

THE GRAND ADVENTURE OF ELROY THE UNIPUS

Story Board

Jaime Fraina

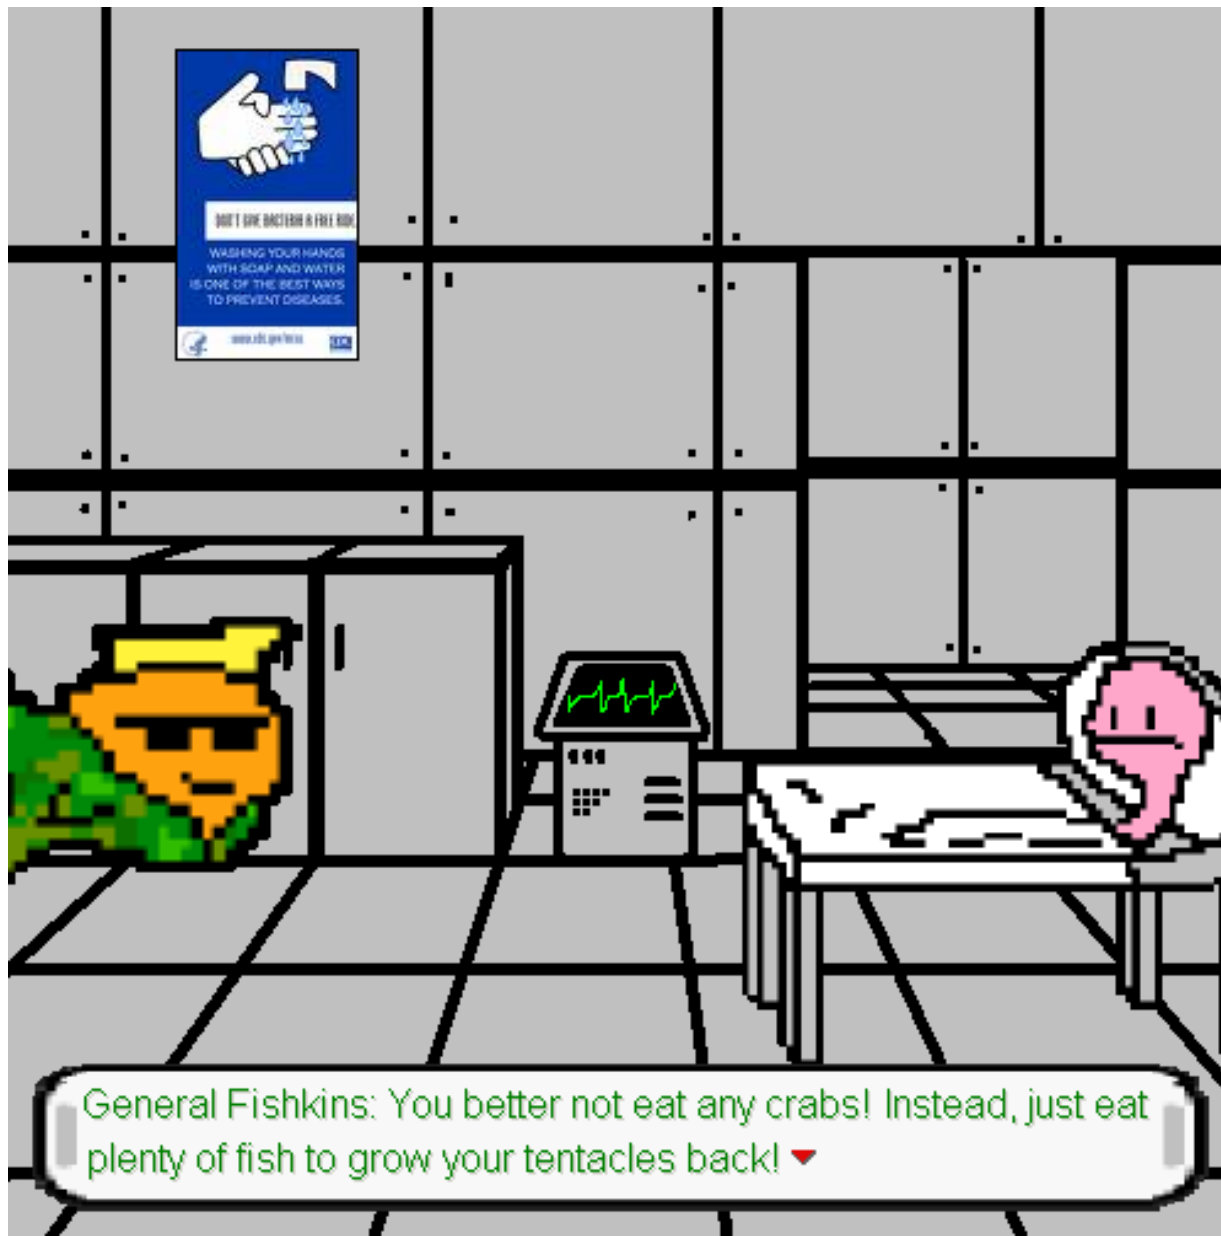

Elroy was a great fighter in 'Nam.

