A comic panel featuring a close-up of a person's back, which is covered in a pinkish-red, textured garment. A dark, possibly black, strap or piece of clothing is visible across the lower back. To the right, a portion of a dark, rounded object, likely a head or a large ear, is visible. A speech bubble originates from the upper left, containing the text "TON BAIN EST PRÊT, CHÉRI." in a simple, black, sans-serif font.
