

'Abdu'l-Baha's Travels in Europe and America

Outline of Chapter 19, God Passes By, Shoghi Effendi

1. Active and personal participation of the Master in activities of the West
--Establishment of the Faith in the Western Hemisphere the most outstanding achievement of His ministry
2. Barriers lifted from His path
3. Health and condition of 'Abdu'l-Bahá; consecration to a service of heroic proportions
4. His three years of travel a turning point of utmost significance
5. An unprecedented outburst of activity from 'Abdu'l-Bahá
6. Overview of His historic journeys - places and dates
7. Exposition of the basic and distinguishing principles of His Father's Faith
8. Characterization of 'Abdu'l-Bahá during His travels (12)
9. His several visits to Egypt
10. Survey of His visit to England
11. 'Abdu'l-Bahá's first public appearance (London, Sept 10, 1911)
12. Highlights of his London sojourn
13. Visitors and impressions of His time in England and Scotland
14. His visits to Paris
15. Visitors and gatherings in Paris
16. His visit to Germany
17. Highlights of 'Abdu'l-Bahá's visits to Vienna and Budapest
18. Most important phase reserved for the North American continent
19. Character of acts and outstanding functions associated with His visit to America (7)
20. A partial account of 'Abdu'l-Bahá's public activities
21. Highlights of His unforgettable Mission to the West (6);
  - a. people of eminence who attained His presence (24);
22. A commentator's description of 'Abdu'l-Bahá
23. A few strange incidents (5) related to personal contact with 'Abdu'l-Bahá
24. Certain memorable scenes of impressiveness and power (15)
25. Thoughts (10), (7) and memories (4) of 'Abdu'l-Bahá during His travels
26. Glorious chapter in Baha'i history