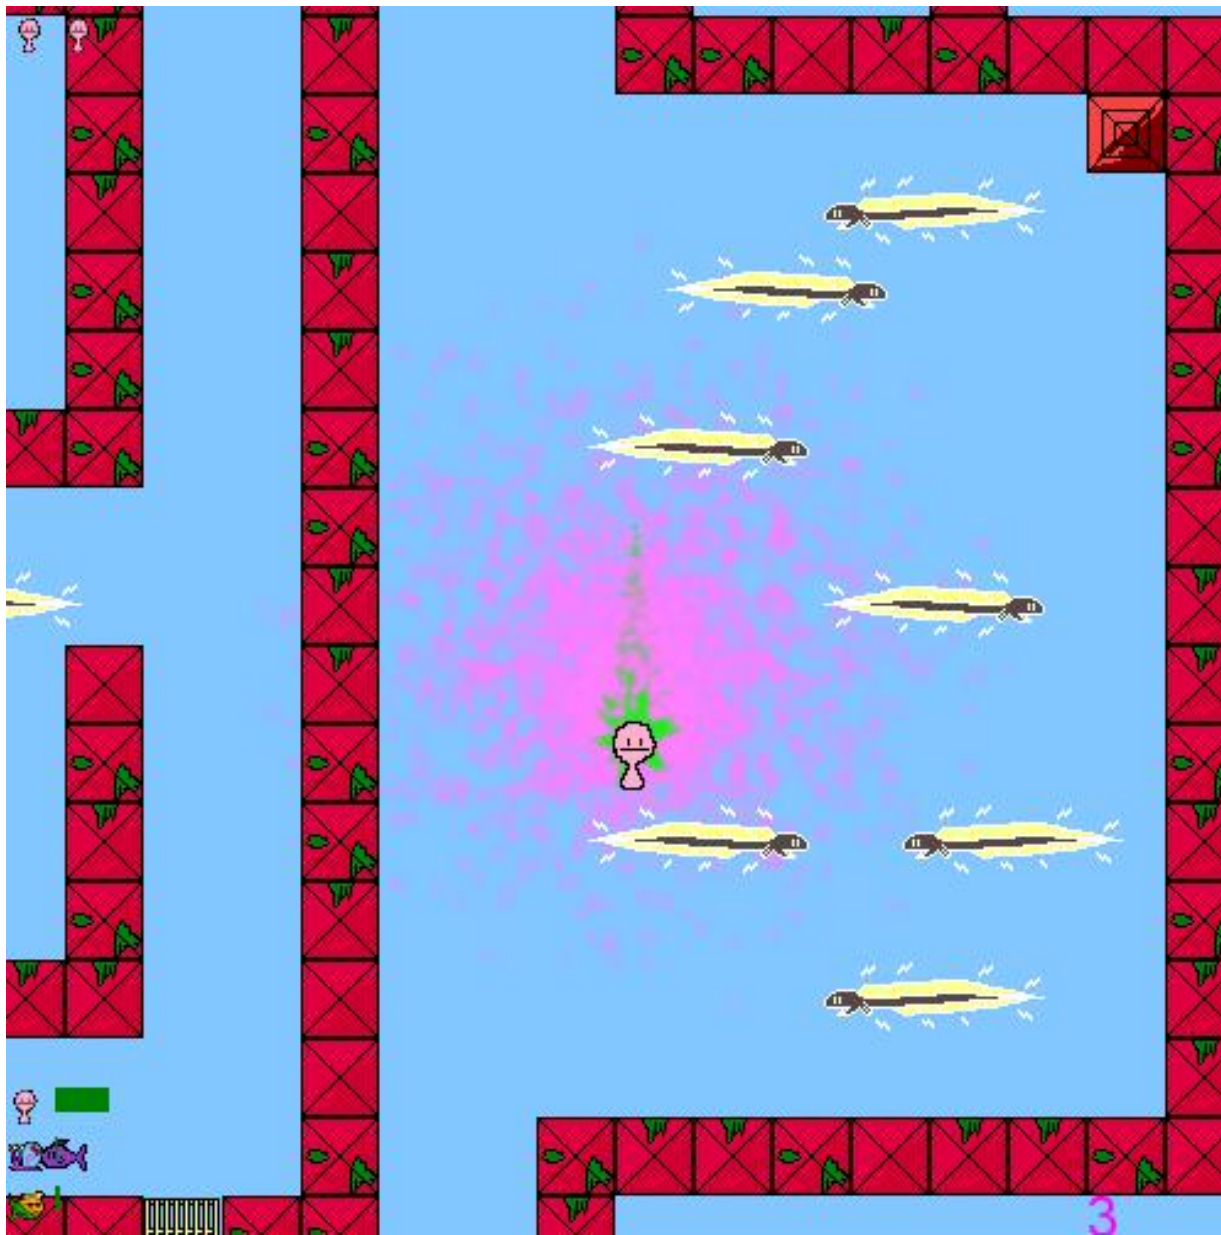

A giant Tiger Shark attacked Elroy!

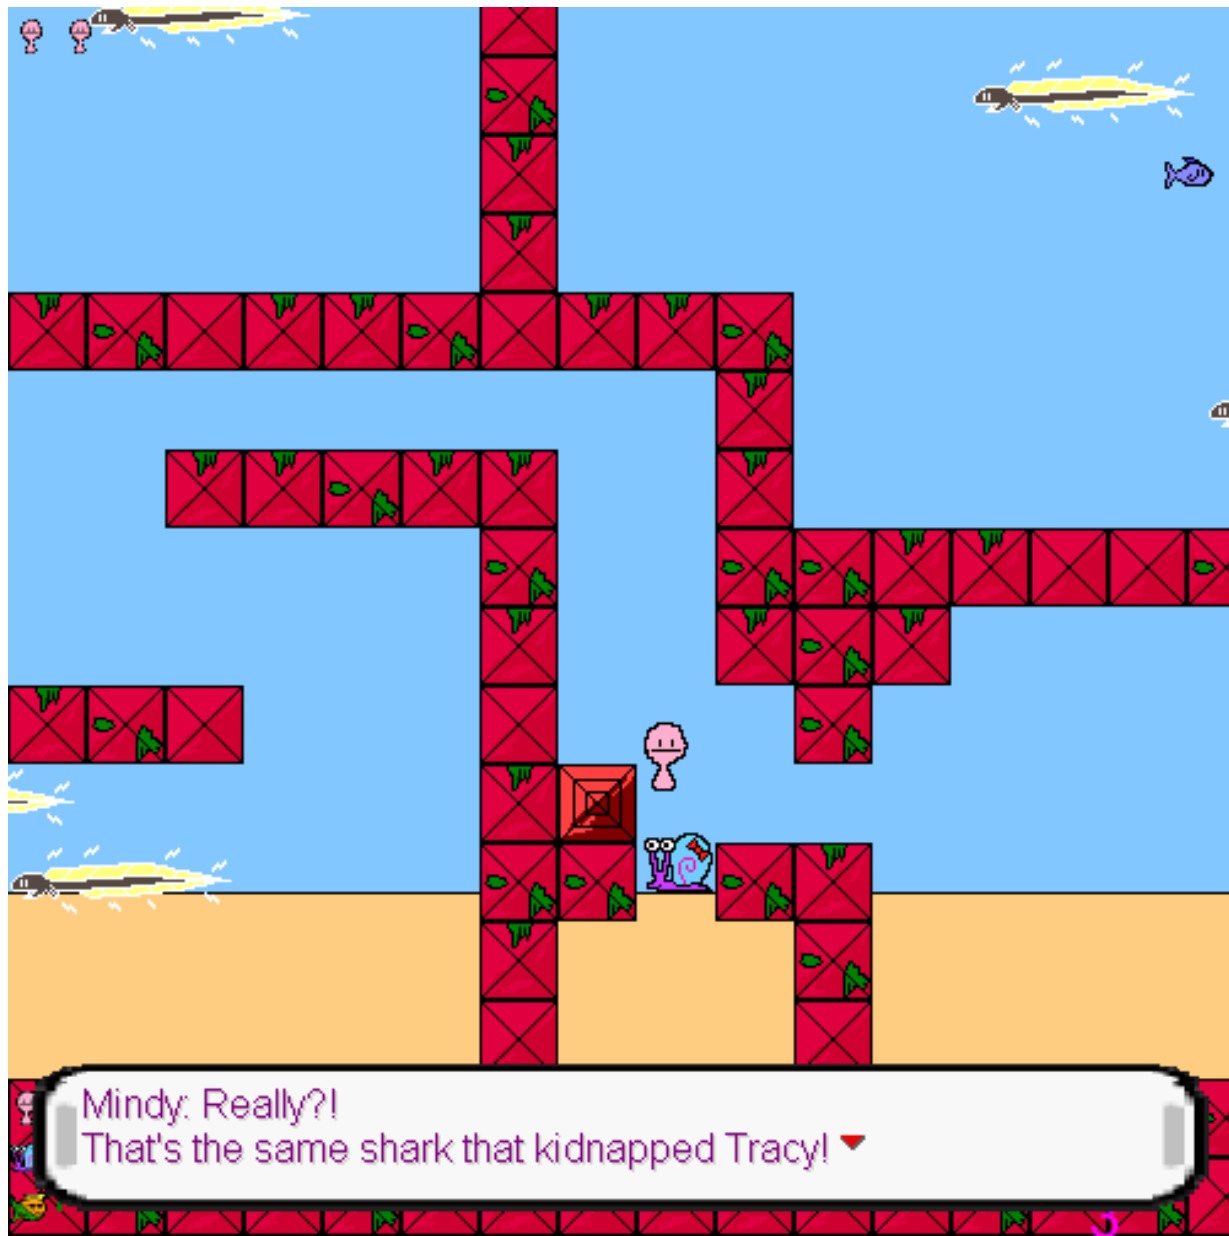

General Fishkins saved Elroy, but all but one of his tentacles were ripped off. Elroy wants to eat crabs, but the General disapproves and rather him eat fish.

