An Introductory Guide to Everybody Has Psychic Abilities

Chapter 1

Who is a Psychic?

"The intuitive mind is a sacred gift and the rational mind is a faithful servant" ~Albert

Einstein~

Some might ask the question who is a psychic? Why do I need someone to read my palm or some cards and tell me about my future? Some even has the perception that a psychic is one who just looks through a glass ball and there is any special about that. Albert Einstein answers these questions by showing us that an intuitive mind is a sacred gift and a rational mind is a faithful servant. He helps us to know that with these gifts we are blessed and we can use them not only for ourselves to help others understand how “sacred” and powerful the mind can be. The

Developing your Psychic Abilities

Parapsychological Association (PA) published an article written by Mario Varvoglis explained that to be psychic involves experiences that are not natural to “normal” world but the ability to perceive things about the world through our sixth sense. Persons who possess these abilities are referred to as having extrasensory perception.

Does everybody have Psychic Abilities?

My answer to this question is yes. Everyone has the ability to connect to sources and in so doing demonstrate abilities that others might consider psychic. In a recent study conducted by the psychic community, they stated that everyone has psychic abilities, however, not everyone is able to access these abilities, unless they are cultivated and nurtured over a long period of time. Many of our famous psychics perfected the art over time and are able to master their abilities to help others.

It is important to note that some of our psychic abilities come through practice and for many psychics like myself it is hereditary. A hereditary psychic mean someone who is born with psychic ability inherited from someone further back in their family line. In my case, my psychic abilities came from my mothers' side where both my grandmother and great-grandmother were psychic.

Chapter 2

Evidence that we all have psychic abilities

Numerous

Numerous experiments have been conducted to prove the existence of psychic abilities in all humans. Even so with the experiments conducted, there are persons who have assailed the psychic community with criticisms, disbelief and even mockery. But believe it or not, all humans have psychic abilities, suppressed or not, they still exist. There are individuals who will criticize the findings as mere coincidences, others may ignore them altogether, but for the persons who might not necessarily be open-minded but neither closed-minded to the possibilities that exist, carefully analyze and think about what will follow in the readings and think about whether these findings are just mere coincidences or those psychic abilities really exist.

Scientific investigations have produced statistical results that have put forward calculations that revealed a million to one of against them happening by chance alone; a few have been a billion for one, which further proves the fact that all humans have psychic abilities. These researches have shown that humans are able to influence and predict the future, influencing events before they occur, whether they are aware of this or not. An article entitled "Are humans psychic?" revealed startling new studies which 'proves' that we can see the future where students were able to predict which words they'd be asked in memory recall test.

Developing your Psychic Abilities

Furthermore, the same article reported a study conducted by Daryl Bem, a physicist and the part-time magician turned psychologist, where he had set out to study parapsychology. In one experiment, a set of words were shown to students for them to memorize. They were asked to recall as many words as they could and then asked to type out a random selection of the words. The results show that the words that the students were able to recall turned out to be the same words that they would later be asked to type out. Remarkable isn't it? Another experiment involved a scenario where students were shown two images of curtains on a computer screen and was told that one concealed an erotic picture. The results indicated that students selected this picture more than it can be explained to be just chance or coincidence. Still not convinced? Well, here's a bit more, maybe more than you can handle. The psychic ability has even been said to be in accordance with modern physics, yes modern physics! The truth is, many of us may not understand much, if anything at all about physics in general, not to mention modern physics. But here is the comparison put to you simply. Physics establishes that light particles seem to know what lies ahead, and changes its behaviors accordingly; this is the same with humans and their psyche, this was reported by Melissa Berkley in 2010 (Ph. D). Surprised? Of course, you are! Our minds are capable of reaching into the future, and that's a fact!

Testimonies of persons who use their psychic powers

Psychic powers are more commonly used by individuals who have unlocked their psychic abilities and are more popular than you might think.

