D5D6 ON FIELD SENTENCING GUIDELINES AND SUSPENSION POLICY

D5D6:1 DEFINITIONS

Disciplinary Panels will use the following definitions when making its decisions:

(a) Intentionally (Deliberately)

A Player acts intentionally with respect to a result (for example contact with the head or neck when tackling or attempting to tackle) when: (i) it is his purpose to cause it; or (ii) although it is not his purpose to cause that result, he is aware (or should be aware) that it would occur or almost certainly occur in the ordinary course of events if he were to succeed in his purpose of causing some other result (for example stopping a Player). A Player who intends to harm a person and harms another person instead shall be deemed to have intended to harm the other person.

An intention need not necessarily be planned before or during a Match; an intention may be formed on the spur of the moment, just before (or even during) the contact or other event (for example during a tackle).

(b) Recklessness

- (i) Something is caused recklessly if the Player causing the result (for example contact with the head or neck when tackling or attempting to tackle) is, or ought to be, aware of an obvious risk that acting or failing to act in a particular manner will bring about that result but nonetheless acts or fails to act in a manner where a reasonable person would not do so;
- (ii) A Player acts recklessly with respect to circumstance or as to a possible result of an act, if the Player is, or ought to be, aware of an obvious risk that the circumstances exist, or that the result will follow, but nonetheless acts where a reasonable person would not do so;
- (iii) A Player acts recklessly if the Player is, or ought to be, aware of an obvious risk of dangers or of possible harmful acts (for example contact with the head or neck when tackling or attempting to tackle) in so acting but nonetheless acts where a reasonable person would not do so;

In showing that a Player has acted recklessly it is not necessary to show that the Player intended or wished for a particular result to occur.

A Player may become aware or ought to have been aware of an obvious risk just before (or even during) the contact or event (for example during a tackle).

(c) Carelessness

A Player acts carelessly if his conduct falls below the standard expected of the ordinary reasonable Player. The test is objective, based on the hypothetical Player, and involves the Player either doing something the reasonable Player would not do, or not doing something which the reasonable Player would do. It does not matter that the Player was unaware that the result of his/her act or omission might happen, if the reasonable Player would have realised the risk and taken steps to avoid it.

In showing that that a Player has acted carelessly, it is not necessary to show that the Player intended or acted recklessly in relation to the result.

D5D6:2 SENTENCING GUIDELINES

D5D6:2:1 The Laws of the Game together with the commonest offences within each Law of the Game are listed in the Sentencing Guidelines. The Sentencing Guidelines provide a recommended starting tariff/range of tariffs for each On-field Misconduct offence broken down by age group. Players and Clubs should be aware that the tariffs stated in the Sentencing Guidelines are guidelines only and a Disciplinary Panel has discretion to impose a higher or lower tariff or step out of the range given if in its opinion:

- (a) The aggravating and mitigating factors present deem it appropriate to impose a higher or lower sanction; or
- (b) The Player or Club have previously been advised that the next time they are found guilty of Misconduct then a higher sanction will be imposed.

D5D6:3 SENTENCING PRINCIPLES

D5D6:3:1 In determining the appropriate sanction for On-field Misconduct, the Disciplinary Panel will:

- (a) Take into account that rugby league is a hard, fast contact sport and a sport where high speed collisions occur. As a result injuries will occur and Players take part with this knowledge;
- (b) Interpret these Operational Rules so as not to sanitise the sport. However, they agree that there is no place for actions that jeopardise the safety of other Players whether such actions are intentional, reckless or careless;
- (c) Support and protect Match Officials;
- (d) Ensure that decisions are consistent, whilst balancing this against the circumstances relating to each offence and the Player being charged having been taken into account; and
- (e) Take into account all aggravating and mitigating factors.

D5D6:3:2 In addition to the factors set out in Operational Rule D5D6:3:1, in determining the appropriate sanction the Disciplinary Panel will take into account the age of the Player concerned. The Sentencing Guidelines broadly follow the position under criminal law by distinguishing between the following age groups:

- (a) Under 11 year olds – below the age of criminal responsibility

It will not usually be appropriate to refer a Player under the age of 11 to a Disciplinary Panel. Issues of Misconduct relating to such Players should be dealt with through the

RFL OPERATIONAL RULES FOR TIERS FOUR, FIVE AND SIX (COMMUNITY GAME)

Player's Club with the emphasis being on education and improving technique. In the rare case where it is necessary to refer a Player under the age of 11 to a Hearing, the matter must be dealt with sympathetically in a child friendly environment by experienced people.

