This is her portfolio of Stuff and Things.

Jerilyn Pool designs LOGOS FOR BUSINESSES. Here are a few.

Jerilyn Pool designs LOGOS FOR EVENTS. (You should have been there.)

This is Bruce.

Bruce is the name of the kidney that was transplanted into Jerilyn's mother during the summer of 2010.

So far, so good, in case you were wondering.

Jerilyn Pool has been known to do GOOFY ILLUSTRATION from time to time.

Jerilyn Pool does PHOTO EDITING. You won't believe your eyes!

NATIONAL PRINT ADS for Mitsubishi TV

[illegible]

Jerilyn Pool is a genius when it comes to PRINTED PUBLICATIONS.

Jerilyn can take a multi-page document from concept to completion. She can art-direct a photoshoot and edit the photos, design custom graphics, source economical options for stock images, write and edit copy, complete the pre-press requirements for printing, interface with printers, collect printing bids, press check the files and oversee distribution. Whew!

Jerilyn Pool is especially good with WEBSITES and UX.

Jerilyn knows some CSS, HTML and a (very) little PHP—not enough to really be labeled a “Web Developer” but enough to make some pretty cool things.

Jerilyn even knows some actual web developers who willingly help out with the tricky bits.

Please note: some of these sites have changed from Jerilyn’s original design comps due to client maintenance.

Jerilyn Pool designed these WEBSITES too!

Cheryl Peck Endorsement

"ANGRY FAT GIRLS is about women: weight loss, body image, and what did and did not learn: growing up fat, and why losing weight -- and keeping it off -- is so hard. This is not Valerie Bertinelli in a bikini, promising that she can do it, you can: this is about 'real' relationships and why my cat knows how to eat ice cream off a spoon. This book is honest, true, and occasionally very funny."
