GUILD PRESIDENT AND SENATE REPRESENTATIVE

TYLER MORRIS

GUILD PRESIDENT & SENATE
REPRESENTATIVE
HOT CHIP BRIGADE

Hello,

You know, if it weren't for my ridiculous photo, people might have taken me seriously in this election. What a waste.

I am not a law student, so vote for me before the lawyers take over the whole frickin' world!

I promise that I will fail to introduce catering competition on campus, because the UWA Senate does not support it.

The guild must serve Hot Chips in all of its food outlets, because starving freshers aren't fat or greasy enough already.

HANNAH (GILLY) GIFFORD

GUILD PRESIDENT & SENATE
REPRESENTATIVE
STAR

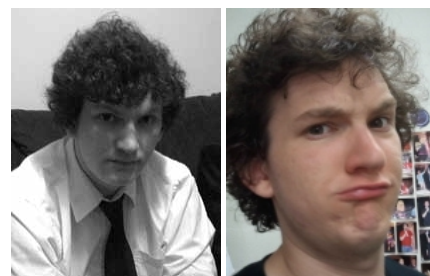

Shit! It's lucky they decided to put my photo in black and white; I wouldn't want my computer to run out of red pixels!

Look at me! I actually did something on guild council! I re-implemented a venue hire policy that previous years of Star had allowed to be forgotten!

I was a competent SOC President - so competent that not only did I set up The Society for Mature Age Students, they've lapsed as a guild club before I've even left office! How's that for efficiency!? As SOC President, I allowed funding for existing clubs to be diluted by not questioning the affiliation of more than 20 new clubs, and then I followed that up by doing nothing to increase clubroom space!

I think that "responding" to something is all I need to do - because then people reading my blurb think I'm "doing" something about parking! I also like to pretend the guild has control over parking, when in fact it has none at all!

My policy includes responding to New Courses! (There's that "responding" word again!). New Courses will be the biggest educational shake-up in UWA history and it is incredibly important that the Guild is adequately equipped to deal with the changes! Next year with the support of Rachel Lee (STAR Education candidate) I will: launch 'My Voice' (a campus wide educational survey to gauge the impact and issues arising from New Courses)! (BECAUSE WE ALL KNOW THAT THE CATERING SURVEY WAS A HUGE SUCCESS, RIGHT?)

"I won't stand for ideals, symbols, feelings, moving forward, back or direct action." (Wait, what? Does that even make sense? Doesn't that mean that you're standing for nothing?)

The guild is fucked. I know this because I'm the president of a club that has to deal with them. My committee also has more people than the Guild Council, so being guild president will really be a step down for me.

I think students are being oppressed by the guild, I mean it's clearly the guild's fault that Broadway is several hundred meters away. This has clear repercussions - students paying less and getting fit while they walk there. This is actually good for me as a Comp Sci student - it's my "outside time" for the day.

"I'll try to keep this short". (There, was that so hard?)

GUILD PRESIDENT & SENATE
REPRESENTATIVE
HOT CHIP BRIGADE

I'm running because the rest of CSSC committee is running. But I'm also a science student, not a law or arts student, so you should vote for me.

LUKE VILLIERS

GUILD PRESIDENT & SENATE
REPRESENTATIVE
CAPITALIST STATE OF CRAWLEY

Clearly I'm a joke - I'm not even organized enough to get a picture or a coherent statement into the election broadsheet.

ALEXIS VASSILEY

GUILD PRESIDENT & SENATE
LEFT ACTION

My picture follows you as you move around the room,
so clearly I am awesome.

I'm screwed now that they've removed the "study women" major – how will I find out about them now!?

Other things I stand for but are completely irrelevant to the guild:

- Equal marriage rights
- Ending mandatory detention
- Real climate action
- Support Aboriginal rights – save the Kimberly! (because somehow these two things are related?)

ASH TYNDALL

GUILD PRESIDENT & C
REPRESENTATIVE
HOT CHIP BRIGADE

I know about surfing and I look like Alanis Morissette, what more could you want? Oh, and I'll ensure the future of the hot chip industry too!

MATTHEW MCKENZIE

GUILD PRESIDENT & SENATE REPRESENTATIVE
LIBERTY

Aside from bringing stunning good looks and an English accent to the guild, I will also “mentor” women in your business.

Unlike every other candidate, I actually have a good idea for something that CAN be done for guild catering – EFTPOS! This will lead to a 22% increase in sales because all the students with National Bank will no longer have to walk to Broadway to get money out.

The guild is fucked, they're operating with half a million dollar deficit. Clearly they need someone with some clue about money in there, especially with that compulsory $250 A&S fee that Labor is pushing through the Senate at the moment.

HOT CHIP BRIGADE

I like putting things in my mouth (especially hot chips!).
