Val – Outdoor chair
Design by Luca Nichetto

Like mushrooms sprouting from the ground after a rain, Val is a contemporary outdoor lounge chair designed to enliven the most desirable areas of your exteriors.

Val's deep concave seat is counterpoised by angular sides, allowing you to pair chairs together into organic compositions creating a hilly landscape.

The simple shape of this rotation-moulded garden pouf highlights the material quality of the object. Available in a palette of vibrant colours, with finishes ranging from glossy to textured, Val will work either as a statement piece in your outdoor setting or as an occasional seat on your patio.

A hole at the bottom of the seat allows water to conveniently drain away in wet weather.
