a conversation God had with Noah.

Let's read Genesis 6:5

"Then the Lord saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every intent of the thoughts of his heart was only evil and continually."

Now notice that the intentions were his thoughts. Man's intentions affected his heart. The thoughts of the consciousness of man after sin, which is from the soul, hardens the heart. If man's thoughts are evil all the time, the heart cannot remember the love it experienced before the foundation of the world. So, satan had control over that mechanism because he had the authority from the sin of Adam.

Do you understand?

So, before Jesus came and took the sin, which was the consciousness of the world, satan had the "right" to bombard mankind with evil continually.

Now let's go back to John 12.

This is before Jesus was getting ready to go to the cross.

John 12:27

Now My soul is troubled, and what shall I say, “Father, save Me from this hour.” But for this purpose I came to this hour.

Jesus's soul was being bombarded by satan.

Jesus says He is “troubled”. “That peace that I kept with you, Father, it's starting to be troubled.”

But immediately, look what He said.

John 12:28

“Father, glorify Your name.”

Because the minute He lost that connection, He knew how to restore it.

“Father, glorify Your name. Glorify Your name! You would never leave Me nor forsake Me.”

He knew it. But you see, those who are walking around asleep, or dead, don't know that. They have forgotten that love and that trust that was in Him before the foundation of the world.

So, the people that you're bumping into, if they're asleep (and you will know people that are asleep because they don't treat you very nice), they may say bad things about you, because they're asleep.

Jesus says in John 12:28-30

Then a voice came from heaven, saying, “I have both glorified it and will glorify it again.” Therefore, the people who stood by and heard it said that it had thundered. Others said, “An angel has spoken to Him.” And then Jesus said, “This voice did not come because of Me, but for your sake.”

The minute Jesus glorified His Father's name, He didn't need any more confirmation.

How many Christians do you know that are looking for a confirmation?

“Just give me some confirmation, Lord.” ☺

Jesus says, “This voice did not come for My sake, it came for you.”

“And today it's coming for you. I know that I know who I am and where I'm from. And I know that love from before the foundation of the world. There's not anything this world system can do to Me from this world.”

Many of you probably know that. But it doesn't matter you see, because you don't belong to this world's system unless you choose to be. And that's how people get offended. But that's for another time.

And then Jesus said in John 12:31

Now is the judgment of this world; now the ruler of this world will be cast out.

He didn't say “the earth”, He said “the world”. The ruler of this world system was cast out. That's when Jesus said, “I saw satan fall like lightning.” (see Luke 10:18)

When did He see it? Before the foundation of the world.

John 12:32

“And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all peoples to Myself.”

Jesus was crucified on a cross on the earth. Religion is formed there, not at the resurrected Christ, because the resurrected Christ is up off the earth. He doesn't belong to this world's system which is contained in the earth. If you want to find the kingdom of God, it's not on the earth, it's above the earth. That's why the earth is groaning. (read Romans 8:22)

When we landed the other day in Chile, we felt some groaning. So, the earth groans because it is demanding the glory of Christ be exalted in the earth. But that comes from people with a consciousness of Christ that are living out their destiny from before the foundation of world. Not something “to come”, something that is inside of you before you were on this planet.

It's only the knowledge of what Christ has completed that can change this earth. Because the earth knows what Jesus accomplished. Every creature on the planet knows but man.

His glory fills the earth, and the knowledge of His glory is filling the earth.

The knowledge of His glory is what transforms your world system.

That's what pops your bubble. It's the knowledge of what Christ did, because He's the only One that can penetrate the world you've created from your beliefs. Amen.

So, as we discover the reality of what Christ has completed, the consciousness that we have been operating under is affected dramatically. We don't look in the mirror and see ourselves anymore. We see the condition of our spirit without looking in a mirror. Because it's about our consciousness.

You see, the image that you see that you think is in front of you is actually located in your Occipital lobe which is in the back part of your brain.

So, you're not seeing something in the front of your brain or your eyes. You're seeing everything from the backside of your brain in a very black (dark) space. There's not even any light inside of your skull. So, everything your eyes are giving you a perception of is contaminated by the images that you've created from your past.

The consciousness Christ wants to give you is the awareness of who you are before the foundation of the world. Then, as you walk this planet, in this body, you're not affected by your senses.

People use their senses to determine their reality. God gave you your senses to keep you physically safe, not for you to create your reality. Your reality was in Him before the foundation of the world.

So many of the questions that people have were already answered before you had a physical body. That is what's called knowledge without learning, and that's the glory of Christ.

So, it's unbelievable the journey that you're going to have in Him when you recognize that condition. And most of you have had experiences that you consider prophetic or spiritual in your life, which is the Holy Spirit trying to awaken you to that love you had with the Father before you became a physical being, because that's where your faith can be enriched.

Faith is invisible until you are invisible.

Then you're not affected by this world's system. You're walking by faith. You're living in the Spirit. All the writers talk about that, but it's a reality.

Each day, wake up and challenge what you believe and why.

Ask the Holy Spirit to reveal to you what your foundations have been built upon.

He may tell you to go fast for 40 days and read the Bible cover to cover.

He may tell you to go and ask forgiveness from half a dozen people that you have something against.

Whatever it is that He tells you to do, it is so that you can remove the hindrance that's making you unconscious of Him.

It's a journey, but it requires understanding your foundation first. The spirit realm doesn't have a beginning and an ending, it has dimension, and each dimension has opportunities to reconnect you with your origin.

That's what worship does that nothing else can do.

You remember Jesus opening the blind man's eyes and the minute He identified Himself as the Son of God, the blind man began to worship.

That may be your condition. He's opening your spiritual eyes tonight so that you can worship and change your dimension and keep going higher inside of Him until you reconnect to where you were before you were here.

PRAYER:

Holy Spirit I know that You hear me, and I know you sent these people to hear from You. You are the only One that does the works on this planet, and we want to agree with whatever it is You're doing in the hearts and the minds of every person here, and every person under the sound of my voice.

I know, Lord, that the people that You're raising up in this country will begin to embrace what You've already done before the foundation of the world. And You're going to change their consciousness into a greater understanding of the Christ. And I seal that word in their spirits right now, in Christ's name. Amen.