While resting before his quest for revenge, Elroy dreams about eating crabs.

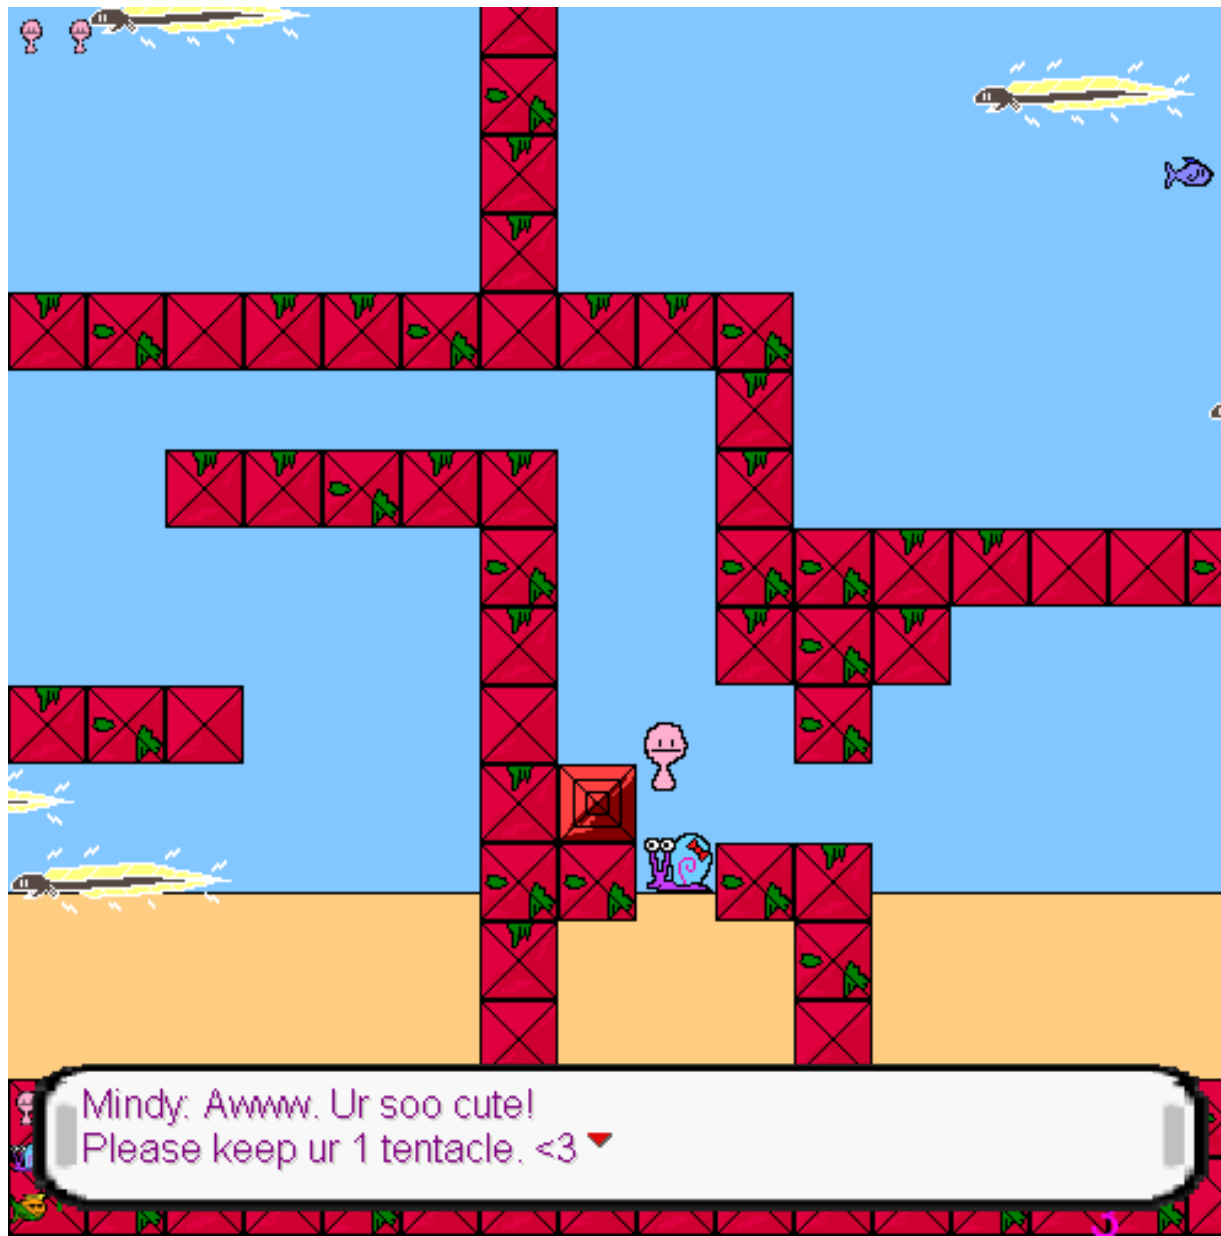

In-Game, eating a crab lets Elroy become invincible for a few moments. It is very helpful gameplay-wise to eat crabs, but the story tells the player not to.