- (b) 11 to 14 year olds - criminal responsibility only when understand that wrong

In each case, consideration should be given as to whether it is appropriate for a Disciplinary Panel to deal with the Player or whether it should be dealt with through the Player's Club with the emphasis being on education and improving technique. In making the decision the Disciplinary Panel will consider whether the Player concerned understood that what he/she did was wrong.

- (c) 15 to 18 year olds

As is the case under criminal law, after the age of 14 Players will be considered to be fully responsible for their actions in the same way as an Adult; however the Sentencing Guidelines will usually recommend a lower tariff than the equivalent for an Adult. However, where a Player who is under 18 plays in an Adult Match they will be dealt with in accordance with the Adult guidelines.

D5D6:3:3 The Disciplinary Panel may consider the following factors as aggravating which may lead to a higher tariff than the one stated in the Sentencing Guidelines being imposed:

- (a) Player has record of same or similar offence in the past;
- (b) Player has a record for dissimilar offences;
- (c) Player regularly commits foul play;
- (d) Misconduct alleged was an intentional act of violence or thuggery. Incidents such as these that are unprovoked should be punished severely and period suspensions considered;
- (e) Misconduct alleged is an act of calculated and intentional retaliation;
- (f) Misconduct alleged has caused injury;
- (g) Misconduct alleged was not part of play. For example, off the ball or in back play; and
- (h) Any other factor that the Disciplinary Panel reasonably believes to be an aggravating factor.

D5D6:3:4 The Disciplinary Panel may consider the following factors as mitigating which may lead to a lower tariff than the one stated being imposed:

- (a) Player has a good previous record, provided that the Player has been playing for long enough to have established a good record. Where a Player has a previous record but has not committed a similar offence of Misconduct for a period of at least 5 years then his previous record may be discounted;

- (b) Misconduct alleged is one of immediate reactionary retaliation to foul play by an opponent;
- (c) Player shows genuine remorse and an intention to resolve a problem relating to technique or fitness. Should this be taken into account then the Disciplinary Panel should make an order for the Club to work with the Player to improve the particular issue;
- (d) Player admits guilt and shows genuine remorse, including but not limited to formally apologising to other person concerned; and
- (e) Any other factor that the Disciplinary Panel reasonably believes to be a mitigating factor.

D5D6:3:5 The Disciplinary Panel may order that any part of a sentence be suspended for a specific period of time, which in any event should be for no longer than 24 months after the sanction was imposed.

D5D6:3:6 If the Disciplinary Panel make a finding of advice or warning then this will be noted on the Player's record.

D5D6:3:7 Where the Disciplinary Panel intends to impose a sanction of more than 8 Matches then it may impose either a number of Matches or a term suspension (i.e. a suspension that ends on a specific date).

D5D6:3:8 Disciplinary Panels may impose fines on Adult Players if they are found guilty. Fines cannot be issued instead of suspensions. Junior and Youth Players cannot be fined but the Team for which they play can be fined. Such fines can be up to a maximum of £20 per Match suspension imposed and should be paid before the Player can return to play for a Club. In any event fines must be paid no later than 28 days from the date imposed.

D5D6:3:9 Should a Disciplinary Panel impose a sine die ban on a Player then when imposing the ban they should state a period of between 2 and 5 years after which the Player may apply to the RFL for his/her sine die ban to be lifted.

D5D6:4 SUSPENSION POLICY

D5D6:4:1 Each Competition Officer will keep records of each case heard by its Competition Disciplinary Tribunal including the date of the Hearing, the name of the Player and/or Club charged, the attendees at the Hearing (if any), the offence of Misconduct, the decision reached and brief reasons for the decision.

D5D6:4:2 All decisions of Competition Disciplinary Tribunals must be forwarded to the RFL within 48 hours of the Hearing including all the information set out in D5D6.4.1 of these Operational Rules.

RFL OPERATIONAL RULES FOR TIERS FOUR, FIVE AND SIX (COMMUNITY GAME)

D5D6:4:3 A Player will serve his/her ban with any Club that they are registered to play for. Only one game in any week will apply. With the exception of the Armed Forces Rugby League and University and College Rugby League players.

D5D6:4:4 If a Player transfers to another Club in a different Competition to that in which the Player was banned then he must serve his ban at the new Club and will not be allowed to play for that Club until the suspension has been served. In such circumstances then the ban will only be deemed served if at the conclusion of the suspension the Player remains at the new Club and plays in as many Matches as he was deemed to have missed due to suspension. For example, should player X be banned for 2 games with Club B but then transfer to club C in another Competition, he will serve his ban for club C but only if after the ban is up he plays 2 games for C in their Competition.

D5D6:4:5 A suspension will start on the second Saturday after the Hearing took place unless the Competition Officer notifies the Player or the Club otherwise.
