

Curriculum Vitae

Dr Judith Shapiro

Appointments

2005 – present:	Department of Economics, LSE, Undergraduate (Departmental) Tutor
2004-2005:	European Union Framework VI International Collaborative Project, University of Kent, Canterbury, PSSRU
2000 -2003:	New Economic School, Moscow, Professor of Health Economics, Director of the Research Centre. Rectorate, Resident Academic Coordinator
1998-2000:	Chief, Transition Economies Section, United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (UNECE), Geneva
1976-1998:	Lecturer and then Senior Lecturer in Economics, University of London, Goldsmiths' College, Department of Social Policy and Politics
1970-1975:	Economic consultant, private sector San Francisco
1966-1970:	Assistant Professor of Economics, University of Washington, Seattle
1964-66:	Graduate Teaching Assistant and then Tutorial Fellow, LSE Economics

Professional and Public Service:

2012 –present:	Management Committee, Economics Network
2012 -	Advisory Group to Edexcel on A-level Economics syllabus
2011-2013:	Open Society's Reset programme, health economics in former transition countries
2008/9:	[US] SSRC/Ford Programme on HIV/AIDS in Russia, expert
1995-2002:	Expert Group on Development Issues (EGDI) Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs
2001-200:	Association for Public Economics executive board member, Russia
1997 –present:	Founder-member Academic Council, Independent Institute for Social Policy, Moscow
1998-9:	Advisory Committee for the Know-How Fund, Department for International Development, London
1994-1997:	Economic Expert, Russian-European Centre for Economic Policy (RECEP), EU-TACIS
1993-1994:	Resident Economic Advisor on Health and Social Policy Issues, Advisory Team at the Russian Ministry of Finance, Macroeconomic and Finance Unit (MFU or "Sachs team")
1993-2000:	European Forum (Brussels) Economic Programme Group.
1990-1993:	National Secretary, British Association for Slavonic and East European Studies
1992-1993:	Britain-Russia Social Security Advisory Group
1989-1993:	National Advisory Board, Soviet Studies
1985:	Fulbright Professor (Labour Economics) Kharkov, (then USSR) Ukraine

Relevant Teaching and Related Experience in Further Detail:

2011-2014, Global Health Economics, for Open Society Institute ReSet Programme, Health and Demography for early career economists in former centrally planned economics

2007 –present, prize-winning Independent Student Research Workshop at LSE

2010 –present: dissertation supervisor to students in BSc Econometrics and Mathematical Economics

2007/8: Advisor to US Social Science Research Council to establish a Health Economics course for use in Russia, teaching materials and pilot in Moscow together with colleagues from the New Economic School.

2000-2003: New Economic School Graduate Modules:

Health Economics, Cost-Benefit Analysis/Applied Public Finance, Selected Topics in Economic Statistics, Research Seminar for all MA Students. All courses included: Design of syllabus, implementation, training of assistants, teaching and examining.

Position of Academic Coordinator included orientation and assistance for visiting Western colleagues.

Grant from US State Department to New Economic School ($100,000) 2001/2002 for my salary support particularly for mentoring of young Russian faculty members at New Economic School

Also a member of leading NES academic committees at that time (Rectorate, Research Centre)

Previous teaching, graduate and undergraduate in London: Economics of Transition, Health and Social Policy, Development Economics, Soviet Social Policy

Present position involves responsibility for all (750) undergraduates in the LSE's Department of Economics

Other capacity building includes: participation through the Independent Institute for Social Policy and Ford Foundation in selection and mentoring of social policy economics (including health) grants to researchers throughout Russia, periodic conferences to select projects, mid-project assistance, end period summing up, and educational outreach.

