

MY BEST FRIEND IS A GHOST

This might sound _____, but my (adjective)
_____ friend is a ghost. We met in (adjective)
_____ grade at school while they (noun; number)
were _____ the _____.
(verb -ing) (noun; room at school)
Their name is _____ and they (proper noun; first name)
were _____ years old when they (noun; number)
died. No one can _____ my friend but (verb)
me. They have _____ hair and are (adjective; color)
_____, and their clothes are (adverb) (adjective)
_____. Having an invisible friend is (adjective)
_____, but they always win at _____ (adjective) (verb)
and seek.

