POISON PATTERN GAME

HOW TO PLAY

1. Echo each rhythm pattern by speaking or clapping
2. When you hear the poison pattern, stop immediately and say, "poison!"
3. Your goal is to echo every rhythm except for the poison pattern.
4. Once you find the poison pattern, click on it to see if you were correct.

COMPOSE

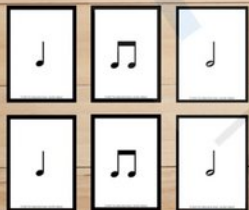

- ❖ Create your own rhythmic composition using manipulatives.
- ❖ Use the guide below to help you get started.

- Compose a rhythm pattern that is eight beats long
- The rhythm should have a mixture of half notes, quarter notes, and barred eighth notes
- When you're finished, practice saying the rhythm in your mind's ear (silently to yourself)

WRITE IT DOWN

- ❖ Write down your composition using the worksheet.
- ❖ An example is shown below:

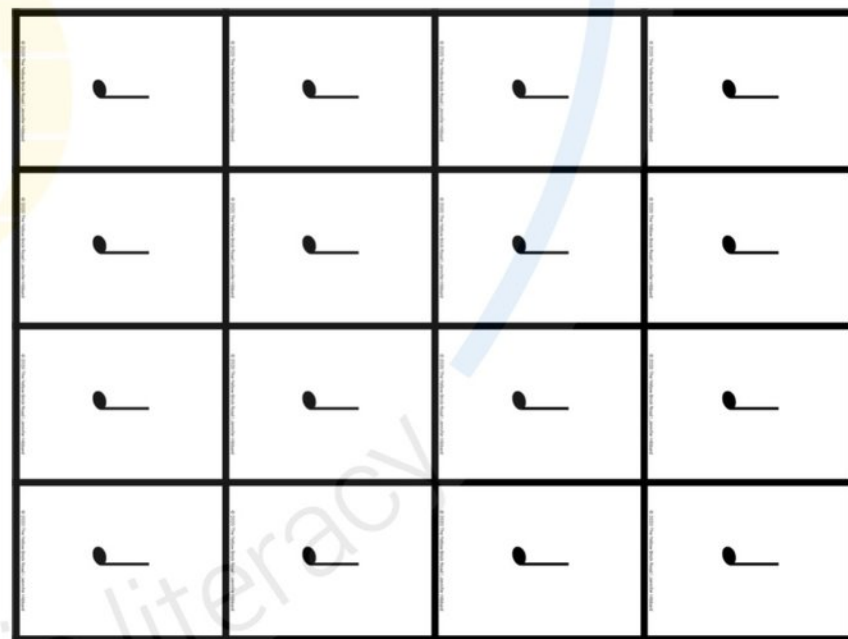

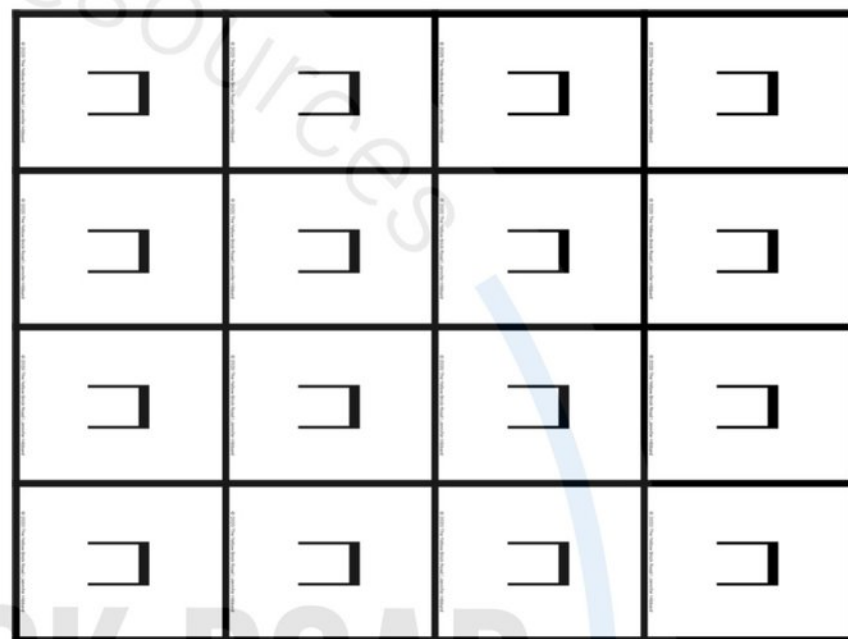

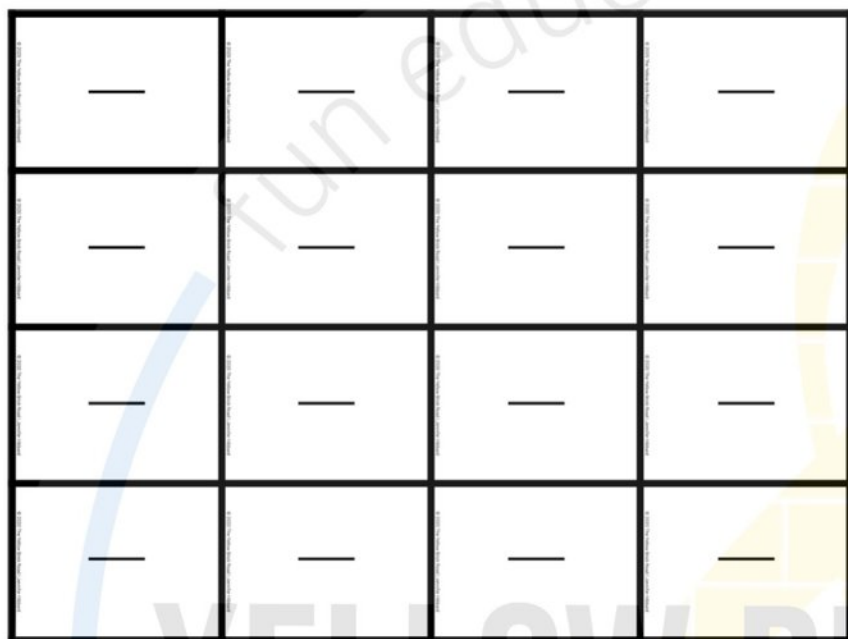

MY RHYTHMIC COMPOSITION
Name: Brandon Hibbard	Class: Mrs. Hibbard
1. Use the manipulatives to create your composition. 2. You can move them around as much as you want. 3. When you're finished, write the final composition in the boxes below.

CHALLENGE

- 🎵 Try playing your composition with a rhythm instrument, such as rhythm sticks, woodblocks, or guiros.
- 🎵 Try playing your composition with a mixture of body percussion, such as clapping, tapping, or snapping.
- 🎵 Find a partner and share your composition with them. Then, switch and play your partner's composition.
- 🎵 Sit down in a circle with a small group of people. Use your manipulatives to compose an entirely new piece.