Annual Research and Graduate Student Projects on Health Economics, 2000-2003:

Each involved 4 graduate students and one senior graduate student assistant

- 2000-2001: "Health and Economic Development in Transition": Transition Mortality in International Comparison; Panel Data (RLMS) for understanding mortality differentials. Two MA (Economics) students from this project submitted papers to poster sessions for the International Health Economics Association, World Congress.
- 2001-2002: "How can Russian health care buy better health for the Russian population?: Assessing and improving the cost-effectiveness of Russian health care in a regional and worldwide context"
MA student presented paper at Barcelona HIV/AIDS summit economics group.
Research assistant (graduate student) co-authored paper for Global Development Network international conference, Rio de Janeiro
- 2002-2003: "A basic health care package for Russia?"
Presentation at international workshop in Prague of joint work with students

Direction of New Economic School Research Seminar 2001-2003 and external seminar series, coordination of all graduate student projects

Major Research and Collaborative Awards:

2004-2005: Healthy Life Expectancy in the EU and Health Transitions, EU Framework VI (AHEAD) Collaborative Project

2001-2002: Global Development Network – Merck and World Bank “Healthcare in the Developing World”, responsibility for Russia segment.

1994-1996: Partner in ACE-TACIS projects "Social Costs of High Inflation" and "High Inflation, Inequality and Barriers to Growth", based at Royal Institute of International Affairs. London

1995-1997: Russian Economic Transformation and its impact on Russian Mortality, UK Know-How Fund (then DfID), joint director of research with colleagues at London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine

1996-1997: Leverhulme Research Fellowship on “Life and Death in the New Russia”

1996-7: Directed Swedish-Russian Project on Society, Stress, Alcohol and Economic Pilot funded by Swedish Ministry for Foreign Affairs, taken over by SIDA, developed educational materials on alcohol and related healthy lifestyles topics

1994-1994: Jean Monnet Award, European Commission: design and establishment of course on "Economics of the European Community" Goldsmiths' College

1989-1992: Director of Project, Leverhulme Trust, Labour relations in the USSR during perestroika

Publications include:

Co-authored books, with John Eatwell, Michael Ellman, Mats Karlsson and Mario Nuti, Institute for Public Policy Research, London:

- Hard Budgets, Soft States: Economics of Social Policy Choices in Central and Eastern Europe, 2000
- Not 'Just Another Accession': The Political Economy of EU Enlargement to the East, 1997
- Transformation and Integration: Shaping the Future of Central and Eastern Europe, 1995.

Edited book:

- International Labor Standards: History, Theory and Policy Options, with Kaushik Basu, Henrik Horn and Lisa Roman, Oxford: Blackwell's.

1966: Workbook in Economics to accompany Richard Lipsey and Peter Steiner, Economics, New York: Harper and Row and Instructors' Manual.

Selected journal articles, book chapters and other shorter works:

- 2013: “Demographic Developments” with Irina Denisova, Chapter 33, Oxford Handbook of the Russian Economy, Oxford University Press
- 2008: “Scratch a Would-Be Planner: Robbins, Neoclassical Economics and the End of Socialism,” with Brigitte Granville, in Frank Cowell and Amos Witztum, editors, Robbins Essay on the Nature and Significance of Economic Science, STICERD, London
- 2006: “Incidence of Poor Health and Long-Term Care: Health Transitions in Europe. Results from the European Community Household Panel Survey and Institutional Data, with Andrew Bebbington, ENEPRI Research Reports Series, No 34, AHEAD Programme, CEPS, Brussels.
- 2006: “Measuring Personal Social Services Outputs for National Accounts: Services for Older People” with Ann Netten and Julian Forder, PSSRU Discussion Paper No. 2267/3, Personal Social Services Research Unit, University of Kent, Canterbury.
- 2005: Health Transitions in Europe: Results from the European Community Household Panel, Survey and Institutional Data. Work Package III of AHEAD – Ageing, Health Status, and

Determinants of Health Expenditure., PSSRU Discussion Paper 2219, University of Kent, Canterbury

