 - Basic familiarity with the use of a computer and an LCD projector is required

- What type of equipment will I need to present the ConcussionWise™ Live course?
 - In order to deliver the course content, you must have the following equipment:
 - Computer (PC or MAC)
 - LCD projector and screen, or large screen monitor suitable for audience size
 - Speakers.

- How long is the ConcussionWise™ Live course?
 - Course length may vary depending on questions. We recommend one hour.
- Can I include additional information in the course I present?
 - ConcussionWise™ Instructors may include additional information in their presentation regarding program-specific concussion policies and procedures. However, instructors must make it clear that this information is not part of the ConcussionWise™ education program, and that Sport Safety International does not review, endorse, or support the additional content. Content which is contradictory to the information provided in the ConcussionWise™ program may not be presented.
- Will Sport Safety International come to my facility to deliver a ConcussionWise™ Instructor course?
 - Yes! Sport Safety International is always looking for organizations interested in partnering to deliver sport safety education. Contact us at CWI@SportSafetyInternational.org.
- Does Sport Safety International assist ConcussionWise™ Instructors with advertising courses or reserving facilities?
 - No. Sport Safety International provides ConcussionWise™ Instructors with the tools needed to conduct ConcussionWise™ courses in a live format. It is up to the individual instructor to advertise courses, and secure equipment and meeting space to conduct the course.
- How will participants sign up for a ConcussionWise™ Live course that I will be presenting?
 - As a ConcussionWise™ Instructor, you have the option of creating your own sign-up method, or using Sport Safety International's online registration system, where participants can register for your courses online.
- What if I have more questions
 - Please contact us at CWI@SportSafetyInternational.org with any additional questions regarding the ConcussionWise™ Live or ConcussionWise™ Instructor programs.
