

Both Sides the Tweed (Dick Gaughan)

1 What's the spring-breathing jasmine and rose ?

Am Am7 F F
C Am G G

What's the summer with all its gay train

Am Am7 F F

Or the splendour of autumn to those

C G Am Am

Who've bartered their freedom for gain?

Ch F F C C Am Am G G

Let the love of our land's sacred rights To the love of our people succeed

Am Am7 F F C G Am Am

Let friendship and honour unite And flourish on both sides the Tweed.

2 No sweetness the senses can cheer, Which corruption and bribery bind;

Am Am7 F F C Am G G

No brightness that gloom can e'er clear, For honour's the sum of the mind.

[Chorus]

3 Let virtue distinguish the brave, Place riches in lowest degree;

Am Am7 F F C Am G G

Think them poorest who can be a slave, Them richest who dare to be free.

[Chorus]
