Thankyou! The Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival would like to thank all those who help to make this great festival happen;

- The Blue Mountains Ukulele Group (The Blue MUGs),
- Our venues including the Carrington Hotel, the Blue Mountains Cultural Centre and the Paragon Cafe
- Our artists and graphic designers
- Most of all, the volunteers, who give up their time to help make sure everyone has a great time.

Welcome to the Seventh Annual Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival. This year, we have had a lot to do with the home of the ukulele, Hawaii, and our theme is 'Blue Hawaii to the Blue Mountains'. Our festival has never been bigger, with over 120 acts across 9 stages. You can see acts ranging from pop, to folk, to jazz, to punk, to classical. Take the time to have a look through program and plan your time to catch as many of our great acts as you can. We hope you have a great time here in the beautiful Blue Mountains.

Our festival is free. This is a point of pride to us as we want as many people as possible to access the joy that is the ukulele. We would like to thank all of our sponsors - their support is vital to the continued existence of our festival. We encourage you to seek out our sponsors and support them as they have supported us. We have a fantastic raffle with some great prizes this year, so make sure you catch up with our raffle ticket sellers and buy some tickets. Who knows, you might get lucky! We also have a wide range of Festival merchandise. This year you can buy items including t-shirts, music bags and lapel pins. Make sure you check out our merchandise tables and take home some stuff to help you remember the great times you had here at the (still free!) Seventh Annual Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival. You will also find a donation box on each stage. If you enjoy your time here at the festival, think about putting some money in. You will be helping our volunteers (no-one organising this amazing event is getting paid), helping cover our bills and making sure that we can continue to do this year after year.

The Blue Mountains Ukulele Group would like to thank all the performers who are playing this year. We know that you have put in countless hours practicing for your performance. To those who are new to our festival, we can't wait to see you show us your talents. To those who have performed before, we can't wait to see how you have grown as performers over the past year.