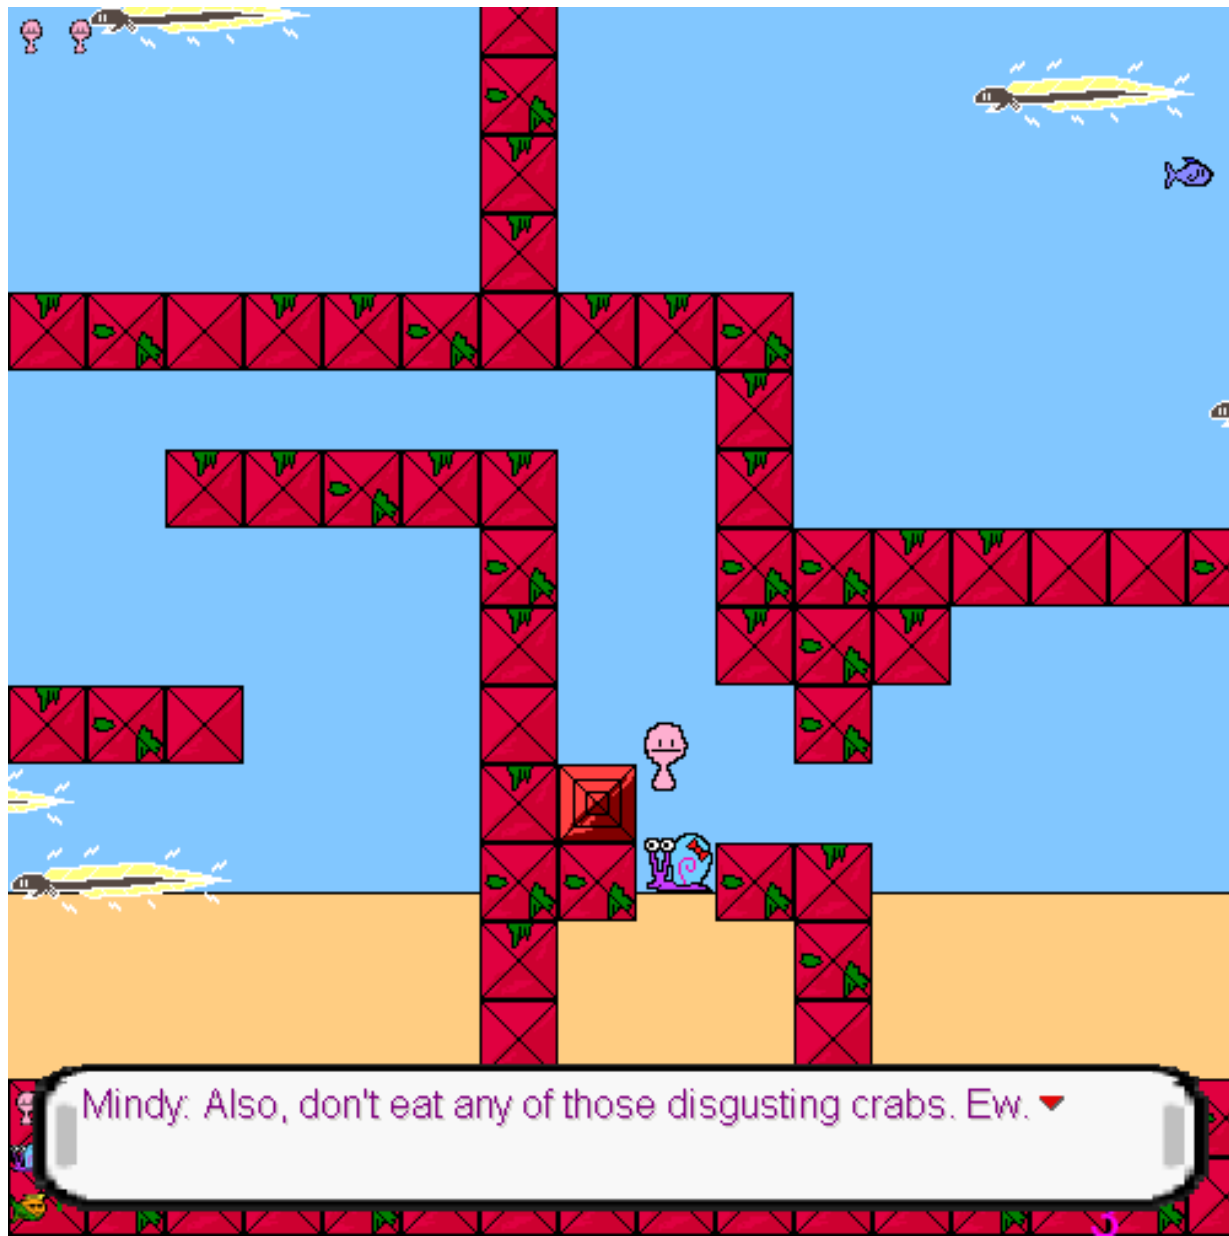

Elroy saves a snail, Mindy, that was trapped and agrees to help save her 'friend' Tracy.

