

Free webinar with Joe Dale

Planning a virtual field trip to New Orleans

a virtual tour of a place, city or region: a powerful vehicle for

- promoting intercultural understanding
- creating authentic language learning opportunities
- free web tools for planning a virtual field trip:
New Orleans as an example destination
- how to find creative commons licensed images on Flickr
- how to incorporate them into a Pinterest board
- how to share them via a Padlet wall
- Storybird as a creative writing tool bringing together key vocabulary and expressions
- how to create a Google Slides presentation based on the content

Planning a virtual field trip to New Orleans

Presenter:
Joe Dale

07th May 2015
19:00h – 20:30h
Central European Time

Organiser:
Jürgen Wagner

Host:
Thomas Strasser

<http://www.timeanddate.com/worldclock/converter.html>

Registration: If it's a first time registration, please send along the name of your school, university, institute, etc. to JWagner@lpm.uni-sb.de

Access link: <https://webconf.vc.dfn.de/fieldtrip/>

Planning a virtual field trip

Enter as a Guest

Name

Enter Room

You will need neither a username, nor a password.

Select the option “Enter as a guest” and enter IMPERATIVELY !!! your FULL !!! name into the box. (All attendees are “guests”).

Find further free webinars for teachers of foreign languages at <http://v.gd/webinars>

- Joe Dale is an independent languages consultant from the UK who works with a range of organisations such as Network for Languages, ALL, The British Council, the BBC, Skype, Microsoft and The Guardian.
- He is host of the TES MFL forum, former SSAT Languages Lead Practitioner, a regular conference speaker and recognised expert on technology and language learning.
- He has spoken at conferences and run training courses in Europe, North America, the Middle East, the Far East and Australia.
- He was a member of the Ministerial Steering Group on languages for the current UK government and was short-listed for a NAACE Impact Award in 2013 too.
- Joe was recently described in a Guardian article as an 'MFL guru' and 'the man behind the #mfltwitterati.'
- His blog <http://www.joedale.typepad.com> has been nominated for four Edublog Awards.