Disclaimer Acknowledgement

All members and visitors alike, including passengers (“all participants”) are reminded that ANY sort of motor sport can be dangerous and attendance or participation in any club events is of their own choosing. All participants acknowledge and accept full responsibility for their own actions and consequences.

All participants have a duty of care in relation to their property, themselves and all other participants and their property, in any event arranged by the Club. All participants must ensure that their actions and behaviours are of the highest integrity, and further, that their actions and behaviours do not cause or are likely to cause an unsafe situation for either themselves or any other participant in the event.

Although the Club attempts to conduct events in the safest possible manner, there are many changing and unforeseen circumstances over which the club and its members have no control.

Each member, visitor and passenger are the only persons that know their own capabilities and therefore are the only person who know if they are capable of participating or continuing to participate in a Club event. If these persons feel that their vehicle or they are not capable of participating or continuing to participate in any event in a safe manner then they need to withdraw at that time from the event or that part of the event.

Western Patrol Club Inc. takes no responsibility whatsoever for damage to any participant’s property or loss of property regardless as to whether this loss or damage of property arises from accidental causes, malicious causes or act of Criminal Activity.

Agreement Declaration

I acknowledge that I have received a copy of the Constitution & Code of Ethics and agree that upon renewal of my membership of, Western Patrol Club Inc. that I will adhere to the rules of the Club as set down in the Constitution & Code of Ethics and in accordance with any modifications/alterations made to the said Constitution & Code of Ethics as maybe necessary from time to time.
