ULTIMATUM TO GERMANY FROM UNITED STATES

Definite Statement of Nation's Position Regarding Submarine
Warfare Sent to Berlin and Given by President to Congress

Special to The Christian Science Monitor from its Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON, D. C. — The one great point of interest in Washington today in connection with the international situation is the impression that the President's address and note to Germany will make upon the government and the masses of that nation. Already a great deal of speculation has started as to what the result in the immediate future will be.

From a German source here the indication comes that if Berlin should by a memorandum extend the cruiser warfare policy now in force in the Mediterranean, such a step would eliminate submarine warfare on merchant ships as demanded by this government. The administration has taken the attitude of waiting, and thus far no official word has come to the capital indicating what the result may be. The President's address could not have been known in Berlin till late last evening, and it is indicated the news of the receipt of the energetic attitude of the United States could hardly have been circulated in Germany early enough for any accurate estimate of the
