

Adolf Hitler (Biography)

SYNOPSIS (quick summary)

Born in Austria in 1889, Adolf Hitler rose to power in German politics as leader of the National Socialist German Workers Party, also known as the Nazi Party. Hitler was chancellor of Germany from 1933 to 1945, and served as dictator from 1934 to 1945. His policies precipitated World War II and the Holocaust. Hitler committed suicide with wife Eva Braun on April 30, 1945, in his Berlin bunker.

1. Where was Hitler born and where did he become dictator?
2. Define Nazi (use the 2nd definition given): (learnersdictionary.com)

EARLY YEARS

Dictator Adolf Hitler was born in Branau am Inn, Austria, on April 20, 1889, and was the fourth of six children born to Alois Hitler and Klara Polzl. When Hitler was 3 years old, the family moved from Austria to Germany. As a child, Hitler clashed frequently with his father. Following the death of his younger brother, Edmund, in 1900, he became detached and introverted. His father did not approve of his interest in fine art rather than business. In addition to art, Hitler showed an early interest in German nationalism, rejecting the authority of Austria-Hungary. This nationalism would become the motivating force of Hitler's life.

3. What type of relationship did Hitler have with his father?
4. Define nationalism: (learnersdictionary.com)
5. Why do you believe nationalism would be appealing to Hitler or seen as a motivator?

Alois (father) died suddenly in 1903. Two years later, Adolf's mother allowed her son to drop out of school. He moved to Vienna and worked as a casual laborer and a watercolor painter. Hitler applied to the Academy of Fine Arts twice, and was rejected both times. Out of money, he moved into a homeless shelter, where he remained for several years. Hitler later pointed to these years as the time when he first cultivated his anti-Semitism, though there is some debate about this account.

6. Define anti-Semitism: (learnersdictionary.com)

7. Why do you believe Hitler became anti-Semitic while he lived in Vienna (think about haves and have-nots)?

At the outbreak of World War I, Hitler applied to serve in the German army. He was accepted in August 1914, though he was still an Austrian citizen. Although he spent much of his time away from the front lines, Hitler was present at a number of significant battles and was wounded at the Somme. He was decorated for bravery, receiving the Iron Cross First Class and the Black Wound Badge.

8. Why was the German army willing to allow an Austrian to join their army? (Prior knowledge)

Hitler became embittered over the collapse of the war effort. The experience reinforced his passionate German patriotism, and he was shocked by Germany's surrender in 1918. Like other German nationalists, he believed that the German army had been betrayed by civilian leaders and Marxists. He found the Treaty of Versailles degrading, particularly the demilitarization of the Rhineland and the stipulation that Germany accept responsibility for starting the war.

9. As a nationalist, why would Hitler be so upset by the surrendering of Germany?

10. The above paragraph mentions 3 items that fuel Hitler. List 2 of the 3 items.

After World War I, Hitler returned to Munich and continued to work for the military as an intelligence officer. While monitoring the activities of the German Workers' Party (DAP), Hitler adopted many of the anti-Semitic, nationalist and anti-Marxist ideas of DAP founder Anton Drexler. Drexler invited Hitler to join the DAP, which he did in 1919.

11. Define Marxism: (learnersdictionary.com)

To increase its appeal, the DAP changed its name to the Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiterpartei (NSDAP). Hitler personally designed the party banner, featuring a swastika in a white circle on a red background. Hitler soon gained notoriety for his spiteful speeches against the Treaty of Versailles, rival politicians, Marxists and Jews.

12. Thinking back to Hitler's early years. Why do you think he "personally" created the party banner?
13. What personal ability does Hitler have that appeals to people?

In 1921, Hitler replaced Drexler as NSDAP party chairman.

Hitler's spiteful beer-hall speeches began attracting regular audiences. Early followers included army captain Ernst Rohm, the head of the Nazi paramilitary organization, the Sturmabteilung (SA), which protected meetings and frequently attacked political opponents.