In 2010, Fay Weldon, a feminist writer, in an interview with the BBC radio revealed that she has psychic powers and has been utilizing her powers to further understand people and their feelings that better enhance her work. In the interview, she revealed that she noticed her powers at a very tender age when she would "...see things that weren't actually there." She also stated that her powers made her know who she would marry next.

Sylvia Browne is the most known famous critically claimed psychic in the world. She was a psychic medium who appeared regularly on television and radio, including Hay House Radio and Larry King Live. While in these interviews, she would carry out readings to members of the audience or callers of the show.

Developing your Psychic Abilities

Additionally, there more reported cases of psychic abilities being utilized. In 2012, Rupert Sheldrake, in his article reported two major cases of psychic abilities revealing itself in the ‘nick of time.’ During World War II Mona Miller evacuated from her home in London to Devon. Shortly after her arrival in Devon with her children, she became restless and uneasy, and as a result of this feeling, she went back to London. A few days later, she received a letter from a friend saying that it was a good thing she (Miller) had left when she did because early one Sunday morning, three bombs were dropped, one fell on the house in which she had been living and all her neighbors had died as a result of the bomb. During an interview, she revealed that the ‘uneasy’ feeling she had felt, was as if the walls in her room were closing in on her telling her that she needed to go back to London. She had traveled back home to London on Saturday before the bombs had fallen. Mere coincidence? or was it just luck? By now you should be able to answer those questions, with a resounding NO!

Similarly, Charles Bernuth who was a part of the German invasion, where one night while driving along the crossroads in the Rhine, he heard a “still, small voice” telling him that there was something wrong with the road ahead, he stopped and walked on. 50 yards away from where he had left his car, he realized what was wrong with the road. The bridge he and his colleagues had intended to drive across was blown up and was no longer there. Instead, there was a 75 feet drop! In both cases, each individual sensed something that was ahead, they just didn’t know what. But, it is a good thing neither ignored these insights!

Other Testimonials

There have been several psychic feats that have occurred all over the world, the editor of the Nature Magazine had witnessed some of these events. The magazine reported an unbelievable occurrence where a child randomly took and placed on a table a bottle of pills. After a few minutes, the pills began to pass through the glass bottle and settled on the table, the child then did something similar to the coin where she placed on the table and it passed into the sealed bottle. Just a trick you say? or, Was it a magic show?

Also, in another occurrence, people who were sitting in an auditorium were each given a rosebud to hold when a six-year-old girl came on stage and with a silent wave of her hand, the rosebuds slowly opened into full bloom! Astonished yet? A blank piece of paper was placed into a closed pencil case and the child was asked to imagine that some words were written on the piece of paper. When the case was opened the imagined words were found to be actually written on the paper. Here's something more convincing, a random book was selected from a pile, it was then opened at random and a page was torn out, crumpled up and placed in the armpit of one of a child. With the page still crumpled up and out of sight, the child could read every word. You should now doubt all your conceptions of life and time as a whole and what you perceived things to be before, because sometimes when we perceive something to be, doesn't mean it is so. Every one of us has psychic abilities, most however dormant until activated or in some cases diminish due to the lack of use.

Further Proof

It has been claimed by a large group of physicists that time is not linear; our brains are able to access events that have not yet occurred. How may you ask? The physicists gave an explanation that our minds are able to access future events due to the fact that consciousness is not created in the brain, instead, consciousness is filtered through our nervous systems, in the same way, that signals are received by your cable box. Over 30 studies have proven that human brains are able to sense future events before they occur.

their babies also share the child as they are able to tell, if baby, when they need to be fed, are in distress.

Mothers who still breastfeed telepathic ability with their they are not close to their or even when they're babies

In the seventies, one Carole Davis, visited an arcade, in an interview she stated that while looking around, she started to have a sense of danger, simultaneously, she had a vision of persons on the floor with metals pinning them to the ground. She realized what was about to happen and started to warn people in the arcade. No one listened. She along with her friends hurried to a nearby café and watched to see what would happen next. Moments later, they heard and saw sirens heading to the building. On arriving on the scene, she saw persons who she had warned being pulled out of the debris; investigations revealed that a weakness in the building's structure had caused the building to collapse.

