Moos – Sofa
Design by Sebastian Herkner

Moos is the German translation of the word moss. This term brings me back to the hikes we used to take in the forests of southern Bavaria, where the ground is covered with a large amount of green moss, reminiscent of small soft cushions. I love that organic softness.

Our sofa is inspired by this comfort.

The modularity of the design offers different configurations. Upholstered, comfortable islands that make us want to throw ourselves into them which were designed for both home interiors and reception areas.

In addition, we have designed various tables and wooden sideboards to accessorize the sofa to make it even more comfortable and pleasant to use.