14. What type(s) of emotion(s) do you believe Hitler and Ernst Rohm displayed at these beer-hall speeches?

On November 8, 1923, Hitler and the SA stormed a public meeting of 3,000 people at a large beer hall in Munich. Hitler announced that the national revolution had begun and declared the formation of a new government. After a short struggle including 20 deaths, the coup, known as the "Beer Hall Putsch," failed.

15. Did Hitler's first attempt to gain more followers for his new government fail?

Hitler was arrested three days later and tried for high treason. He served a year in prison, during which time he dictated (wrote) most of the first volume of Mein Kampf ("My Struggle") to his deputy, Rudolf Hess. The book laid out Hitler's plans for transforming German society into one based on race.

16. Predicting: The Mein Kampf will become the ultimate book to the Nazi party as the _____ is to Christianity.

RISE TO POWER

The Great Depression in Germany provided a political opportunity for Hitler. Germans were ambivalent to the parliamentary republic and increasingly open to extremist options. In 1932, Hitler ran against Paul von Hindenburg for the presidency. Hitler came in second in both rounds of the election, garnering more than 35 percent of the vote in the final election.

The election established Hitler as a strong force in German politics. Hindenburg reluctantly agreed to appoint Hitler as chancellor in order to promote political balance.

17. Brainstorm: How could the Great Depression be a political opportunity for Hitler?
18. Hindenburg becomes president, and Hitler becomes _____.
19. Define chancellor: (learnersdictionary.com)
20. What's the difference between a president and chancellor?

Hitler used his position as chancellor to form a de facto legal dictatorship. The Reichstag Fire Decree, announced after a suspicious fire at the Reichstag, suspended basic rights and allowed detention without trial. Hitler also engineered the passage of the Enabling Act, which gave his cabinet full legislative powers for a period of four years and allowed deviations from the constitution.

21. How is Hitler manipulating the laws to benefit him later?

Having achieved full control over the legislative and executive branches of government, Hitler and his political allies embarked on a systematic suppression of the remaining political opposition. By the end of June, the other parties had been intimidated into disbanding. On July 14, 1933, Hitler's Nazi Party was declared the only legal political party in Germany.

22. What means did Hitler use to remove his political competition?

Military opposition was also punished. The demands of the SA for more political and military power led to the Night of the Long Knives, which took place from June 30 to July 2, 1934. Ernst Röhm and other SA leaders, along with a number of Hitler's political enemies, were rounded up and shot.

23. The above is an excellent example of what the _____ Party does to any opposition (someone against them). (Hint: look at question 2)

The day before Hindenburg's death in August 1934, the cabinet had enacted a law abolishing the office of president and combining its powers with those of the chancellor. Hitler thus became head of state as well as head of government, and was formally named as leader and chancellor. As head of state, Hitler became supreme commander of the armed forces. He began to mobilize for war. Germany withdrew from the League of Nations, and Hitler announced a massive expansion of Germany's armed forces.

24. Ah Ha!!! This paragraph clearly explains the difference between President and Chancellor. Did you catch it?

- Chancellor= _____
- President= _____

25. What powers does Hitler now have with the new law Hitler enacted just prior to Hindenburg's death?

The Nazi regime also included social reform measures. Hitler promoted anti-smoking campaigns across the country. These campaigns stemmed from Hitler's self-imposed dietary restrictions, which included abstinence from alcohol and meat. At dinners, Hitler sometimes told graphic stories about the slaughter of animals in an effort to shame his fellow diners. He encouraged all Germans to keep their bodies pure of any intoxicating or unclean substance.

26. Did Hitler force people to eat certain things or imply that they should?

(Important note for the paragraph below... "Aryan Society" is a Nazi ideology that is Caucasians of non-Jewish descent are superior to all others.)

A main Nazi concept was the notion of racial hygiene. New laws banned marriage between non-Jewish and Jewish Germans, and deprived "non-Aryans" of the benefits of German citizenship. Hitler's early ethnic policies targeted children with physical and developmental disabilities, and later authorized a euthanasia program for disabled adults. The Holocaust was also conducted under the sponsorship of racial hygiene. Between 1939 and 1945, Nazis and their collaborators were responsible for the deaths of 11 million to 14 million people, including about 6 million Jews, representing two-thirds of the Jewish population in Europe. Deaths took place in concentration and extermination camps and through mass executions. Other persecuted groups included Poles, communists, homosexuals, Jehovah's Witnesses and trade unionists, among others. Hitler probably never visited the concentration camps and did not speak publicly about the killings.

