NEW SPRING SEASONAL

Fleshwound – Imperial Irish Red Steinbier

Prescription 12 our Spring Seasonal for the last four years has been put into an induced coma. Let us introduce you to Fleshwound. Holy hot lava, our new Spring seasonal is an Imperial Irish Red Steinbier.

Here at Doctor's Orders Brewing we love malt, hops and smoke. With our new Spring Seasonal we've also added another favourite, fire. Fire to heat volcanic rocks that we dropped into the kettle which super-heated our sweet wort.

The super-heated volcanic rocks when dunked into the wort imparted a luscious caramel and toffee profile with a hint of smoke marrying perfectly with the Irish Red base with a bonus of 7% alcohol.
