

Aden, a port city in Yemen, was administrated by Britain from 1839 until 1967 when it gained independence. Although there is some dispute about the authorship of the tune, Alexander McKellar (1824-1895) of Argyllshire, who became Pipe Major of the 78th Highlanders in 1854, insisted that every note was his own.

On the Solway coast in Galloway there is a cave known as 'The Piper's Cave'. Like many coastal caves, it was used in smuggling. Legend has it that in the 19th century two Highland pipers took refuge in the cave. When the smugglers came to claim their booty, the pipers started playing, giving such fright that the smugglers fled.
