Thankyou! The Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival would like to thank all those who help to make this great festival happen;

- The Blue Mountains Ukulele Group (The Blue MUGs),
- Our venues including the Carrington Hotel, the Blue Mountains Cultural Centre and the Paragon Cafe
- Our artists and graphic designers
- Most of all, the volunteers, who give up their time to help make sure everyone has a great time.

Welcome to the eighth Annual Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival. This year, we have opened a new stage and configured some of the existing stages to accommodate the 140 plus acts. You can see acts ranging from pop, to folk, to jazz, to punk, to classical. Take the time to have a look through program and plan your time to catch as many of our great acts as you can. We hope you have a great time here in the beautiful Blue Mountains.

Our festival is free. This is a point of pride to us as we want as many people as possible to access the joy that is the ukulele. We would like to thank all of our sponsors - their support is vital to the continued existence of our festival. We encourage you to seek out our sponsors and support them as they have supported us. We have a fantastic raffle with some great prizes this year, so make sure you catch up with our raffle ticket sellers and buy some tickets. Who knows, you might get lucky! We also have a wide range of Festival merchandise. This year you can buy items including t-shirts, music bags and lapel pins. Make sure you check out our merchandise tables and take home some stuff to help you remember the great times you had here at the (still free!) eighth Annual Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival. You will also find a donation box on each stage. If you enjoy your time here at the festival, think about putting some money in. You will be helping our volunteers (no-one organising this amazing event is getting paid), helping cover our bills and making sure that we can continue to do this year after year.

The Blue Mountains Ukulele Group would like to thank all the performers who are playing this year. We know that you have put in countless hours practicing for your performance. To those who are new to our Festival, we can't wait to see you show us your talents. To those who have performed before, we can't wait to see how you have grown as performers over the past year.

Our Open Mic Stage is inside the Paragon Café on Saturday and Sunday.

(NUTS.) Northside Ukulele Team - NUTS are a Community Ukulele Group on the Northside of Sydney. We have fun and play popular entertaining songs. We play annually at the Narrabeen Lakes Festival and are invited to other Community Events on the Northern Beaches. 3Rd Tuesday Uke Club - If you're done looking for the Heart of Saturday Night, and you'll Never On a Sunday again, and you can't Tell Why You Don't Like Mondays, then come on over to Tuesdayland and let us look after you for a while...

Abba Dabba (Silver Ukulele Strummers) - will perform Abba numbers which will be fun and the audience is asked to join in with singing and playing. Abba Dabba recently went to the Trundle Abba Festival and performed.

Accidental Luddites - Some have said that the ukulele can drive you to drink. Accidental Luddites is taking the uke to songs which have a drinking theme from a range of eras and styles.

Adam on his own - Hailing from the central coast and one half of OHANA, Adam is playing songs with a chilled out vibe.

And Your Bird Can Sing - Reprising their cancelled show from festival 2015, And Your Bird Can Sing hope to be even better than they weren't last year. All the hits from the 20s - 40s, with some surprises thrown in. We don't even know what they are!

Andrew Smith - has taught and performed music for over 20 years but for the last 5 years has become somewhat obsessed with the Ukulele. His show will present a variety of popular songs in different styles and moods using complex fingerpicking and strum patterns.

Annette Posimani - Praise and worship spiritual experience on uke; an individual's perspective

Anthony Priwer - Adelaide-born Anthony writes new songs in a classic style. With heartfelt vocals and ukulele, his debut album, Time to Stop Dreaming, was independently released in 2015.

Aubrey & Purton - is a harmony driven duo featuring original material plus one hundred years' worth of pop, folk, blues ... you name it. Audience participation is a major factor in any A&P performance. BHUKELECTIVE - Blaxland High Ukulele Collective - formed in 2015 and features students from Year 7 to 12, playing classic and modern repertoire with 4-part vocal harmonies.