27. What are your personal thoughts towards Hitler's ideology of the human race and culture?

WORLD WAR II

In 1938, Hitler, along with several other European leaders, signed the Munich Agreement. The treaty ceded the Sudetenland districts to Germany, reversing part of the Versailles Treaty. As a result of the summit, Hitler was named Time Magazine's Man of the Year for 1938. This diplomatic win only wetted his appetite for a renewed German dominance. On September 1, Germany invaded Poland. In response, Britain and France declared war on Germany.

28. Many call the Munich Agreement "appeasement". Define appeasement: (learnersdictionary.com)

29. Do you find it hard to believe that Hitler was the Time Magazine Man of the Year in 1938? Why or why not?

30. What was the trigger to WWII?

Hitler escalated his activities in 1940, invading Scandinavia as well as France,

Luxembourg, the Netherlands and Belgium. Hitler ordered bombing raids on the United Kingdom, with the goal of invasion. Germany's formal alliance with Japan and Italy, known collectively as the Axis powers, was signed to deter the United States from supporting and protecting the British.

31. Who all made up the Axis powers?
32. What was the main objective of having Italy and Japan on Hitler's side?

On June 22, 1941, Hitler violated a non-aggression pact with Joseph Stalin, sending 3 million German troops into the Soviet Union. The invading force seized a huge area before the German advance was stopped outside Moscow in December 1941.

33. Why did the Soviet Union join the war against Hitler?

On December 7, Japan attacked Pearl Harbor in Hawaii. Hitler was now at war against a coalition that included the world's largest empire (Britain), the world's greatest financial power (the U.S.) and the world's largest army (the Soviet Union).

34. When talking about WWII, the Axis Powers were Germany, Italy, and Japan. Who were the Coalition Powers?
35. Collaboratively, what does Britain, the US, and the Soviet Union bring to the war table?

Facing these odds, Hitler's military judgment became increasingly erratic. Germany's military and economic position deteriorated along with Hitler's health. Germany and the Axis could not sustain Hitler's aggressive and expansive war. In late 1942, German forces failed to seize the Suez Canal. The German army also suffered defeats at the Battle of Stalingrad and the Battle of Kursk.

36. Why is the Suez Canal such a critical water channel to control?

37. Using just the name... Where do you think, "Stalingrad" is in the world?

On June 6, 1944, the Western Allied armies landed in northern France. As a result of these significant setbacks, many German officers concluded that defeat was inevitable and that Hitler's denial would result in the destruction of the country.

38. What is June 6, 1944 often referred to as?

DEATH AND LEGACY

By early 1945, Hitler realized that Germany was going to lose the war. The Soviets had driven the German army back into Western Europe, and the Allies were advancing into Germany. On April 29, 1945, Hitler married his girlfriend, Eva Braun, in a small civil ceremony in his Berlin bunker. Around this time, Hitler was informed of the assassination of Italian dictator Benito Mussolini. Afraid of falling into the hands of enemy troops, Hitler and Braun committed suicide the day after their wedding, on April 30, 1945. Their bodies were carried to the bombed-out garden behind the Reich Chancellery, where they were burned. Berlin fell on May 2, 1945.

39. What type of characteristic does Hitler show by committing suicide prior to the end of the war?

Hitler's political program had brought about a world war, leaving behind a devastated and impoverished Eastern and Central Europe, including Germany. His policies inflicted human suffering on an unprecedented scale and resulted in the death of an estimated 40 million people, including about 27 million in the Soviet Union. Hitler's defeat marked the end of a phase of European history dominated by Germany, and the defeat of fascism. A new ideological global conflict, the Cold War, emerged in the aftermath of World War II.

40. In total about how many people did Hitler kill directly or indirectly?

41. Was German better off prior to Hitler or after? Really think and remember the Treaty of Versailles.

42. Deep thought question... What do you think the world would be like if Hitler never came to power and instead remained an artist?
