Maui Lani is a planned community located between Kahului and Wailuku designed to offer residents the finest in housing, recreation and business development while respecting the aina and the beauty of the Valley Isle.

Strategically located at the core of Maui's population center, the Maui Lani Village Center is a superb choice for businesses looking to establish themselves at the heart of Central Maui's growing community.

Easily accessible via new regional roadways, the Center is conveniently located within minutes of Kahului's harbor, airport and hospital, and surrounded by more than 70,000 residents within a 10-mile radius. Nearby are growing residential neighborhoods, Pomaikai Elementary School and the new Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, with an estimated local membership of 6,000.

The Center's flexible mixed-use zoning allows for a wide array of uses including light industrial, retail, professional and medical offices, restaurants, recreation centers, financial services, educational facilities, grocery stores and residential units. Buyers can opt to design and build their own custom facilities, or purchase a turnkey package in the project's Professional Row neighborhood. Lots are fully entitled and ready-to-build, with utilities already stubbed and county water meters available.