Biff McGee - Easy listening Insh/Folk

BIRTH - from Osaka Japan. In 2013 they performed at the international ukulele contest held in Hawaii and performed love on the Hawaiian radio station KAZOO RADIO. They performed at the 2014 Melbourne UK Festival as well as here at the 2015 and last year.

Blue Hills Village Strummers - We are a senior group from Prestons and we do charity performance for retirement Villagers, senior Groups Etc

Bogey Humphart and The Key of Largo - take you back to the era of the Silver Screen and the memorable tunes of the period which lend themselves so well to the Ukulele. You'll want to play it again Sam. Bondi Phil - The sweet and saucy voice of Sydney's inner west meets the crazy crooning of the eastern suburbs. Songs from the great and enduring American songbook, worthy recent pop, and the odd mischievous original composition.

Butterfly - Eclectic songs of yesterday and today from different genres and original work.

Cameron Murray - has been playing uke since childhood. A George Formby-like strummer and occasional picker, he enjoys performing original songs and classics and is also a teacher and the publisher of international ukulele magazine KAMUKE. Central Coast Ukulele Club and djembe corp - players are enthusiastic, fun and always entertaining. They are the friendliest and supportive group you'll ever meet and who enjoy the Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival with delight each year.

Charles and Yolanda - In January 2002, Rose Turtle Ertler laid the foundation of the current uke movement in Australia when she hosted Ukulele Land. We would like keep the spirit alive at the Blue Mountains Ukulele Festival again in 2017 with songs of the jazz and bebop era.

Please join with the Blue MUGs to acknowledge and send a special thankyou to all the performers who come along each year to make the Festival such a wonderful community event.

Chatham City - have broken the mold of uke bands. Searching for a better sound, a new sound, but an old style nonetheless. Music that catches your heart and makes you want to sing Coversheets - Fun semi-modern rock music, with a hint of punk, a twist of folk and a dash of awesome-sauce. Dave Favours - Singer/songwriter from Sydney performing a mixture of originals and covers.

Demented Ukeholics - We are just two uke players with songs in our heads. We love playing our ukes, singing, and ukefying songs that you know and love.

Doctor Stephen Hawkins And His Incredibly Amazing Ukulele Folk Jug Band With Enid And Adam -Three ukuleles and too much whisky is a dangerous combination.

Don't Ask For Favours - 40 something going on 20 something. Enjoying playing tunes leaning on the Sun side of Country Music with Sound City attitude.

Duke and the Dragan - are an experienced instrumental duo that attack some of the most challenging ukulele music going around including some of their own arrangements. They will be joined by superb vocalist Ellie Kate for a few of their songs.

Fans of Etta James - Etta was a pioneer of rhythm and blues. A marvellous artist.

Feisty Ukes - Contemporary songs

FOK ROK - From Circle Music, 3 ukes with a driving bass and a percussionist, are as far away from grass skirts and pineapples that you can get. They'll groove their way through rock and pop songs from the past decades.

Forster Jumping Fleas - are an enthusiastic group of older players who enjoy 50s - 90s songs and entertaining 'oldies'

Frank Martin - Crooning the greatest Ukulele hits of Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and others.

Freestyle - Once a loyal guitar player, Brian was seduced by the charm of the Ukulele some 3 years ago. He has finally stopped looking for the missing two strings, and is now focused on what can actually be done with these deceptively innocuous little stringed things

Grazing Hawley - Fun trio on uke, drums and bass playing favourites to make you smile

Handcuffed & Tasered - Three ukuleles supported by drums & bass performing a variety of country, rock & pop songs.

Island Style - plays Polynesian and Hawaiian music both contemporary and classics.

Jack n Jel - Mark Jackson & Jane Jelbart tour the USA to collect songs from folk music camps and sessions. They blend this rich tradition of music with their own originals which sound alt-country, bluesy, a little bit weird but often funny!

Jake and Jen ... Jen and Jake and Dave - Must we. Ain't nobody got time for thaasaat :)

James Newbold - Classical pieces straight from the concert hall to the ukulele.