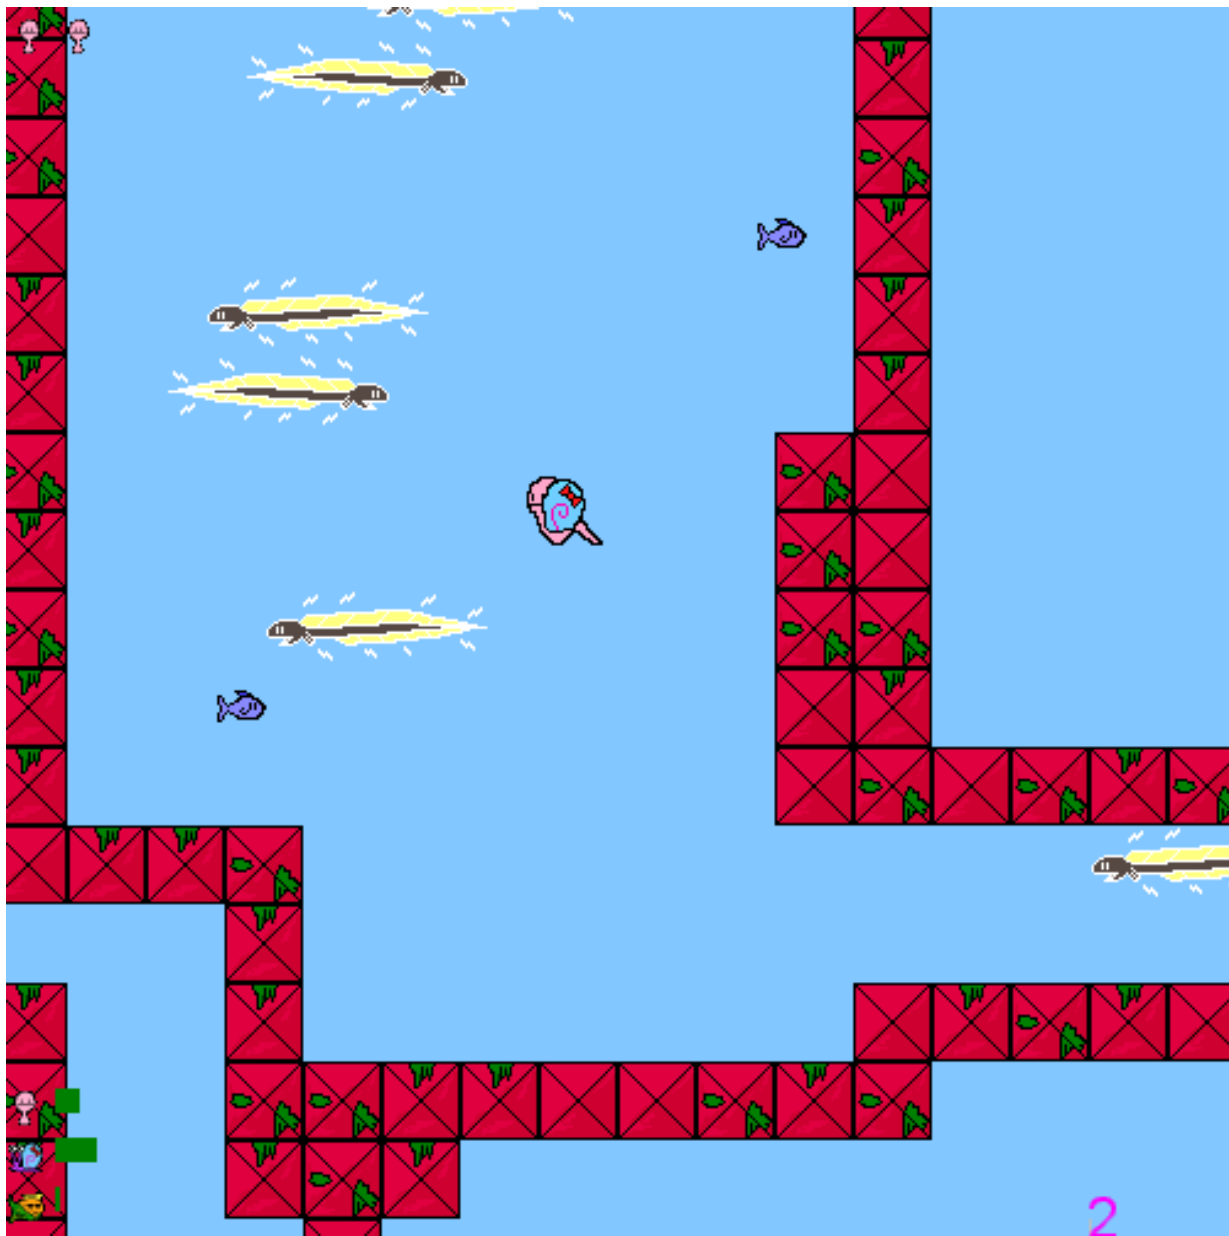

Mindy, thinks Elroy is adorable with one tentacle and only helps him fight if he looks good for her.

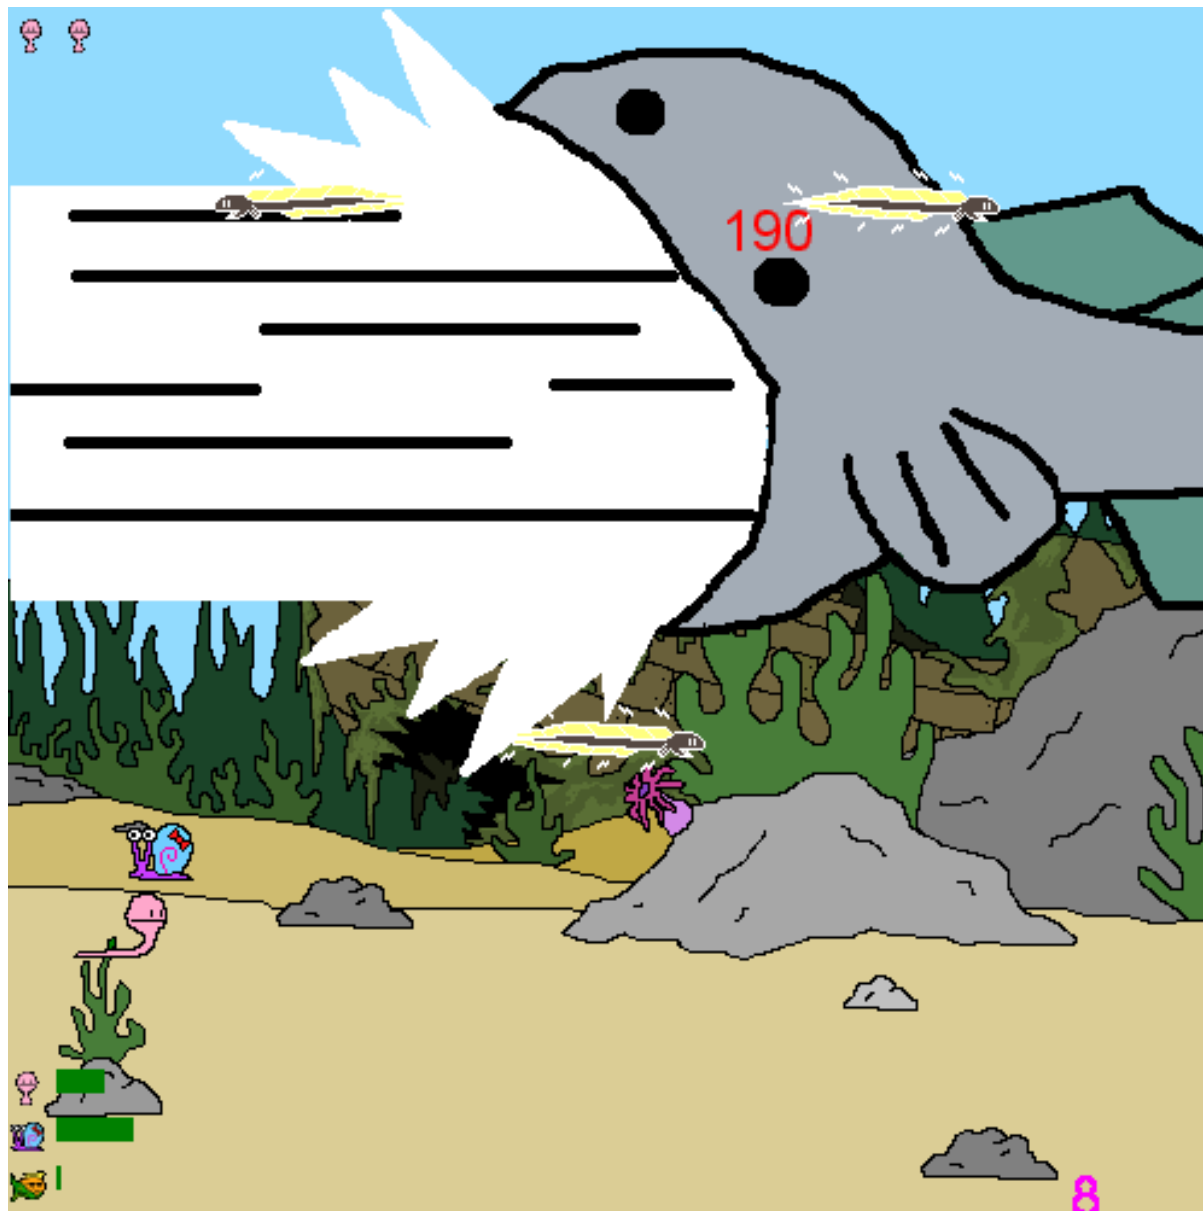

She disproves of eating crabs or fish, which leaves Elroy very vulnerable.

