

Sustainable Capitalism: A Symposium

– Tuesday, May 24, 2011

Jointly sponsored by the Kalmanovitz Institute, Georgetown University and the Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations

Agenda

8:15 AM – 8:45 AM
8:45 AM – 9:15 AM

Coffee
Introductions/Overview/Preview

Professor Joseph McCartin
Christopher Mackin

9:15 AM – 11:45 AM

Session 1: Undemocratic Capitalism: The Problem and Some Solutions

Chair: Christopher Mackin, Carey Fellow, Rutgers School of Management and Labor Relations

Presenter 1: William Lazonick, University of Massachusetts

Presenter 2: Joseph Blasi, Rutgers University

Presenter 3: Ray Carey, Former CEO, ADT, Inc., President, Carey Center for Democratic Capitalism

Discussant: Bill Patterson, Change to Win

Discussant: David Madland, Center for American Progress

Discussant: Dan Pedrotty, AFL-CIO

Lunch:

Andy Stern, Georgetown Public Policy Institute
- Discussants, Dean Baker, Center for Economic and Policy Research and William Greider, The Nation Magazine

1:30 – 3:00 PM

Session 2: Social Enterprise

Chair: Joe McCartin, Professor of History, Georgetown University

Presenter 1: Sarah Stiles, Professor of Sociology, Georgetown University

Presenter 2: Jeff Reid, Director of Entrepreneurship Initiatives, McDonough School of Business, Georgetown

Presenter 3: Brian Golden, CEO, Litecontrol Corporation, Plympton, MA

Discussant: David Finegold, Dean, School of Management and Labor Relations, Rutgers, Dan Pedrotty, AFL-CIO

3:00 – 4:00 PM

Session 3: Summary of Themes – Dialogue – Research and Policy Implications

Joseph McCartin, Paula Voos, Rutgers University, David Finegold