Developing your Psychic Abilities

Tap into your psychic abilities today! Stop ignoring the constant déjà vu feelings, the sense of eminent danger or feeling that something is about to happen, or the feeling that you're being watched and to turn around to meet your onlooker's gaze and realize that they are of a supernatural nature or even to hear voices that are inaudible to someone else. Yes, these are all signs that you possess psychic abilities and there are countless more, where they are no doubts in my mind you will be able to relate to having experienced them. You should now look deep within yourself, and realize that you have not been living to your full potential. Our minds are not limited to our brain; we are able to interact with the world and everything in it, through our psychic abilities.

Chapter 3

Types of Psychic Powers

Now that we understand that everyone has psychic abilities, let us now look at the different types of psychic powers that exist within the psychic community.

Clairvoyance: The first type we are going to look at is Clairvoyance which is of French word clair meaning "clear" and voyance meaning "vision". This type of psychic gift which allows us to see visions of events, people, and places that are far away or out of the range of the psychic. Furthermore, this gift may be classified into three categories.

- i. Precognition: this is the ability to predict future events. In other words, the psychic is able to look into the future of his or her clients and predict future events. This would be the most popular of the three types.

The popular movie “Final Destination” produced in 2000, gave a perfect example of precognition, Alex along with his classmate were all excited to go on a trip to Paris for their French Class. While waiting for the plane to take off Alex has a premonition of the plane bursting into flames minutes after takeoff. He tells everyone

to get off the ill-fated aircraft. Moments later in the departure lounge the student see the plane explode before their very eyes.

- ii. The second type is what we call retro-cognition. The root of this word “retro” means “backward” or “behind” while cognition means “to know”. Therefore retro-cognition describes the psychic gift that enables one to have knowledge of past events.
- iii. Finally, the next gift within this category is known as remote viewing. This is the ability to perceive contemporary events, in other words, it is the ability for one to see what is happening presently out of the range of normal perception.

Clairaudience: The second type is clairaudience. This is similar to clairvoyance that was previously explained. However, this is the ability to hear things that are normally inaudible to “regular” hearing. Do you remember this popular 90’s movie?

(Ghost, 1990)

Sam who was murdered by friend and corrupt business partner, was left to roam the earth as a powerless spirit. Sam then later seeks the help of a psychic Oda Mae Brown (Whoopi Goldberg), to set things right and protect his beloved Molly. It is important to note that the type of psychic ability displayed in the movie was indeed, clairaudience, where Oda (whose, psychic abilities were inherited by the way!) was able to hear Sam when no one else could.

Developing your Psychic Abilities

Clairsentience: This type of psychic gift is the ability to be aware of information that was meant to be hidden from the psychic. What this means is that psychics who have these powers are able to discern information such as someone's age, name, favorite color, or any sickness from just looking at that person that they have met for the first time.

Intuition: This is similar to clairsentience; however, one who possesses this gift has a distinctive "sense" of events, thoughts, activities or feelings of others that are outside of the normal human ability to perceive them.

Chapter 4

Developing your psychic abilities

Learning how to develop psychic abilities is easier than you may think. Every once in a while you may use your psychic abilities without even knowing. In this chapter, we are going to look at three simple exercises that will guide you in understanding ways in which you can develop your psychic abilities.

Step One: Meditation

Meditation is simply a practice in which an individual trains his or her mind. It is used as a medium to induce a mode of consciousness to realize some benefit such as stress reduction, relaxation or to acknowledge its content and what it can do. In this case mediation is a powerful tool to develop your psychic abilities. To use this technique it is important to be able to relax and focus your mind. It takes practice and over time you will be able to notice the existence of your own spiritual energy. It is this spiritual energy that will provide you with the opportunity to connect and tap into to your intuitive gifts and hence strengthening your psychic abilities.

