PLAYLIST

The Four Seasons

This is a set of four violin concertos, each representing a season of the year. Vivaldi uses music to paint pictures of nature, like birds singing in spring or snow falling in winter.

Gloria in D Major

This is a sacred choral work for choir, soloists, and orchestra. The "Gloria in excelsis Deo" section is often performed in churches and concerts.

Concerto for Strings in G Major RV 151 ("Alla Rustica")

This short and lively piece for string orchestra is one of Vivaldi's most popular instrumental works outside "The Four Seasons."

1685-1759

PLAYLIST

Messiah

This famous oratorio (a large musical work with singers and orchestra) uses words from the Bible and is best known for the "Hallelujah" chorus.

Water Music

Handel wrote these orchestral pieces for a royal boat party on the River Thames. The music includes dance-like tunes and was meant to be played outdoors for King George I.

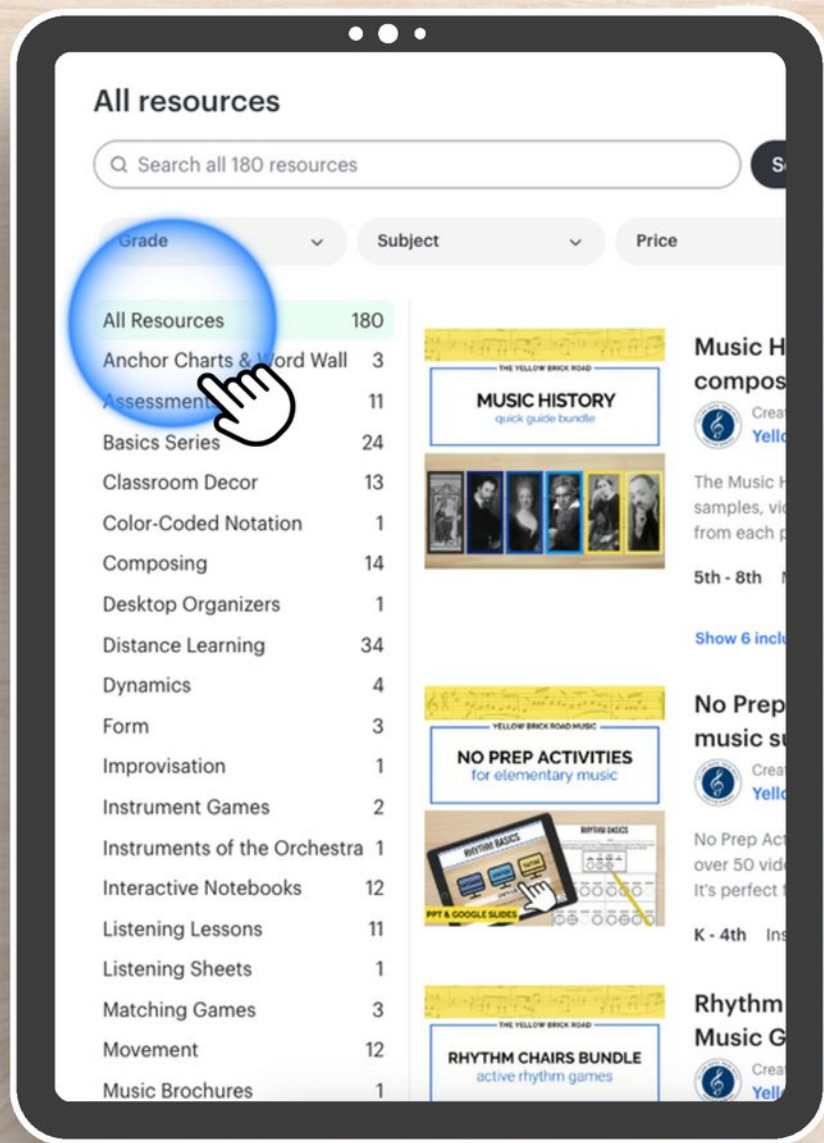

Music for the Royal Fireworks

This is an orchestral suite Handel composed to celebrate a peace treaty. It premiered in London's Green Park with a big outdoor fireworks show.

Have students choose the piece from the playlist, listen to the piece, then complete the bell ringer.