Jazz Standards for Ukes - 30 Minute of Jazz standards on Ukulele. We will play songs made famous by Frank Sinatra, Nat King Cole and other great Jazz singers. Come along and enjoy the music.

Jim and Adam - We will do folk and Gospel covers and original self-composed Folk and Gospel Covers

John Kok - Romance with a ukulele - Songs and ballads of different musical styles for a ukulele and vocalist.

John's Jam - John just wants to jam. Come and jam with John! Singalong pop songs from all eras.

Kangalales - Rollicking old pop songs and some amusing originals.

Khristina Joy & Z Chords - Sit back and enjoy the Z Chords and their eclectic choice of music as they take you through a fast-paced mystery tour of popular music.

Khristina Joy TribUKE - Khristina (Port Macquarie) on vocals and ukulele joins up with Lyal Loughnan (Sydney) on bass to present some favourite tunes which will re-activate and stimulate the memory banks and vocal chords of you, the audience.

Savoir Faire - Are a newly formed group and we'd love to perform some jazz standards. Singing duo Karri MacDonald and Pat Farrell are accompanied on bass by Peter Winkler.

Lady & The Tramps - The big, brashy sound you can only get when you have a superstar out in front.

Led Ukz - Four lovers of Led Zeppelin and a love child came together to shake up the uke world with their version of hard rock, the ukulele way. ACDC, Deep Purple, Cream, Santana will all be raving about how Led Ukz manage to cover the iconic songs of 1970.

Little Big Band - Blue suede shoes eight days a week brain damage solid rock not pretty enough chaz my disease

Little Black Ducks - is a group of uke-buddies who love to perform melodies from the first half of the twentieth century. We focus on uke but include a variety of other instruments.

Los Trios Towradgi - A mixed up trio that performs Latin numbers with a surprise.

Lucy-Lu - sings timeless songs about life, love and loss that speak to the heart and stir the soul.

Mirrabooka - A brilliant four piece act of ukulele players that will entertain you with catchy originals and catchy covers.

Mookulele (Warrimoo PS) - is a group of primary school students from Warrimoo Public School. We meet every Wednesday morning before school to learn new songs. We prefer contemporary songs but play a mix from the 60s to now.

mUKEas - A suburban band of music lovers from Wollongong - We like the challenge of playing current songs and also putting our own flavour to some oldies

Nell's Belles - are a ukulele group from Sydney's Inner West who play a mix of amusing and touching original material as well as inventive arrangements of unexpected pop and indie/punk classics.

Nick Bennett - Solo instrumentalist specialising in Kentucky Thumbstyle. Playing covers in jazz blues rock and folk

Nick Paisley - performs melodic pop songs - a mix of originals from his CD "Ukulele Songs" and some well-known covers

OHANA - are a husband and wife duo from the central coast who play a wide variety of tunes from the 60's to today. They have fun and love crowd participation! A group not to be missed!
Original Cyn - Mostly mellow jazz with songs I like from across the decades. I try to find songs that feature uke.

Petersham Ukulele Group - thrives on community spirit and democratic anarchy - the only rule is that EVERYONE sings and strums (preferably at the same time). The Beatles may be involved...

Plastered Bastard Sisters - Kylie and Libby are (still) the Plastered Bastard Sisters! Performing in venues all over the country, PBS are irreverent, charming and nuts. Combining bad jokes, beautiful harmonies and rockin' ukuleles, a show put on by these girls is never boring!

PLUC - The Petersham Leichhardt Ukulele Club - is an inner-westie uke club of un-gifted amateurs and beer O'clock Divas with a diverse repertoire from Punk to alt-Country, from Ella to TayTay and The Carpenters to The Saints

Plus a Few Others - 80's classics, that you know and love, performed with energy, harmony, 5 ukes and a melodica

Que Sera Sera - French, Italian, German, Spanish. Classics. Blues.

