INT. WEEKEND UPDATE DESK - NIGHT

SETH

Halloween is coming up and thousands of New Yorkers will be taking their kids out to trick or treat in the coming weeks. Here with some tips is our City Correspondent, Stefon.

Stefon walks out.

SETH (CONT'D)

I hear that you've been at the Occupy protests out in NY.

STEFON

Yes.

SETH

So what are your thoughts on Wall Street?

STEFON

Oh, I wasn't at the Wall Street protests, but I was definitely occupied somewhere out in those parks.

SETH

(Cutting him off)

Ok, Stefon. What do you have for us for Halloween. And remember my criteria: Family Friendly.

STEFON

Got it.

SETH

Really this time?

STEFON

Crystal clear. If someone's coming and wants the full NY trick or treating experience, well then look no further than NY's hottest club, "Boo." At the front door you'll be greeted by NY's spookiest hostess, Ghoulia Roberts, who'll take you through a horror fest cavalcade that finally answers the question "because..." and what's that around the corner: Did I just see Lady Gaga?

STEFON (CONT'D)

No it's Dee Snider in a dress made out of used motel bathrobes.

SETH

I can't suppose he's going to take that.

STEFON

Not Anymore.

SETH

Now, Stefon, we do this dance every single week.

STEFON

Oh, I how I wish we really danced every week.

SETH

We're looking for places that ordinary folks can take their kids. Family friendly places, now do you have an ordinary, no frills locales that our viewers can take their kids?

STEFON

I've got the perfect place. New York's hottest club is "Eehhh."

SETH

I'm sorry, I missed that. What was the name of that club again?

STEFON

"Eeeeh." And this club has everything: Cobwebs, sailors playing bingo, cats dressed in people clothes, a maze that takes you through Gary Busey's mind, a pumpkin patch with celebrity scarecrows Tracy Whorgan and Sigourney Beaver. But be careful, as the clock strikes two hours past midnight, just make sure that you don't find yourself all alone on the dancefloor. Or you be chased by the scariest creature of them all: A Cherwolf.

SETH

Ok, I'll admit, my interest is peaked. What's a Cherwolf?

STEFON

It's when a Cher drag queen turns back into Chaz Bono at the end of a full moon.

SETH

Ok, Stefon, you would think after all your years of Trick or Treating that you would have amassed at least a couple normal places to take families.

STEFON

Stefon never got to trick or treat as a kid.

(playing to audience)

AWWWWWWWW.

SETH

Well that certainly explains a lot.

STEFON

What's that supposed to mean?

SETH

Now look, Stefon, I get you may have had a hard childhood, but this is it: Your last chance to give us a normal family friendly NY experience. You got it?

STEFON

I got it.

SETH

Remember, we're counting on you.

STEFON

Ok, NY's hottest club is "YES!" And they've spared no expense, they have everything: skulls, skeletons, sea urchins shaking maracas, diabetic vampires doing body shots. Come for the schizophrenic serial killers in go go cages, stay for the Club Kid Presidential debates between Lit Rom-He and Peewee Herman Cain. This goth kid dream come true has eight floors and no stairs, but if you need to go up another level just turn around and find the nearest Human Millipede.

SETH

I immediately regret asking, but what's a Human Millipede?

STEFON

It's that thing when a bunch of Peter Dinklage stunt doubles are attached to from mouth to anus to form a step ladder.

SETH

Peter Dinklage, the midget from
"Game of Thrones?"

STEFON

He prefers to be called that Actor from "Game of Thrones," thank you.

SETH

Stefon, week after week you come through and give us awful places to take the family.

STEFON

Oh no.

SETH

But I gotta say, you really came through this time. I've actually been to YES! and it's not a bad place.

STEFON

Really? You went to Yes!

SETH

Yeah, I had a Groupon.

STEFON

YAYYY!!!!

SETH

For weekend update, I'm...
