The Lebanese Presence Worldwide IV

In its fourth edition, the colloquium aims to highlight the Lebanese presence worldwide as expressed through the cultural heritage and religious and social symbolism. Particular attention is given to the almost unique presence in the world. Lebanon is the only country on earth whose people are divided. ; that is, Its emigrants are more numerous than the residents of the country.

The colloquium organizers turn their attention to the learned knowledge of the speakers to help highlight a Lebanese presence that has always overcome times of crisis and that rejuvenate the spirit of Lebanon through its dissemination across the five continents. The Lebanese presence perpetuates the covenant of humanity and certainly the icon.