Red Bones - 20's and 30's standards with a tip of the Panama Hat to Leon Redbone

Red Heads - Interesting songs from the 80's and 90's

Richard Johnson - Playing a range of material from the blues to originals

Robyn Locke - Songs old and new played in sweet succession, Robyn brings a unique inflection to the mighty uke.

SHUG - From the depths of the Inner West come a group of work weary warriors with a passion for picking small guitars, throwing harmonies around and sharing moments of ukulele magic with anyone who will listen!

Small Hat Big Country - is a trio which writes and performs songs with an all-country flavour. We also do covers of well-known and not so familiar songs.

Soul Feliz - means happy soul. Through original & cover tunes, SF plays music that is designed to make you smile. With influences from folk, blues, jazz & Latin, her uplifting lyrics & smooth uke & vocals make music to spread the good vibes.

South Pacific Echo - Are a group of diverse nationalities singing South Pacific Islander Song with the experience of the Welsh, Irish, Australian, Filipino, Maltese and Led by a Tongan.

Stan Pluckmore & the ukettes - Teachers from Stanmore Public School who love meeting on a Friday morning before school to engage in music therapy to get us through to the weekend.

Strumnhum - We perform some Australian classics from the 80s will also include a couple of original songs this year and then there is always the unforgettable "Summer time" so we like to throw in just a little twist of jazz big fans of Amy Winehouse.

Sue Stenning - Songs of the 70's, we know and love are brought to life in these ukulele interpretations. From delicate fingerpicking of a Roberta Flack song, instrumentals of a Cat Stevens song, to the passionate vocals of a Joan Armatrading ballad

Team Happy - Ridiculously happy people singing somewhat melancholy songs. A journey from folk to punk and back via de-fanged disco

Terry Sasaki - Romantic instrumental music in any genre on a 5-string uke. Approach in "The less notes, the more romantic".

The Angry Townsfolk - Up-tempo inner city classics and should-have-been classics.

The Brass Traps - re-imagines what Swing music would sound like if it had been invented in the 2000s. The songs will put a smile on your face, a tap in your toe and a tune in your voice!

The Brothers - We really are brothers, play Beatles, Pink Floyd, Beach Boys etc.

The BUK Showcase - A program from the BUK 4 Chord Thursday Songbook singalongs plus performances from selected members in solo duo and trio formats.

The Chordbusters - Between them just over a century and a half in years and nearly as much stringed instrument experience they can still bring the house down!

The Clarileles - A happy marriage of ukuleles and clarinets that combine to enhance crowd-pleasing popular numbers.

The Crumpets - Put a bit of honey on the crumpets and let it go down strumplet!

The Daily Specials - The Daily Specials! Not your everyday bargain basement fare! Serving you up a smorgasbord from the deli counter of C20 music...take a number!

The Downbeats - Finest artisanal ukulele stylists, we didn't die last year, so we thought it might be safe to try again.

The Everlele Brothers - The group revives the hits of the Everly Brothers and other duos. Vocal harmonies and ukulele virtuosity are the main features.

The Funkadelics - a Uke/Bass duo playing in a variety of styles from soft jazz to hard rock and everything in between. Their playing style is fast, funny and loud!!

The Idiot Box - A small group that plays your favourite TV themes, and gives you an irresistible urge to sing along!

The Joy Boyz - Colleen and the Joy Boyz is a group of lusty males and a sultry female who keeps them in check. They meet to play the ukulele weekly and enjoy the fun and friendship the ukulele brings

The Lightly Strung Orchestra - One of the finest ukulele ensembles on Sydney's Northern Beaches, this motley crew loves sharing their music and being part of something wonderful!

The Maybelles - met over their love of the Carter Family's music which has had a profound influence. Naming themselves after Mother Maybelle Carter, Donna and Brenda perform songs from the bluegrass and country traditions. Sing along! Special guests!

The Melbourne School Of Ukulele - Tristen and Scarlett are ukulele teachers. Since meeting at the Melbourne ukulele festival they have entertained many audiences through Victoria with their power vocal and ukulele performances.

