

Candy (Paolo Nutini)

Am Em G D

1 I was perched outside in the pouring rain, trying to make myself a sail; then I'll float to you my darlin' with the evening on my tail.

Although not the most honest means of travel it gets me there nonetheless;
I'm a heartless man at worst, babe, and a helpless one at best.

Ch Darling I'll bathe your skin, I'll even wash your clothes, just give me some Candy, before I go. Oh, darling I'll kiss your eyes, and lay you down on your rug, just give me some candy after my heart.

2 Oh I'm often found explaining, but to her it plays out all the same;
And although I'm left defeated, it gets held against my name.
I know you got plenty to offer baby but I guess I've taken quite enough;
While I'm some stain there on your bedsheet you're my diamond in the rough.

Chorus

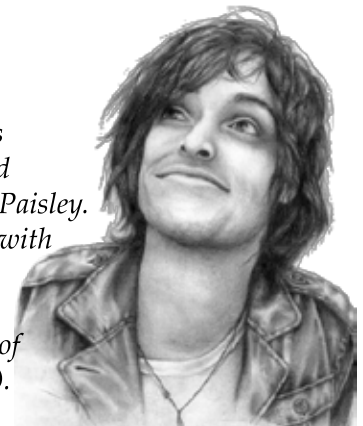

C G
Oh I'll be there waiting for you... x7