Step Two: Listen

Another step in developing your psychic abilities is by listening. This is very important to develop your clairaudience abilities, i.e. the ability to hear things that are inaudible to others. During your meditation, it is essential to free your mind and block out all external noise and conversations. In doing this, over time you should be able to hear remote voices or sounds, when this occurs try to focus on these voices until they become clearer and louder, as these are voices of cross over spirits or angels.

Step Three: Get in tune with your energy field

We are all energetic beings; we all have the ability to create, absorb and give off energy in various forms as this is crucial to the development of your psychic abilities. To get in tune with your energy field you can follow these exercises outlined by

Helen Leather:

- As a first, very simple exercise, stand with your feet hip-width apart allowing your arms to hang loosely at your sides.
- Slightly bend your knees and allow your weight to sink into your feet.
- Gently rock back and forth on your feet a few times to find your balance.

Developing your Psychic Abilities

- Take all of your awareness to your feet and in particular to point at the base of the ball of your foot (about $\frac{1}{3}$ rd down your foot between the big and 2nd toe).
- Imagine all of your weight sinking down to this point.
- Visualize roots extending out from this point down deep into the ground.
- Stand like this for a few moments, allowing your body to relax and breathe deeply

Chapter 5

Psychic Tools and Methods

Now that we have looked at the different psychic abilities, and the exercises we can do to improve our psychic talents, let us now look at some of the tools and methods that we can use to further develop these gifts, and connect to the astral plane.

Tarot Cards

According to Hermetic Order of the Golden Dawn, the Tarot aids in coming in contact with one's Higher Self. Tarot cards give your psychic abilities many possible points of departure. The card spreads contrary circumstances to reflect the difficulty of everyday life. These cards give two different types of readings, question readings, and open readings. Question readings are where a specific question is addressed, however, it is important to note that these cards are not intended to answer specific questions, but it is a guide to help yourself and your clients in making their own decisions. Furthermore, open readings are not used to answer a specific question or problem, but is used to guide you when entering into a new phase of your life. Some psychics use tarot cards as tools, but many do not. They are a great divination tool for beginners, but over time, as your skills improve you may not need them again, as this was the case for me.

Crystal Balls

Crystal gazing is a form of divination or scrying achieved through trance induction by means of gazing at a crystal. Crystal balls give psychics crisp visuals that are by far the most accurate illustrations of the future. They come in different shapes, sizes and colors. When using the crystal ball, it is important to have the ball perfectly spherical and it should be supported by a metal stand. Crystal balls that are made from glass should be free from bubbles and if they are made from carved crystalline stone, such as calcite, amethyst or quartz they will display the color of the stone and the structure of the mineral from which it was made.

Astrology

Many persons wonder if astrology is a tool used by psychics. Indeed it is! Astrology calculations are made based on the position of the sun, moon and planets. The position of the sun, stars, moon, and planets at the time of people's birth will shape one's personality, affect their relationships and predict their fortunes among other divinations. This is important since it provides a significant amount of information on one's life, the challenges they had, are having and will have during their lifetime. It is a means of empowering relationships and other personal aspects of their daily lives.

Palmistry

Palmistry is used to reveal individual personality and character traits through the study of the shape, size, and lines of the hands and fingers. With this method, palmists indicate that individuals who are right-handed, their left hand's lines and shapes indicate the characteristic traits, personality, and destiny one is born with, while the lines on the right hand and shape show the direction their life will take. However, this is the opposite for left-handed individuals. In addition, when one masters the art of palm reading they will realize that the simplest line can have the deepest meaning. This is normally done in person which gives you the opportunity to capture the flesh structure of your client's hands as well as its flexibility.

How to use your psychic abilities for profit

There are infinite possibilities and opportunities for individuals to be making tons of money by helping others with different situations. The catch is, however, that individuals who have already developed their psychic abilities are unwilling to use their abilities to gain profit. The possibility also exists that some psychics may be unwilling and shy to reveal their powers to the people around them and the world at large. But don't think about it as being paid for your services; instead think about it as a token of appreciation for helping others or even yourself in whatever ways that you can.