The Mother Pluckers - are a diverse group who specialise in four-part arrangements of contemporary rock and pop songs (David Bowie and RHCP) they're a "Uke Choir". Mums during the week and rock stars on the weekend

The Outlaws Big Band - An entertaining ensemble of ukulele teachers from across Australia come together to perform complex, largely instrumental, arrangements of big band, classical and jazz in as many as six parts.

The Shire-leles - 9 ukulele players from the Sutherland Shire.

The Springwood 5 - 5 or less players from Springwood with an eclectic mix of old-timey and classic random multi-generational standards

The STRUMpets - are a band of musicians from the Jervis Bay and Basin area in coquettish costumes performing a mixture of originals and covers - some following the theme of our raunchy name, others extolling our environmental ethos.

The Sunflowers - Folk, Blues and Country

The Swingaleles - A Wollongong based ukulele group that promotes the ukulele throughout the Illawarra and is noted for fun and mondaine arrangements.

The Uke East Big Band - Is based in Sydney's Eastern Suburbs. A key component of Uke East is the 'Big Band' which regularly performs at local community events, festival and nursing homes, bringing smiles and packing plenty of fun!

The Ukin' Ulan Cowboy - Jim Westwood is a true blue troubadour, accompanied by accomplished musician Phillip "Scrubby" Boyd, Jim will amaze with an array of tales penned in verse and song, unique Aussie portraits of people and places he has met along the track.

The Verandah Band - is from Sydney's northern suburbs. We have fun playing a variety of popular songs from the sixties to eighties with diabolical discord or sublime harmony. We regularly play at four Ukulele clubs and run a groups day.

The Virtual Street Corner Band - Originals and parodies that poke fun at sacred cows and elephants in the room. Politicians, pop songs, Australian culture, the media and ukulele players are all fair game for the mischievous, mickey-taking, Virtual Street Corner Band.

The Wild Women of Armidale - The revolutionary Wild Women from the lunatic fringe have shocked and delighted audiences with humorous-political performances for over 20 years. Fearlessly adapting songs to their own style, when they sashay on stage you will be guaranteed a good time.

Three Degrees of Separation - We met over a uke a couple of years ago, and discovered we had so many things in common that we couldn't reach the usual six degrees of separation. We love the variety of music that can be played on a ukulele and try to reflect this in our performance.

Three Gs - made up of 3 generations from the same family. The band comprises U-bass, banjo-uke, percussion, sax and a number of vocalists. We play up-tempo songs from a variety of genres which will have the audience moving to the beat.

Tom the Pom - 4 Strings and the truth. A poppy, punky solo act with some songs you know in a style you can guess at. u4ria - The "4" in u4ria means that there are five members. We play anything from Beatles to Bluegrass.

Ukaste Ukestra - Imagine combining a ukulele orchestra, a choir and a musical theatre production from "Hair"! We play original arrangements of songs and send them to new places with ukulele and voice. We believe in creating a show for the audience!

Uke Carambal - Ayyee Caramba, its Uke Carambal We like music with a Latin beat.

UkeBox - A mixed bag of folk, blues, early R & B, pop and rock

Uke-keens - are a vibrant young ukulele act, who put their stamp on contemporary songs.

Ukelikelys - Canberra based 3-piece blues & jazz group

Ukelypstix - With a penchant for lipstick, eucalypts and the ukulele, Alannah Russack and Suze Pratten have a Uke up each sleeve and a tale to tell. Hailing from the Colo River, these veteran performers play their ukes as instruments of mass construction!

UkeSista - Playing a variety of songs that we are loving at the moment, and having fun doing it.

Ukestral Voices - This is a community choir with a little difference, i.e. the ukulele difference. Three to four part harmony arrangements of songs accompanied by the uke. It's a rich vocal sound with an underpinning of arpeggios and riffs.

Ukette's - Fun group of four eclectic women from Sydney's Inner West, who have joined the Uke revolution & are loving every moment. With infectious smiles & bouncy energy, proving if we can Uke-ette, anyone can.