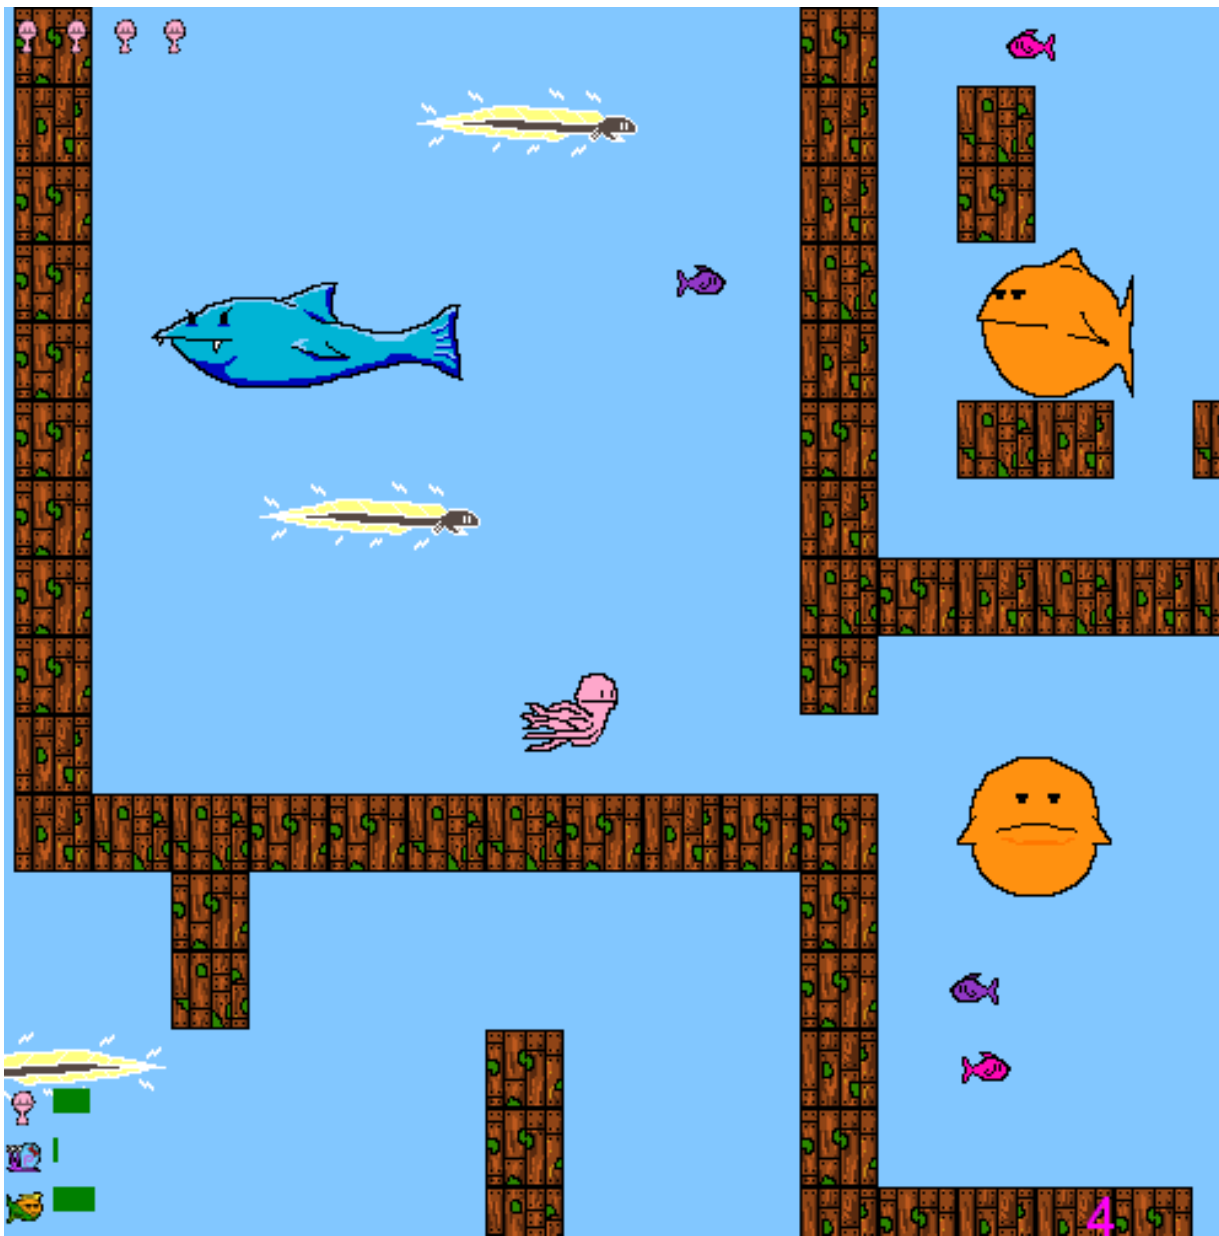

While having one tentacle the player can have Mindy help by using her shell as a speed boost or a shield.