In my opinion, it is reasonable for contributions to be made for your hard work and for being the major help that you have been to others, not to mention the stress that your body may go through or even your mental health, as psychic abilities can cause different effects on your physical, spiritual and emotional well-being. So here are some ways in which you can gain wealth by just simply using what you got.

Ways in which you can Profit from your Psychic Abilities

Becoming Hosts

Depending on how you have mastered your psychic abilities, you can your body as a host for loved ones in the afterlife. Persons who engage in these rituals can request that customers pay a small amount of money for their services. Such a service should also be advertised to bring in customers from across the country and to some extent across the globe. In addition, to ensure that profit is gain, one can do a 50% deposit before the sessions begin and if the client is not satisfied, then they may not be required to pay the remaining balance.

Psychic Readings

Psychic reading can be done through palm readings, fortune telling, and readings from tarot cards and crystal balls. These reading may attract a cost to which is reasonable for your clients. These readings can also be strategically done and marketed, as different types of readings can be done based on the different demands of potential customers.

For example, Valentine’s Day is an internationally celebrated “love day,” as a result psychics can provide ‘love readings for persons in need of finding love. Whatever reading you decide to engage in and make a career out of, however, you must ensure that there is a market for it, where sustainable living and income making can be gained from it. You can also decide on whether or not you, as a psychic will be engaging in more than one type of reading, and if so, it needs to be well organized so as to avoid confusions and mishaps.

Online Services

Another way of gaining wealth from the use of psychic powers is by offering online reading services. This endeavor can prove to be very successful and profitable as many psychics have ventured on such enterprises and have been successful. For example, The Preto Experts, which upon visiting their site, you will notice that psychics are offering different types of readings at varying rates. The site also offers bits of information about the psychics offering their services the help persons with whatever problem they have or have had in the past.

Also, another example is the California Psychics, where on their site they mention their success rate at predicting the future which has been over 6 million times, this site also provides various services from different psychics with their qualifications mentioned. And who could forget the well-known Bob Olson's Best Psychic Network.com. On this site, customers are able to choose their price and receive instant readings whether by phone or online chats.

Become Educators

One other very important way of gaining profits from the use of psychic abilities is by becoming an educator in the field. That is, teaching individuals how to tap into their psychic abilities by awakening these powers that possess but are unaware of how to use them. This also can become a way of income for you as this too has been successful in the past as I am a testimony to this. This book is to help readers aware of their abilities, how to develop these abilities and even how to gain from it. it.

Psychics should constantly be looking at the bigger picture and be willing to be aiming for the highest they can earn from offering their useful services.

Use the Media

. Another way is the use of the media. This can be used both as an advertising medium and also for customer service. Everyone has radios and televisions, why not make use of such an advantage? In advertising services through these mediums, clients can call requesting readings, which will be done live. This not only gives you the opportunity to prove to the world of unbelievers that psychic abilities exist and are successful, but it simultaneously gives you the opportunity to gain new customers. Can you imagine the flow of customers that you can receive? Based on one airing of a live radio program or television program? The possibilities are endless!

Important to Know, Please Do Not Ignore!!

In doing all of this, however, you should always keep in mind that it is very important the way in which you speak to and approach potential clients as this can be the difference between how successful you are and how unproductive you become. Services that psychics offer are always sensitive topics for clients seeking help and therefore tone and approach are very important. Principal to this is the way in which you are able to connect with your clients making them feel comfortable and willing to relay their shielded and personal information with you. Bear in mind also that when relaying information to the clients, sympathy and empathy should at all times be apparent in your responses towards customers, never use the word “dead,” use words such as “afterlife”, “crossed over spirits”.

Furthermore, difficult clients may emerge, but at all times, remain professional, understanding and keep a “cool head”. If it is that you are not able to meet the needs of the client, let them be aware of this. Always be yourself, don’t try to be something that you are not, if the results you are seeing for that client does not match what the client is expecting (which happens sometimes) let the client know. In addition to this, don't be judgmental, if you have opinions, and bad ones, keep them to yourself because once a word goes out your mouth, you cannot take them back.
