

LATTER-DAY PROPHET MEMORY PICS AND ACTIONS

PROPHET	FUN FACT	FUN FACT PIC	ACTION
Joseph Smith	Translated the golden plates into the Book of Mormon .	Golden Plates	Hold hands like an open book.
Brigham Young	Brought the saints to Utah.	Covered Wagon	Pretend to hold reins and bounce up and down as if you are riding in covered wagon
John Taylor	He was shot several times but a pocket watch stopped a bullet from entering his chest and killing him.	Pocket Watch	Point to a pretend watch on your wrist.
Wilford Woodruff	He dedicated the Salt Lake Temple in 1893.	Moroni Statue	Pretend to blow a trumpet like the statue of Moroni on the temple.
Lorenzo Snow	He promised rain if the saints started to pay tithing.	Rain & Tithing	Using your hands and fingers make rain fall.
Joseph F. Smith	He was only 15 years old when he received a mission call to serve in Hawaii.	Hula Girl	Pretend to hula dance.
Heber J. Grant	He worked hard to earn money to buy a baseball and he practiced to become good at throwing a ball.	Baseball & Marbles	Pretend to hit or throw a baseball.
George Albert Smith	He was known for his kindness and promised "not to be an enemy to any living soul."	Handshake	Pretend to shake hands.
David O. McKay	He taught the principle of "Every member a missionary."	"O" & Missionary Tag	Make a big "O" with your arms above your head.
Joseph Fielding Smith	He was known for "inviting all to come unto Christ." He especially loved children.	Girl Blowing a Kiss	Blow a kiss after saying his name.
Harold B. Lee	He loved to play the piano and was very good at it.	Piano	Pretend to play the piano.
Spencer W. Kimball	He worked hard as a child. While doing his chores like milking a cow, he would memorize things like his ABCs, the times tables, the Article of Faith.	Cow	Pretend to milk a cow.
Ezra Taft Benson	He loved scouting and was a scoutmaster and very active in scouting his whole life.	Boy Scout	Make the scout sign.
Howard W. Hunter	Howard taught himself to play many instruments and was very good.	Musical Instruments	Pretend to play a trombone or other instrument.
Gordon B. Hinkley	He taught us the 6 B's: Be Grateful, Be Smart, Be Clean, Be True, Be Humble, Be Prayful	Bee	Hold up 6 fingers.
Thomas S. Monson	He has a big heart and is always serving others.	Heart	Draw a heart over your chest or make ♥ with hands.