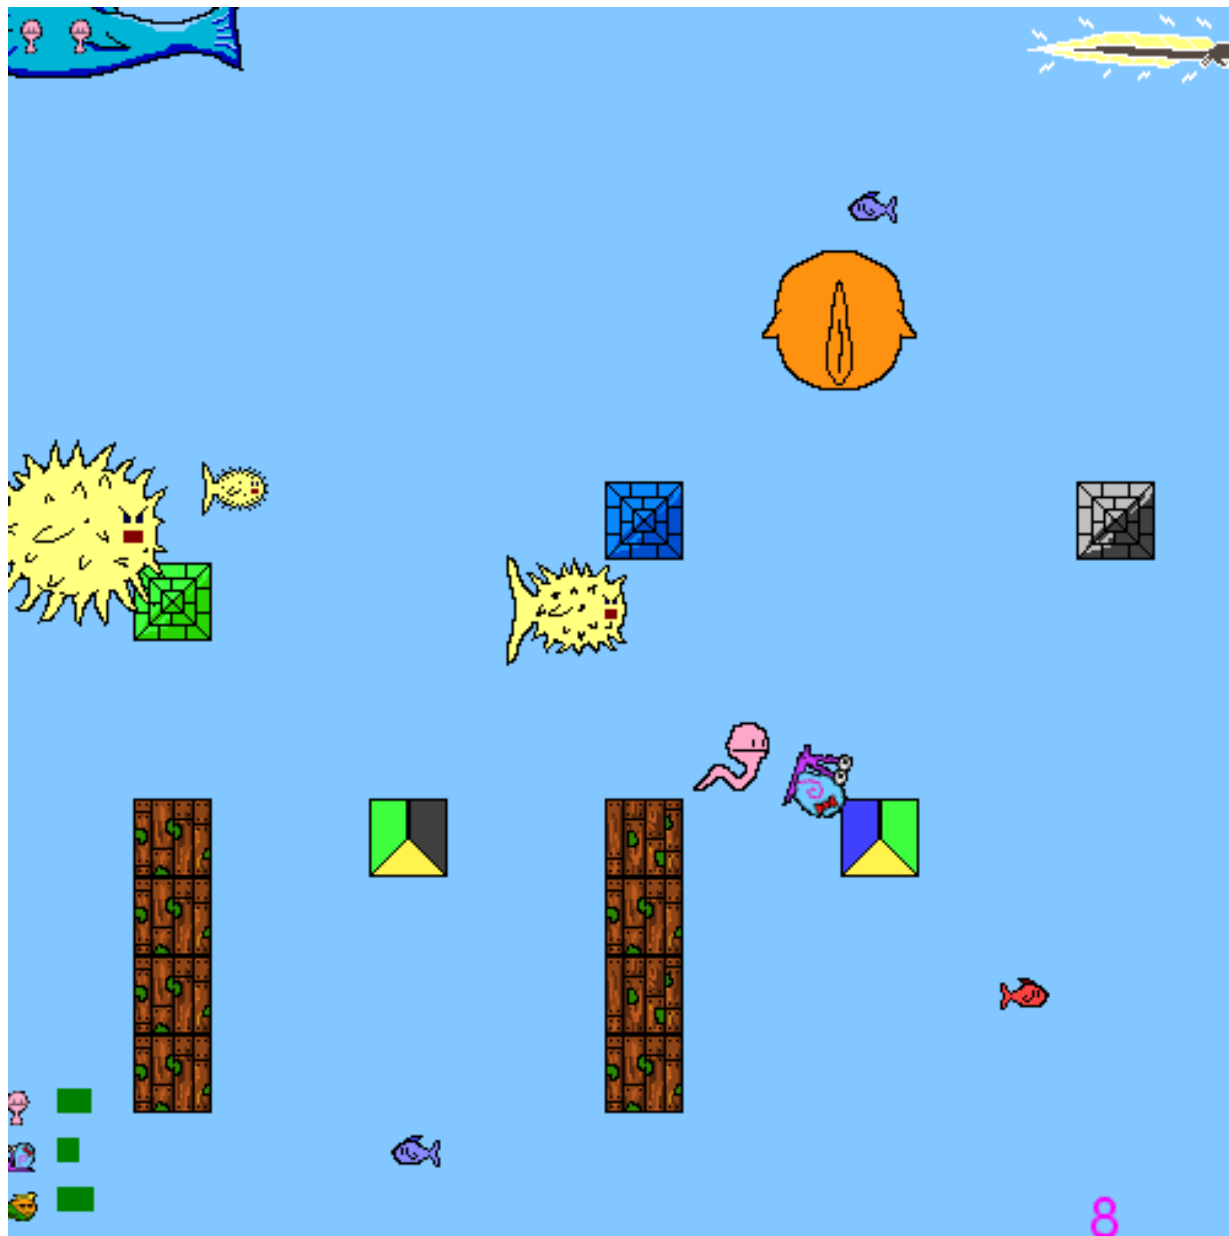

Elroy fights a giant eel that shoots a huge laser. The battle is hard, but Elroy finds extra lives right after it.

If Elroy eats enough fish, he will start growing back his tentacles.

Elroy & Mindy battle their way through puzzles and hostile fish infested areas. On the bottom left UI, the player sees bars of how happy each character is.

Crabs are frequently seen, and even talk to Elroy telling him to eat them.

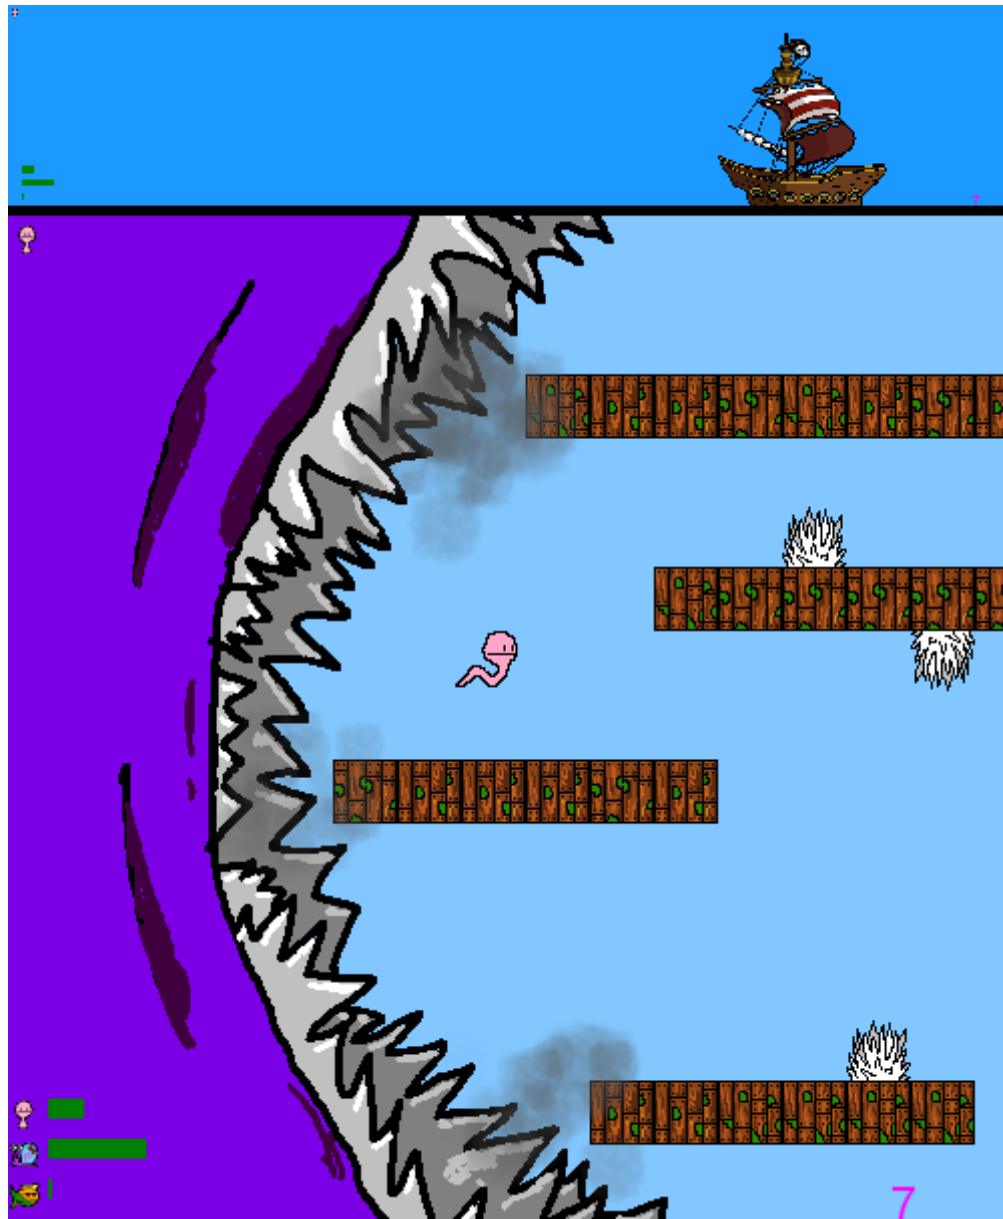

The duo find the pirate boat of the Tiger Shark (the one Mindy's friend is in).

The whole area is encompassed in a giant shadow.

Elroy must out run a giant whale and help the ship get away by opening gates at the same time.