- 2005, "Measuring and Understanding Social Services Outputs" as part of Ann Netten et al, PSSRU Discussion Paper No. 2132/3, Personal Social Services Research Unit, University of Kent, Canterbury
- 2001: "Health and Health Care Policy" in Stephen White, Alex Pravda, Zvi Gitelman, Developments in Russian Politics 5, Duke University Press, Durham
- 1997: "The Stress Hypothesis," Proceedings of the IUSSP World Congress, Beijing, 1997, Kluwer Press, for the International Union for the Scientific Study of Populations
- 1997: "Huge variation in Russian mortality rates 1984-1994", The Lancet, August 9, co-author with David Leon et al.
- 1997: "Health and Health Policy" in New Developments in Russian Politics 4, Stephen White, editor, Macmillan, London
- 1996: "Russian Unemployment and the Excess Wages Tax," with Ian Roxburgh, Communist Economics and Economic Transformation, 1996, No 1
- 1995: "The Russian Mortality Crisis and its Causes" in Anders Aslund (edited), Russian Economic Reform at Risk, Pinter. (Originally SITE Paper 99, 2004)
- 1994: "Russian Inflation: A Statistical Pandora's Box", Royal Institute for International Affairs, 1994. (With Brigitte Granville).
- 1993-1995: Socio-Economic Survey, Macroeconomic and Finance Unit, Ministry of Finance of the Russian Federation, Moscow (in Russian and English), weekly, monthly, then quarterly with Russian European Centre for Economic Reform (CEFIR) Moscow
- 1993: "Im allem Ernst und für eine Lange Zeit -- aber nicht für immer" in Theodore Bergmann and Gert Schäfer, Leo Trotzki: Kritiker und Verteidiger der Sowjetgesellschaft, Decaton Verlag, Mainz, 1993.
- 1992: "The industrial labour force" in Mary Buckley (edited) Perestroika and Soviet Women, Cambridge University Press, 1992.
- 1992: "Secondary Currencies in the Russian Hyperinflation and Stabilisation of 1921-1924", LSE Centre for Economic Performance. Paper No 59, 1992, with Jacek Rostowski]
- 1991: "The Costs of Economic Reform" in Catherine Merridale and Christopher Ward, Perestroika: The Historical Perspective, Edward Arnold, 1991.
- 1990: "Unemployment" in R.W. Davies, From Tsarism to NEP: Continuity and Change in the Economy of the USSR, Macmillan, 1990."
- 1990: "Shatrov i debati navloko n'vogo"(in Ukrainian), /Prapor/, Kharkiv, No 11, 1990 [in Ukrainian,: Shatrov and the Debates Around Him]

Selected conference presentations since 2000:

- Keynote speaker, "Crisis of Academic Economics?", "EU: Which Way Ahead? Limassol Economic Forum, October 2012, Cyprus
- "Developments in Mortality and Life Expectancy in the Russian Federation: A view from 2020" for Independent Institute for Social Policy anniversary conference, Moscow
- Training Workshop for junior researchers in Social Sciences in Health, Moscow, March 2008: Researching the Russian health care system and HIV/AIDS, SSRC/Ford Foundation
- LSE, 2007: Lionel Robbins's Essay 18 years after 1989: Reflections on Changes in Economics since the End of Socialism

- Keynote address: Association for Public Economics, St. Petersburg, 2002, Perspectives and Priorities for Education in Public Economics in Russia:
- UCL, 2005: “Russia’s Population Crisis: A Demographic Time Bomb?” 90th anniversary conference of SSESS, 2005
- Teaching Higher Degrees in Economics in Transition, Budapest, 2001, Open Society Foundation and Central European University

Education and Qualifications:

PhD, Economics, London (LSE), 1966, National Science Foundation (NSF) Fellowship

BA (Economics) University of Chicago, 1963, National Merit Scholar

Certificate (first) in Counselling, Mary Ward House, London, 2006

Russian: UN Certificate of Oral and Written Proficiency, 1999; Good working knowledge, have lectured in Russian

Recent Teaching Awards:

Annual Teaching and Learning Award (first place) National Economics Network of the Higher Education Academy, UK (Student-Nominated)

LSE Teaching Excellence Award, 2009.

Personal Details: E-mail j.c.shapiro@lse.ac.uk Born, New York City, 15 October 1943; UK and US citizen.