

Wild Swan Theater's Fall Classes

Puppetry & Play

Ever wanted to learn how to build puppets? In this 6 week class, students will learn how to build different kinds of puppets and use them to help tell stories through different creative drama, improvisation and storytelling activities. The class will culminate with a sharing from each student and their favorite puppet! (Instructor: Erin McDonald)

Days: Thursdays
Time: 4:15 – 5:30pm
Cost: $100.00

Dates: September 27, October 4, 11, 18, 25, November 1
For students in grades 1 - 3

Let's Pretend

We'll put on our "pretending caps" and see where our imaginations take us! Using some of our favorite stories as a starting point, we will go to a world where anything is possible! Storytelling, creative movement and just plain silliness are sure to make this class a perfect experience for your young actor. (Instructor: Sandy Ryder)

Days: Tuesdays
Time: 10:15 – 11am
Cost: $60.00

Dates: October 9, 16, 23, 30
For 3 & 4 year-olds

Improvisation: The Who, What, & Where of Theater

Join us for 6 adventurous, surprising, and fun classes where we'll become our own improvisational troupe of actors! We'll play a lot of theater games and do many improv exercises developed by Viola Spolin, the person who inspired Second City, the famous theater company from Chicago. The beauty of improvisation is that it's always a surprise and a discovery! Actors and the audience will be sure to laugh a lot and learn so much about what makes a good scene, how to keep a story moving, and how to truly 'be' in the moment with your fellow actors.