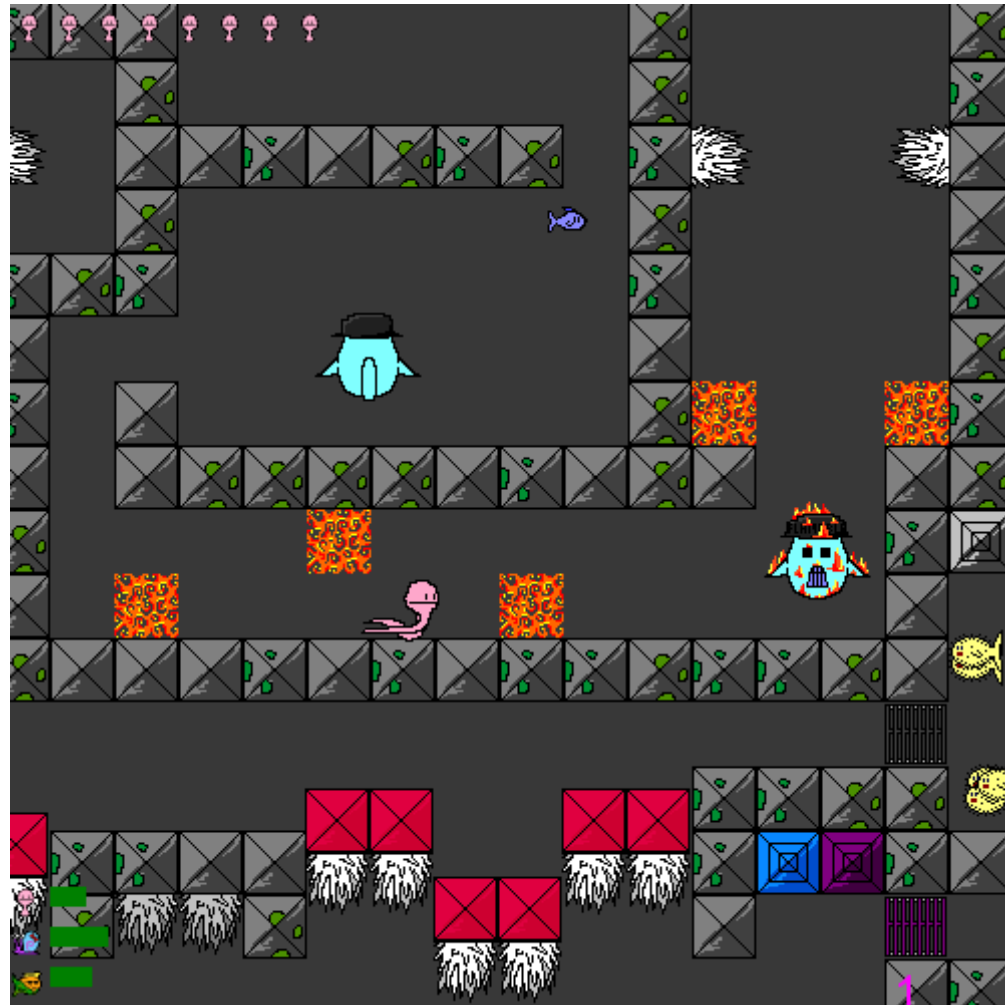

The ship goes into a cave and Elroy follows as the whale smashes into the spiky exterior.

In the cave, there are many spikes and fires. Elroy can use these obstacles to help him out however by lighting his ink aflame.

Flaming ink can be used to light certain fish on fire. These fish show they are able to be caught on fire by wearing a hat that states “FLAMABLE.”

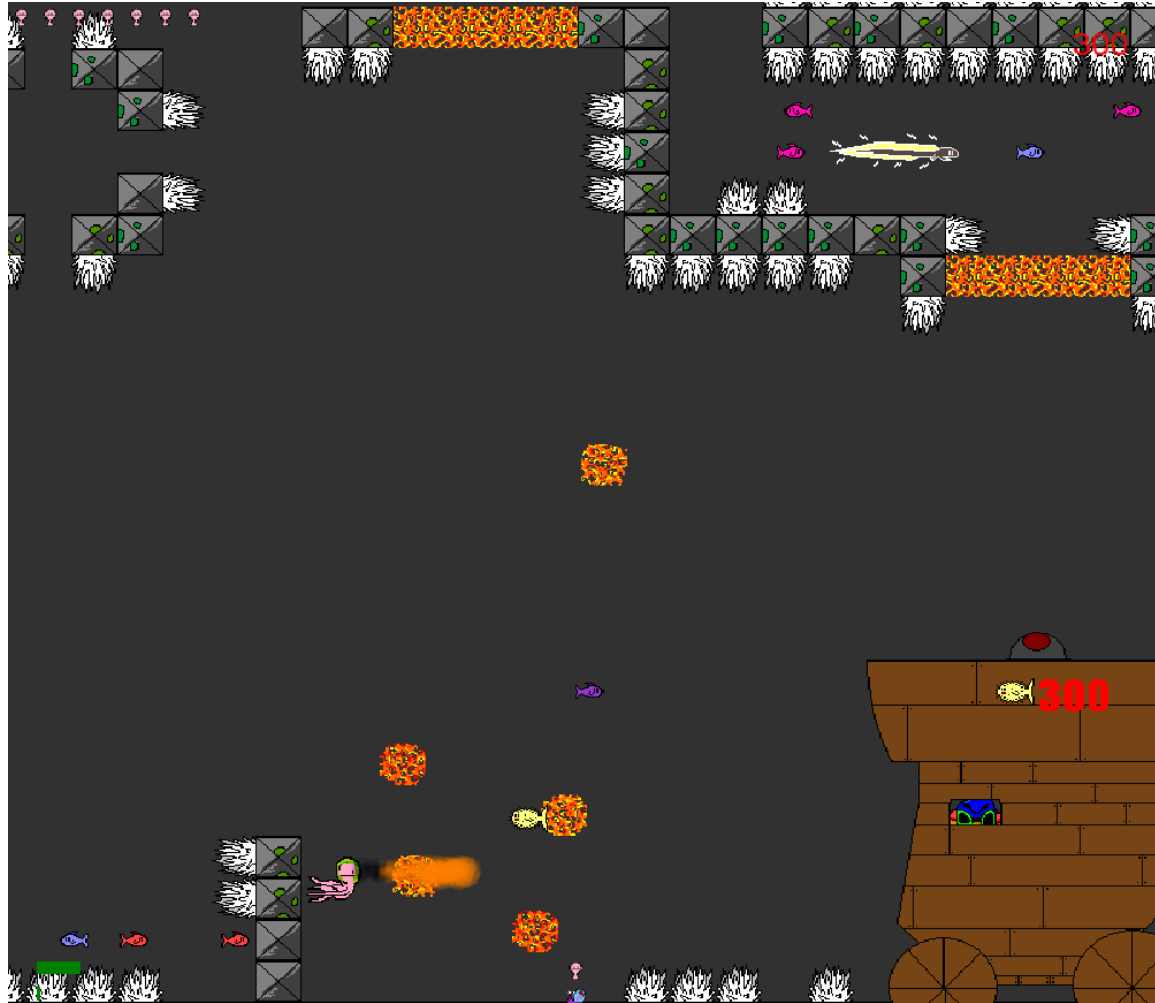

Elroy and Mindy find General Fishkins who was on the ship. He explains he was kidnapped and the ship crashed.

Fiskins hates snails and won't give Elroy special armor unless he kills Mindy. The player must choose between something that will help them gameplay wise or saving a character that cares about them.

Elroy finally finds the Tiger Shark but finds out that it is part of a machine!

Elroy fights the machine in a very difficult battle that has six stages. He kills the starfish that was controlling it by luring him in to spiked areas.

Alt. Ending 1

If Elroy ate a ton of fish for General Fishkins, he just becomes fat and doesn't fight in anyways. General Fishkins leaves him all alone.

Alt. Ending 2

If Elroy stayed with one tentacle and tried to please Mindy, she ends up leaving with the 'friend' that was in the boat & says Elroy has to be more independent.

Alt. Ending 3

If Elroy ate crabs & did everything for himself, he grows all his tentacles back. Mindy loves how badass he looks, but her boyfriend tells Elroy to leave. Elroy says no, and tells him to leave instead since he doesn't think for himself. Mindy and General Fishkins admire Elroy for his courage & uniqueness.
